

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CHURCH HARMONIES:

A COLLECTION OF

HYMNS AND TUNES

FOR THE USE OF CONGREGATIONS.

PREPARED UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE UNIVERSALIST PUBLISHING HOUSE.

PREFACE.

For many years there has been a growing desire in many congregations of the Universalist Church to participate more directly in the service of singing in the public worship. The present Collection of Hymns and Tunes has been made to meet this desire; and the compilers believe they have succeeded in producing a work which will meet the needs of our people.

The tunes have been selected with reference to congregational singing only; and as there are hymns so closely associated with old tunes that they suggest one another, and could hardly be divorced, the compilers have not hesitated to insert a tune a number of times, when it seemed best adapted to give expression to the hymns. It is believed that this will be found a valuable and welcome feature of the work.

The hymns are mainly those of the fine new collection known among us as the "Portland Collection," when published without a liturgy, and as "Prayers and Hymns," when published with a liturgy. To make each page complete, it has been found necessary to make an addition of nearly two hundred hymns, all of which add value to the book.

By arrangement with Oliver Ditson & Co., Hamersly & Co., and other owners of the copyrights of tunes, we have been able to make a fine collection of tunes for congregational singing. And we publish the "Church Harmonies," believing it will be welcomed by our people as a help to Christian worship.

The few errors appearing in past editions are corrected in this.

CHURCH HARMONIES.

SABBATH WORSHIP.

Solemn Invocation.

- I Come, thou Almighty King,
 Help us thy name to sing,
 Help us to praise;
 Father all glorious,
 O'er all victorious,
 Come, and reign over us,
 Ancient of days!
- 2 Come, thou all-gracious Lord!
 By heaven and earth adored,
 Our prayer attend!
 Come, and thy children bless;
 Give thy good word success;
 Make thine own holiness
 On us descend!
- Rule thou in every heart,
 Hence, evermore!
 Thy sovereign majesty
 May we in glory see,
 And to eternity
 Love and adore!

Let there be Light.

- 1 Thou, whose Almighty word Chaos and darkness heard, And took their flight! Hear us, we humbly pray; And, where the Gospel day Sheds not its glorious ray, Let there be light.
- 2 Thou, who didst come to bring.
 On thy redeeming wing,
 Healing and sight!
 Health to the sick in mind,
 Light to the inly blind,
 Oh now, to all mankind,
 Let there be light!
- 3 Descend thou from above,
 Spirit of truth and love,—
 Speed on thy flight!
 Move o'er the waters' face,
 Spirit of hope and grace,
 And, in earth's darkest place,
 Let there be light!

F. H. Hunga

Invocation.

- 1 Sov'reign and transforming Grace! We invoke thy quickening power; Reign the spirit of this place, Bless the purpose of this hour.
- 2 Holy and creative Light! We invoke thy kindling ray; Dawn upon our spirits' night; Turn our darkness into day.
- 3 To the anxious soul impart
 Hope all other hopes above;
 Stir the dull and hardened heart
 With a longing and a love.
- Work in all, in all renew,
 Day by day, the life divine;
 All our wills to thee subdue,
 All our hearts to thee incline.

C. WESLEY.

6

Seeking God.

- 1 LIGHT of life, seraphic fire; Love divine, thyself impart: Every fainting soul inspire; Enter every drooping heart:
- Severy mournful sinner cheer, Scatter all our guilty gloom; Father, in thy grace appear, To thy human temples come.
- 8 Come, in this accepted hour,
 Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;

Fill us with thy glorious power, Rooting out the seeds of sin.

4 Nothing more can we require, We will covet nothing less; Be thou all our heart's desire, Be our heaven, in holiness!

Love to the Saviour.

- 1 HARK, my soul, it is the Lord;
 'T is thy Saviour,—hear his word,
 Jesus speaks, he speaks to thee:—
 Say, poor wanderer, lov'st thou me?
- 2 Lord, it is my chief complaint That my love is still so faint, Yet I love thee and adore: O for grace to love thee more!

METHODEST COLL

Invocation.

- 1 FATHER, at thy footstool see
 Those who now are one in thee:
 Draw us by thy grace alone;
 Give, O give us to thy Son.
- 2 Jesus, friend of human kind, Let us in thy name be joined; Each to each unite and bless; Keep us still in perfect peace.
- 3 Heavenly, all-alluring Dove, Shed thy overshadowing love; Love, the sealing grace, impart: Dwell within our single heart.

The Divine Spirit.

- 1 Spirit divine! attend our prayer, And make our hearts thy home; Descend with all thy gracious power: Come, Holy Spirit, come!
- 2 Come as the light; to waiting minds That long the truth to know, Reveal the narrow path of right, The way of duty show.
- 3 Come as the fire; enkindle now The sacrificial flame, Till our whole souls an offering be, In love's redeeming name.
- 4 Come as the dew; on hearts that pine Descend in this still hour. Till every barren place shall own With joy thy quickening power.
- 5 Come as the wind, with rushing sound, With Pentecostal grace; And make the great salvation known, Wide as the human race.

C. WHELET. 10

Divine Presence Implored.

- 1 S. EAK with us, Lord; thyself reveal, While here on earth we rove; Speak to our hearts, and let us feel The kindlings of thy love.
- With thee conversing, we forget All toil, and time, and care; Labor is rest, and pain is sweet, If thou art present there.

3 Here then, my God, be pleased to stay. And bid my heart rejoice; My bounding heart shall own thy sway,

And echo to thy voice.

H. WARE, JR. Invoking God's Aid.

- 1 FATHER in heaven, to thee my heart Would lift itself in prayer; Drive from my soul each earthly tho't, And show thy presence there.
- 2 Each moment of my life renews The mercies of my Lord, Each moment is itself a gift To bear me on to God.
- 3 O, help me break the galling chains This world round me has thrown, Each passion of my heart subdue, Each darling sin disown.
- 4 O Father, kindle in my breast A never-dying flame Of holy love, of grateful trust In thy almighty name.

Aid against Sin.

- 1 ETERNAL Spirit, God of truth, Our contrite hearts inspire; Revive the flame of heavenly love, And feed the pure desire.
- 2 Subdue the power of every sin, Whate'er that sin may be, That we, with humble, holy heart, May worship only thee.

BREVIARY. 13

Oreator Spirit.

BREVIARY.

Invocation

- 1 Thou Power and Peace! in whom we find All holiest strength, all purest love, The rushing of the mighty wind, The brooding of the gentle dove,-
- 2 Forever lend thy sovereign aid, And urge us on, and keep us thine; Nor leave the hearts which thou hast Fit temples of thy grace divine. [made
- 3 Nor let us quench thy saving light; But still with softest breathings stir Our wayward souls, and lead us right, O Holy Spirit, Comforter!

STENNETT.

1 Another six days' work is done, Another Sabbath is begun: Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest, Improve the day which God hath blest.

Sabbath Morning.

- 2 O that our tho'ts and thanks may rise, As grateful incense, to the skies, [pose, And draw from heaven that sweet re-Which none but he that feels it knows!
- 3 This heavenly calm within the breast Is the dear pledge of glorious rest, Which for the church of God remains, The end of cares, the end of pains.
- 4 In holy duties let the day— In holy pleasures—pass away: How sweet, a Sabbath thus to spend, In hope of one that ne'er shall end!

Oн, come, Creator Spirit blest, Within these souls of thine to rest: Come, with thy grace and heavenly aid, To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

- Come, Holy Spirit! now descend; Most blessed gift which God can send; Thou Fire of Love, and Fount of Life! Consume our sins, and calm our strife.
- 3 With patience firm and purpose high, The weakness of our flesh supply; Kindle our senses from above, And make our hearts o'erflow with love.

Pleasure of God's Service.

WATTS.

- 1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King, To praise thy name, give thanks, and To show thy love by morning light, [sing; And talk of all thy truth at night.
- Sweet is the day of sacred rest; No mortal care shall seize my breast: Oh, may my heart in tune be found, Like David's harp of solemn sound!
- 3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord, And bless his works, and bless his word, Thy works of grace, how bright they shine ! How deep thy counsels! how divine!
- 4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part When grace hath well refined my beart, And fresh supplies of joy are shed, Like holy oil to cheer my head.

MONTGOMERY

Invoking a Blessing.

- 1 Lord! when thy people seek thy face, And dying sinners pray to live, Hear thou in heaven, thy dwelling-place, And, when thou hearest, O forgive!
- 2 Hear when thy messengers proclaim The blessed Gospel of thy Son, Still, by the power of his great name, Be mighty signs and wonders done.
- 3 But will indeed Jehovah deign
 Here to abide, no transient guest?
 Here will the world's Redeemer reign,
 And here the Holy Spirit rest?
- 4 That glory never hence depart!
 Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone;
 Thy kingdom come to every heart,
 In every bosom fix thy throne.

16 WATTS. How amiable are thy Tabernacles, O Lord of Hosts.

- 1 GREAT God! attend, while Zion sings, The joy that from thy presence springs; To spend one day with thee, on earth, Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.
- 2 Might I enjoy the meanest place Within thy house, O God of grace, Not tents of case, nor thrones of power, Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
- 8 God is our sun,—he makes our day; God is our shield,—he guards our way; All needful grace he will bestow, And crown that grace with glory too.

4 O God! our King, whose sovereign sway The glorious hosts of heaven obey, Thy willing servants may we be, For blest are they who trust in thee.

C. ROBBINS
"Speak, Lord, for thy Servant heareth."

- 1 While thus thy throne of grace weseek, O God, within our spirits speak! For we will hear thy voice to-day, Nor turn our hardened hearts away.
- 2 Speak in thy gentlest tones of love, Till all our best affections move; We long to hear no meaner call, But feel that thou art all in all.
- 3 To conscience speak thy quickening word, Till all its sense of sin is stirred: For we would leave no stain of guile, To cloud the radiance of thy smile.
- 4 Speak, Father, to the anxious heart, Till every fear and doubt depart: For we can find no home or rest, Till with thy Spirit's whispers blest.

BISHOP KHEE

Morning Worship.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun Thy daily stage of duty run; Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise To pay thy morning sacrifice.
- 2 Lord, I my vows to thee renew: Scatter my sins as morning dew; Guard my first springs of thought and And with thyself my spirit fill. [will.

MRS. FOLLER

Love of Sabbath Service.

- 1 How sweet upon this sacred day, The best of all the seven, To cast our earthly thoughts away, And think of God and heaven!
- 2 How sweet to be allowed to pray Our sins may be forgiven! With filial love and trust to say, "Father, who art in heaven!"
- 3 How sweet the words of peace to hear, From him to whom 't is given To wake the penitential tear, And lead the way to heaven!
- 4 And if, to make our sins depart, In vain the will has striven, He who regards the inmost heart Will send his grace from heaven.

The Day of Prayer and Rest.

- 1 Earth's busy sounds and ceaseless din | 1 Unite, my rising thoughts, unite Wake not this morning air!
 - A holy calm should welcome in This solemn hour of prayer.
- 2 Now peace, be still, unhallowed care, And hushed within the breast!
 - A holy joy shall welcome there This happy day of rest.
- 3 Each better thought the spirit knows, This hour, the spirit fill! And thou, from whom its being flows, O, teach it all thy will!

Then shall the day indeed be blest, And send its hallowing power, Its sacred calm and inward rest, Through many a busy hour.

ANOR

A Sabbath Morning.

- 1 How sweet, how calm this Sabbath morn! How pure the air that breathes, And soft the sounds upon it borne, And light its vapor wreaths!
- 2 It seems as if the Christian's prayer, For peace and joy and love, Were answered by the very air That wafts its strain above.
- 3 Let each unholy passion cease, Each evil thought be crushed, Each anxious care that mars thy peace In faith and love be hushed.

anon. |22

Friends of God.

- In silence soft and sweet; And thou, my soul, sit gently down At thy great Sov'reign's feet.
- 2 Jehovah's gentle voice is heard, And gladly I attend; For lo! the everlasting God Proclaims himself my friend.
- 3 By all its joys, I charge my heart, To grieve his love no more; But, charmed by melody divine, To give its follies o'er.

SABBATH. 7s.

I. MALON.

(In singing hymns 23, 24, and 25, repeat last two lines of each verse.)

Sabbath Morning.

NEWTON

- 1 SAFELY through another week
 God has brought us on our way;
 Let us now a blessing seek,
 Waiting in his courts to-day:
 Day of all the week the best,
 Emblem of eternal rest.
- While we seek supplies of grace Thro' the dear Redeemer's name, Show thy reconciling face— Take away our sin and shame; From our worldly cares set free, May we rest this day in thee.

MERRICK.

"Who shall abide in thy Tabernacle!"

- 1 Who shall towards thy chosen seat Turn, O Lord, his favored feet? Who shall at thine altar bend? Who shall Zion's hill ascend? Who, great God, a welcome guest, On thy holy mountain rest?
- He whose heart thy love has warmed; He whose will to thine conformed, Bids his life unsullied run; He whose word and thought are one; Who, from sin's contagion free, Lifts his willing soul to thee.

3 He who thus, with heart unstained, Treads the path by thee ordained, He shall towards thy chosen seat Turn, O Lord, his favored feet; He thy ceaseless care shall prove, He shall share thy constant love.

LYRA APOSTOLICA.

Vespers.

- 1 Now the stars are lit in heaven;
 We must light our lamps on earth;
 Every star a signal given
 From the God of our new birth:
 Every lamp an answer faint,
 Like the prayer of mortal saint.
- 2 Mark the hour and turn this way,
 Sons of Israel, far and near!
 Wearied with the world's dim day,
 Turn to Him whose eyes are here,
 Open, watching day and night,
 Beaming purest, holiest light.
- 3 There is One will bless your toil,—
 He who comes in heaven's attire,
 Morn by morn, with holy oil;
 Eve by eve, with holy fire!
 Pray! your prayer will be allowed,
 Mingling with his incense cloud.

WATTS.

26

The Sabbath welcomed.

- 1 Welcome, sweet day of rest, That saw the Lord arise; Welcome to this reviving breast And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King himself comes near, And feasts his saints to-day; Here we may sit, and see him here, And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day, amid the place
 Where my dear Lord hath been,
 Is sweeter than ten thousand days
 Of folly and of sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
 In such a frame as this,
 Till called to rise and soar away
 To everlasting bliss.

BULFINCH.

Sabbath Worship.

- 1 Hall to the Sabbath day!
 The day divinely given,
 When men to God their homage pay,
 And earth draws near to heaven.
- Lord, in this sacred hour,
 Within thy courts we bend,
 And bless thy love, and own thy power,
 Our Father and our Friend.

- 3 But thou art not alone
 In courts by mortals trod;
 Nor only is the day thine own
 When man draws near to God.
- 4 Thy temple is the arch
 Of you unmeasured sky;
 Thy Sabbath the stupendous march
 Of grand eternity.
- 5 Lord, may that holier day
 Dawn on thy servant's sight;
 And purer worship may we pay
 In heaven's unclouded light.

28

Exalt the Lord.

WATTE

- 1 Exalt the Lord, our God, And worship at his feet His nature is all holiness And mercy is his seat.
- 2 When Israel was his church, When Aaron was his priest, When Moses cried, when Samuel prayed, He gave his people rest.
 - 3 Oft he forgave their sins,
 Nor would destroy their race;
 And oft he made his vengeance known,
 When they abused I is grace.
 - 4 Exalt the Lord, our God,
 Whose grace is still the same;—
 Still he's a God of holiness,
 And jealous for his name.

HATWARD. Insocation for Lord's Day Morning.

1 Welcome, delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest!
We hail thy glad return:
Lord, make these moments blest.
From low delights and mortal toys
We soar to reach immortal joys.

Now may the King descend,
 And fill his throne of grace;
Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While we address thy face.
O, let us feel thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless these sacred hours;
Then shall our souls new life obtain,
Nor Sabbaths be enjoyed in vain.

The Seasons.

1 Lond of the worlds below,
On earth thy glories shine;
The changing seasons show
Thy skill and power divine.
In all we see, a God appears:
The rolling years are full of thee.

Forth in the flowery spring, We see thy beauty move; The birds on branches sing
Thy tenderness and love;
Wide flush the hills; the air is balm:
Devotion's calm our bosom fills.

3 Then come, in robes of light,
The summer's flaming days,
The sun, thine image bright,
Thy majesty displays;
And oft thy voice in thunder rolls:
But still our souls in thee rejoice.

4 In autumn, a rich feast
Thy common bounty gives
To man and bird and beast,
And every thing that lives.
Thy liberal care, at morn and noon
And harvest moon, our lips declare.

5 In winter, awful thou,
With storms around thee cast:
The leafless forests bow
Beneath thy northern blast.
While tempests lower, to thee, dread King,
We homage bring, and own thy power.

The Lord's Day.

1 AWAKE, ye saints, awake!
And hail this sacred day;
In loftiest songs of praise
Your joyful homage pay:
Come, bless the day that God hath blest,
The type of heaven's eternal rest.

NEW YORK COLL 34

Sabbath Day.

1 WE bless thee for this sacred day, Thou who hast every blessing given, Which sends the dreams of earth away, And yields a glimpse of opening heaven.

2 Lord, in this day of holy rest, We would improve the calm repose; And, in thy service truly blest, Forget the world, its joys and woes.

- 3 Lord! may thy truth, upon the heart Now fall and dwell as heavenly dew, And flowers of grace in freshness start Where once the weeds of error grew.
- 4 May Prayer now lift her sacred wings, Contented with that aim alone Which bears her to the King of kings, And rests her at his sheltering throne.

MRS. BARBAULD.

Sabbath Offering.

- 1 WHEN, as returns this solemn day. Man comes to meet his maker, God, What rites, what honors shall be pay? How spread his Sov'reign's praise abroad?
- ♣ From marble domes and gilded spires Shall curling clouds of incense rise? And gems, and gold, and garlands deck | 36 The costly pomp of sacrifice?
- 3 Vain, sinful man! creation's Lord Thy golden offerings well may spare: But give thy heart, and thou shalt find Here dwells a God who heareth prayer.

S. S. HYMN BOOK, Sabbath Hymn

- 1 Called by the Sabbath bells away, Unto thy holy temple, Lord, I'll go, with willing mind to pray, To praise thy name and hear thy word.
- 2 O sacred day of peace and joy, Thy hours are ever dear to me: Ne'er may a sinful thought destroy The holy calm I find in thee.
- 3 Dear are thy peaceful hours to me, For God has given them in his love, To tell how calm, how blest shall be The endless day of heaven above.

H. WARE, JR.

Supplication.

- 1 Great God! the followers of thy Son We bow before thy mercy-seat, To worship thee, the Holy One, And pour our wishes at thy feet.
- We seek the truth which Jesus brought; His path of light we long to trend: Here be his holy doctrines taught, And here their purest influence shed.

The Hour of Prayer.

1 It is the hour of prayer:
Draw near and bend the knee,
And fill the calm and holy air
With voice of melody!
O'erwearied with the heat
And burden of the day,
Now let us rest our wandering feet,
And gather here to pray.

2 The dark and deadly blight
That walks at noontide hour,
The midnight arrow's secret flight,
O'er us have had no power;
But smiles from loving eyes
Have been around our way,
And lips on which a blessing lies
Have bidden us to pray.

3 O, blessed is the hour
 That lifts our hearts on high;

 Like sunlight when the tempests lower,
 Prayer to the soul is nigh;

Though dark may be our lot,
Our eyes be dim with care, [not
These saddening thoughts shall trouble
This holy hour of prayer.

ANON.

The Messenger Welcomed.

1 How beauteous are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill!
Who bring salvation on their tengues
And words of peace reveal!
How charming is their voice!
How sweet the tidings are!
"Zion, behold thy Saviour, King;
He reigns and triumphs here."

2 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

39 GEO. HERBERT. The Blessing of the Sabbath.

- 1 Blest day of God! most calm, most The first and best of days; [bright, The laborer's rest, the saint's delight, The day of prayer and praise.
- His rising thee did raise; And made thee heavenly and divine Beyond all other days.
- 3 The first fruits oft a blessing prove To all the sheaves behind: And they who do the Sabbath love A happy week will find.
- 4 This day I must to God appear, For, Lord, the day is thine; Help me to spend it in thy fear, And thus to make it mine.

40 MRS, BARBAULD. The Lord's Day Morning.

- 1 Again the Lord of life and light Λ wakes the kindling ray, Unseals the eyelids of the morn, And pours increasing day.
- ? Oh, what a night was that which wrapt 2 While in the house of prayer we meet, A guilty world in gloom! Oh, what a Sun, which broke this day, Triumphant from the tomb!
- 8 This day be grateful homage paid, And foud hosannas sung; Let gladness dwell in every heart, And praise on every tongue.

4 Ten thousand differing lips shall join To hail this welcome morn, Which scatters blessings from its wings To nations yet unborn.

41 EDMESTOR The Lord's Day.

- 2 My Saviour's face made thee to shine; 1 WHEN the worn spirit wants repose, And sighs her God to seek, How sweet to hail the evening's close, That ends the weary week!
 - 2 How sweet to hail the early dawn That opens on the sight, When first that soul-reviving morn Beams its new rays of light!
 - 3 Blest day! thine hours too soon will Yet, while they gently roll, [cease, Breathe, Heavenly Spirit, Source of peace, A Sabbath o'er my soul!

42 H, ALFORD. Sincere Worship.

- 1 O THOU who hast thy servants taught, That not by words alone, But by the fruits of holiness, The life of God is shown!—
- And call thee God and Lord, Give us a heart to follow thee, Obedient to thy word.
- 3 And, in the dangerous path of life, Uphold us as we go; That with our lips and in our lives Thy glory we may show.

The Sabbath and the Earlhly Temple.

The joyful morn, my God, is come,
That calls me to my Sabbath home,
Thy presence to adore;
My feet the summons shall attend,
With willing steps thy courts ascend
And tread the hallowed floor.

With holy joy I hail the day
That warns my thirsting soul away:
What transports fill my breast!
For, lo! my great Redeemer's power
Unfolds the everlasting door,
And leads me to his rest!

Delight in God's Glory.

1 PARENT of good, thy works of might
I trace with wonder and delight:
Thy name is all divine.
There's naught in earth or sea or air,
Or heaven itself, that's good or fair,
But is entirely thine.

3 To thee my warm affections move In sweet astonishment and love, While at thy feet I fall.

I pant for naught beneath the skies:
To thee my ardent wishes rise,
O my eternal All!

3 What shall I do to spread thy praise,
My God, through my remaining days?
Or how thy name adore?
To thee I consecrate my breath:
Let me be thine in life and death,
And thine for evermore.

The glorious Works of God.

1 THY mighty working, mighty God!
Wakes all my powers; I look abroad,
And can no longer rest;
I, too, must sing when all things sing,
And from my heart the praises ring
The Highest loveth best.

2 If thou, in thy great love to us, Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus O'er this poor earth of ours; What nobler glories shall be given Hereafter in thy shining heaven, Set round with golden tow'rs;

46 MRS. STEELE. A Prayer for Lord's Day.

- 1 Great God, this sacred day of thine Demands our soul's collected powers; May we employ in work divine These solemn, these devoted hours; O may our souls adoring own The grace which calls us to thy throne.
- 2 Hence, ye vain cares and trifles, fly; Where God resides appear no more; Omniscient God, thy piercing eye Can every secret thought explore: O may thy grace our hearts refine,
- 3 The word of life dispensed to-day Invites us to a heavenly feast; May every ear the call obey; Be every heart a humble guest; Then shall our souls adoring own The grace which calls us to thy throne. 2 While these transporting visions shine.

47 MISZBL. Rejoice in the Lord.

1 Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates, Behold the King of glory waits,

The King of kings is drawing near, The Saviour of the world is here; Life and salvation he doth bring, Wherefore rejoice, and gladly sing!

Fling wide the portals of your heart, Make it a temple set apart From earthly use for heaven's employ Adorned with prayer, and love, and joy, So shall your Sovereign enter in, And new and nobler life begin.

48 MONTGOMERY. Nature and Revelation.

And fix our thoughts on things divine. 1 THY glory, Lord, the heavens declare; The firmament displays thy skill; The changing clouds, the viewless air, Tempest and calm thy word fulfill; Day unto day doth utter speech, And night to night thy knowledge teach.

> Along the path of Providence, Glory eternal, joy divine, Thy word reveals, transcending sense: My soul thy goodness longs to see, Thy love to man, thy love to me.

The Lord is in his Holy Temple.

- 1 God is in his holy temple:

 Thoughts of earth, be silent now,
 While with reverence we assemble,
 And before his presence bow!
 He is with us now and ever,
 When we call upon his name,
 Aiding every good endeavor,
 Guiding every upward aim.
- 2 God is in his holy temple;—
 In the pure and holy mind;
 In the reverent heart and simple;
 In the soul from sense refined:
 Then let every low emotion,
 Banished far and silent be!
 And our souls, in pure devotion,
 Lord, be temples worthy thee!

God of our Salvation.

- Praise to thee, thou great Creator;
 Praise be thine from every tongue;
 Join, my soul, with every creature,
 Join the universal song.
 Father, source of all compassion,
 Free, unbounded grace is thine:
 Hail the God of our salvation;
 Praise him for his love divine.
- 2 For ten thousand blessings given, For the hope of future joy, [heaven Sound his praise through earth and Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

Joyfully on earth adore him,

Till in heaven our song we raise;

There, enraptured, fall before him,

Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

8. Longfellow.

Vespers.

- Now, on sea and land descending,
 Brings the night its peace profound;
 Let our vesper hymn be blending
 With the holy calm around.
 Soon as dies the sunset glory,
 Stars of heaven shine out above,
 Telling still the ancient story,—
 Their Creator's changeless love.
- 2 Now our wants and burdens leaving
 To his care, who cares for all,
 Cease we fearing, cease we grieving;
 At his touch our burdens fall.
 As the darkness deepens o'er us,
 Lo, eternal stars arise;
 Hope and Faith and Love rise glorious,
 Shining in the spirit's skies.

Sabbath Morning.

1 Welcome, welcome, quiet morning,
Welcome is this holy day;
Now the Sabbath morn, returning,
Shows a week has passed away.
Let us think how time is gliding;
Soon the longest life departs;
Nothing human is abiding,
Save the love of humble hearts.

Call to the House of Prayer.

- 1 Come to the house of prayer,
 O ye afflicted, come:
 The God of peace shall meet you there,
 IIe makes that house his home.
- 2 Come to the house of praise, Ye who are happy now; In sweet accord your voices raise, In kindred homage bow.
- 3 Ye aged, hither come,
 For ye have felt his love: [dumb,
 Soon shall your trembling tongues be
 Your lips forget to move.
- 4 Ye young, before his throne, Come, bow; your voices raise; Let not your hearts his praise disown Who gives the power to praise.
- 5 Thou, whose benignant eye
 In mercy looks on all—
 Who see'st the tear of misery,
 And hear'st the mourner's call—
- 6 Up to thy dwelling-place Bear our frail spirits on, Till they outstrip time's tardy pace, And heaven on earth be won.

54 SPIRIT OF THE PRALMS. The Delights of Sabbath Worship.

1 Sweet is the task, O Lord, Thy glorious acts to sing,

- To praise thy name and hear thy word, And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet, at the dawning hour,
 Thy boundless love to tell; [flower,
 And when the night-wind shuts the Still on the theme to dwell.
- 3 Sweet on this day of rest
 To join in heart and voice [best,
 With those who love and serve thee
 And in thy name rejoice.
- 4 To songs of praise and joy,
 Be every Sabbath given,
 That such may be our blest employ
 Eternally in heaven.

Evening Hymn.

- 1 THE day is past and gone;
 The evening shades appear;
 O, may we all remember well,
 The night of death draws near!
- We lay our garments by, Upon our beds to rest; So death shall soon disrobe us all Of what is here possessed.
- 3 Lord, keep us safe this night, Secure from all our fears; May angels guard us, while we sleep, Till morning light appears.

Love of the Sanctuary.

1 How pleasant, how divinely fair, O Lord of Hosts, thy dwellings are! With long desire my spirit faints To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.

- 2 Blest are the souls that find a place Within the temple of thy grace; Where they behold thy gentler rays, And seek thy face and learn thy praise.
- 3 Blest are the men whose hearts are set 3 And so, 'mid boundless time and space To find the way to Zion's gate; [road They lean upon their helper, God.
- 4 Cheerful they walk with growing strength, Till all shall meet in heaven at length; Till all before thy face appear, And join in nobler worship there.

The Great Temple.

1 Though wandering in a stranger land, Make pure thy children's erring will, Though on the waste no altar stand, Take comfort! thou art not alone, While Faith has marked thee for her own

- 2 Wouldst thou a temple? look above, -The heavens stretch over all in love; A book? for thine evangel scan The wondrous history of man.
- 3 And though no organ-peal be heard, In harmony the winds are stirred; And there the morning stars upraise Their ancient songs of deathless praise.

Praise to the God of All.

1 O Source divine, and life of all, The fount of being's wondrous sea! Thy depth would every heart appall, That saw not love supreme in thee.

2 We shrink before thy vast abyss, Where worlds on worlds eternal brood; We know thee truly but in this, -That thou bestowest all our good.

- O, grant us still in thee to dwell, God is their strength; and through the And through the ceaseless web to trace Thy presence working all things well.
 - 4 Nor let thou life's delightful play Thy truth's transcendent vision hide: Nor strength and gladness lead astray From thee, our nature's only guide.
 - Bestow on every joyous thrill Thy deeper tone of reverent awe; And teach their hearts to love thy law.

Vesper Hymn.

1 Lord of eternal purity, Who dost the world with light adorn. And paint the tracts of azure sky With lively hues of eve and morn,-

2 Scatter our night, eternal God, And kindle thy pure beam within; Free us from guilt's oppressive load, And break the deadly bonds of sin.

SALISBURY COLL. House of God.

1 Lo, God is here! Let us adore, And humbly bow before his face! Let all within us feel his power; Let all within us seek his grace.

2 Lo, God is here! Him, day and night, United choirs of angels sing; To him, enthroned above all height, Heaven's host their noblest homage bring.

3 Being of beings! may thy praise Thy courts with grateful fragrance fill: Still may we stand before thy face — Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

61 O. W. HOLMES. Sabbath Hymn to the Deity.

1 Lord of all being, 'throned afar, Thy glory flames from sun and star; Centre and soul of every sphere, Yet to each loving heart how near!

2 Sun of our life, thy wakening ray Sheds on our path the glow of day; Star of our hope, thy softened light Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn; I THY name be hallowed evermore; Our noontide is thy gracious dawn; Our rainbow arch, thy mercy's sign; All, save the clouds of sin, are thine!

4 Lord of all life, below, above, [love, 2 Whose light is truth, whose warmth is Before thy ever-blazing throne We ask no lustre of our own.

5 Grant us thy truth to make us free, And kindling hearts that burn for thee, Till all thy living altars claim One holy light, one heavenly flame.

62 Devout Worship.

1 Praise waits in Zion, Lord, for thee: Thy saints adore thy holy name; Thy creatures bend th' obedient knee, And, humbly, thy protection claim.

SIR J. E. SMITH.

2 Thy hand has raised us from the dust; The breath of life thy spirit gave; Where, but in thee, can mortals trust? Who, but our God, has power to save?

3 Still may thy children in thy word Their common trust and refuge see: O, bind us to each other, Lord,

By one great tie,—the love of thee. 4 So shall our sun of hope arise, With brighter still and brighter ray,

Till thou shalt bless our longing eyes With beams of everlasting day.

63 Daily Bread.

O God! thy kingdom come with pow'r, Thy will be done, and day by day Give us our daily bread, we pray.

Lord, evermore to us be given The living bread that came from heav'n Water of life on us bestow; Thou art the Source, the Giver thou.

Presence of Jesus.

- 1 How charming is the place
 Where the dear Son of God
 Unvails the beauties of his face,
 And sheds his love abroad!
- 2 Not the fair palaces
 To which the great resort
 Are once to be compared with this,
 Where Jesus holds his court.
- 3 Here on the mercy-seat,
 With radiant glory crowned,
 Our joyful eyes behold him sit,
 And smile on all around.
- 4 To him its prayers and cries

 Each humble soul presents;

 He listens to their broken sighs,

 And grants them all their wants.

Closing Hymn.

- 1 We love the house of prayer, Wherein thy servants meet, For thou, O Lord, art ever there, Thy chosen flock to greet.
- We love the word of life,— The word that tells of peace, Of comfort in our daily strife, Of joys that never cease.

- In pow'r and wrath he came; Before his feet the clouds were riv'n, Half darkness and half flame.
- 2 But when he came the second time, He came in pow'r and love; Softer than gale at morning prime Hover'd his holy Dove.
- 1 WHEN God, of old, came down from heav'n, 3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down, In sudden torrents dread, Now gently light, a glorious crown, On every sainted head.

Blessedness of Public Worship.

DODDETDGE.

1 Lord of the worlds above, How pleasant and how fair The dwellings of thy love, Thine earthly temples, are! To thine abode

My heart aspires, with warm desires To see my God.

2 O, happy souls, that pray Where God appoints to hear! O, happy men, who pay Their constant service there! They praise thee still; And happy they who love the way

To Zion's hill!

3 They go from strength to strength Through this dark vale of tears, Till each arrives at length— Till each in heaven appears. O, glorious seat, [bring When God, our King, shall thither Our willing feet!

4 The sparrow for her young With pleasure seeks a nest; And wandering swallows long To find their wonted rest: My spirit faints

With equal zeal, to rise and dwell Among thy saints.

Gentiles brought into the Temple.

1 Great Father of mankind, We bless that wondrous grace Which could for Gentiles find Within thy courts a place. How kind the care Our God displays, for us to raise A house of prayer!

2 Though once estrangéd far, We now approach the throne; For Jesus brings us near, And makes our cause his own. Strangers no more, To thee we come, and find our home, And rest secure.

3 To thee ourselves we join, And love thy sacred name; No more our own, but thine, We triumph in thy claim. Our Father-King, Thy covenant-grace our souls embrace, Thy titles sing.

4 May all the nations throng, To worship in thy house, And thou attend the song, And smile upon their vows! Indulgent still, Till earth conspire to join the choir

On Zion's hill.

- Spiritual Workhip. 1 O Lord! where'er thy people meet, There they behold thy mercy-seat; Where'er they seek thee, thou art found, And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For thou, within no walls confined, Inhabitest the humble mind; Such ever bring thee where they come, And, going, take thee to their home.
- 8 Here may we prove the power of prayer 2 To strengthen faith and sweeten care: To teach our faint desires to rise, And bring all heaven before our eyes.

Universal Worship.

- 1 O THOU, to whom, in ancient time, The lyre of Hebrew bards was strung, Whom kings adored in song sublime. And prophets praised with glowing tongue;
- 2 Not now on Zion's height alone Thy favored worshipper may dwell; Nor where, at sultry noon, thy Son Sat weary, by the patriarch's well.
- 3 From every place below the skies, The grateful song, the fervent pray'r-The incense of the heart - may rise To heaven, and find acceptance there.
- 4 To thee shall age, with snowy hair, And strength and beauty bend the knee, And childhood lisp, with reverent air, Its praises and its prayers to thee.
- 5 O Thou, to whom, in ancient time, The lyre of prophet-bards was strung, To thee, at last, in every clime Shall temples rise, and praise be sung.

DODDRIDGE. Subjection to our Father.

- 1 ETERNAL Source of life and thought, Be all beneath thyself forgot: Whilst thee, great Parent-mind, we own, In prostrate homage round thy throne.
- Whilst in themselves our souls survey Of thee some faint reflected ray, They, wondering, to their Father rise: His power how vast! his tho'ts how wise!

Habitual Devotion.

- 1 While thee I seek, protecting Power, Be my vain wishes stilled; And may this consecrated hour With better hopes be filled. Thy love the power of tho't bestowed; To thee my thoughts would soar; Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed; That mercy I adore.
- 2 In each event of life, how clear Thy ruling hand I see! Each blessing to my soul more dear, Because conferred by thee. In every joy that crowns my days In every pain I bear, My heart shall find delight in praise, Or seek relief in prayer.
- 3 When gladness wings my favored hour, 1 WHEN morning's first and hallowed ray Thy love my thoughts shall fill; Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower, My soul shall meet thy will. My lifted eye, without a tear, The gathering storm shall see: My steadfast heart shall know no fear; That heart shall rest on thee.

Providence.

1 WHEN all thy mercies, O my God! My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view, I'm lost, In wonder, love, and praise. Ten thousand thousand precious gifts My daily thanks employ: Nor is the least a cheerful heart, That tastes those gifts with joy.

2 Through every period of my life, Thy goodness I'll pursue; And after death, in distant worlds, The glorious theme renew. Through all eternity, to thee A joyful song I'll raise; But oh! eternity's too short To utter all thy praise!

Lowly Praise.

BOWRING.

1 Lord, in heaven, thy dwelling-place, Hear the praises of our race, And, while hearing, let thy grace Dews of sweet forgiveness pour; While we know, benignant King, That the praises which we bring Are a worthless offering Till thy blessing makes it more.

2 More of truth, and more of might,
More of love, and more of light,
More of reason and of right,
From thy pardoning grace be given!
It can make the humblest song
Sweet, acceptable, and strong,
As the strains the angel throng
Pour around the throne of heaven.

Humble Worship.

BOWRING.

1 When before thy throne we kneel,
Filled with awe and holy fear,
Teach us, O our God, to feel
All thy sacred presence near.
Check each proud and wandering tho't
When on thy great name we call;
Man is naught—is less than naught—
Thou, our God, art all in all.

2 Weak, imperfect reatures, we
In this vale of darkness dwell,
Yet presume to look to thee
'Midst thy light ineffable.

O, receive the praise that dares Seek thy heaven-exalted throne; Bless our offerings, hear our prayers, Infinite and Holy One!

89

BOWRING.

Morning or Evening-All from God.

1 FATHER! thy paternal care
Has my guardian been, my guide!
Every hallowed wish and prayer
Has thy hand of love supplied;
Thine is every thought of bliss,
Left by hours and days gone by;
Every hope thy offspring is,
Beaming from futurity.

Every sun of splendid ray; Every moon that shines serene; Every morn that welcomes day; Every evening's twilight scene; Every hour which wisdom brings; Every incense at thy shrine; These—and all life's holiest things, And its fairest—all are thine.

3 And for all, my hymns shall rise
Daily to thy gracious throne;
Thither let my asking eyes
Turn unwearied, righteous One!
Through life's strange vicissitude
There reposing all my care,
Trusting still through ill and good,
Fixed and cheered and counselled there.

Acceptable Offerings.

- 1 LORD! what offering shall we bring, At thine altars when we bow? Hearts, the pure, unsullied spring Whence the kind affections flow:
- 2 Soft compassion's feeling soul, By the melting eye expressed; Sympathy, at whose control Sorrow leaves the wounded breast;
- 8 Willing nands, to lead the blind; Heal the wounded, feed the poor, Love, embracing all our kind, Charity, with liberal store.
- 4 Teach us, O thou heavenly King, Thus to show our grateful mind, Thus the accepted offering bring, Love to thee and all mankind

1 Holy, holy, holy Lord! Be thy glorious name adored. Lord, thy mercies never fail: Hail, celestial Goodness, hail!

- 2 Though unworthy, Lord, thine ear, Deign our humble songs to hear; Purer praise we hope to bring When around thy throne we sing.
- 3 While on earth ordained to stay, Guide our footsteps in thy way; Then on high we'll joyful raise Songs of everlasting praise.
- 4 There no tongue shall silent be; All shall join in harmony, That through heaven's capacious round Praise to thee may ever sound.
- 5 Lord, thy mercies never fail; Hail, celestial Goodness, hail! Holy, holy, holy Lord, Be thy glorious name adored.

Universal Praise.

YE realms below the skies,
 Your Maker's praises sing;
 Let boundless honors rise
 To heaven's eternal King.
 O, bless his name whose love extends Salvation to the world's far ends.

2 "T is he the mountains crowns
With forests waving wide;
"T is he old ocean bounds,
And heaves her roaring tide;
He swells the tempests on the main,
Or breathes the zephyr o'er the plain.

3 Still let the waters roar
As round the earth they roll:
His praise for evermore

They sound from pole to pole. "T is nature's wild, unconscious song O'er thousand waves that floats along.

4 His praise, ye worlds on high,
Display with all your spheres,
Amid the darksome sky,
When silent night appears.
O, let his works declare his name

Through all the universal frame!

Praise from all Creatures.

1 YE tribes of Adam, join
With heaven, and earth, and seas,
And offer notes divine
To your Creator's praise:
Ye holy throng of angels bright!
In worlds of light, begin the song.

2 Thou sun with dazzling rays!
And moon that rules the night!
Shine to your Maker's praise,

With stars of twinkling light. His power declare, ye floods on high! And clouds that fly in empty air!

3 The shining worlds above
In glorious order stand,
Or in swift courses move,
By his supreme command:
He spake the word, and all their frame
From nothing came, to praise the Lord.

4 Let all the nations fear
The God that rules above;
He brings his people near,
And makes them taste his love:
While earth and sky attempt his praise,
His saints shall raise his honors high.

Praise to the Great Jehovah.

- 1 Be thou, O God, exalted high;
 And as thy glory fills the sky,
 So let it be on earth displayed,
 Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.
 O God, our hearts are fixed and bent
 Their thankful tribute to present;
 And, with the heart, the voice we'll raise
 To thee, our God, in songs of praise.
- 8 Thy praises, Lord, we will resound To all the listening nations round; Thy mercy highest heaven transcends; Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

 And as thy glory fills the sky,
 So let it be on earth displayed,
 Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.

101 Praise ye the Lord. H. BALLOU, 2D.

- 1 Praise ye the Lord, around whose throne 1
 All heaven in ceaseless worship waits,
 Whose glory fills the worlds unknown—
 Praise ye the Lord from Zion's gates.
- With mingling souls and voices join;
 To him the swelling anthem raise;
 Repeat his name with joy divine,
 And fill the temple with his praise.
- All-gracious God, to thee we owe
 Each joy and blessing time affords,—
 Might, life, and health, and all below,
 Spring from thy presence, Lord of lords.

LIVERPOOL COLL. 106 Universal Praise.

1 Praise the Lord! ye heav'ns adore him; 1 Blessed be thy name for ever, Praise him, angels in the height; Sun and moon, rejoice before him; Praise him, all ye stars of light!

- 2 Praise the Lord—for he hath spoken; 2 Worlds his mighty voice obeyed; Laws which never shall be broken, For their guidance, he hath made.
- 3 Praise the Lord for he is glorious; Never shall his promise fail; God hath made his saints victorious, Sin and death shall not prevail.
- 4 Praise the God of our salvation, Hosts on high his power proclaim; Heaven and earth, and all creation, Laud and magnify his name.

GREGORY NAZIANZEM. 107 Ancient Hymn.

- 1 Christ, myLord, I come to bless thee, |1 Praise the Lord, his glories show, Now, when day is veiled in night; Thou who knowest no beginning, Light of the Eternal Light!
- 3 Thou erlightenest man's high reason, Far above the creatures dumb, That, light in thy light beholding, Wholly light he may become.
- In the night, our wearied nature Rests from all its toil and tears; To the works, Lord, that thou lovest, Thou wilt call when day appears.

Praise to the God of Nature.

LYTE

- Thou of life the Guard and Giver: Thou who slumberest not nor sleepest. Blest are they thou kindly keepest.
- God of stillness and of motion, Of the rainbow and the ocean, Of the mountain, rock, and river, Blessed be thy name for ever.
- 3 God of evening's peaceful ray, God of every dawning day, Rising from the distant sea, Breathing of eternity.
- 4 Thine the flaming sphere of light, Thine the darkness of the night: God of life that fade shall never. Glory to thy name for ever.

Praise for all Blessings.

Saints within his courts below. Angels round his throne above, All that see and share his love!

- Earth to heaven, and heaven to earth. Tell his wonders, sing his worth; Age to age, and shore to shore, Praise him, praise him, evermore!
- 3 Praise the Lord, his mercies trace; Praise his providence and grace— All that he for man hath done, All he sends us through his Son.

TATE & BRADY.

All Nations enhorted to Adoration and Praise.

- 1 WITH one consent, let all the earth To God their cheerful voices raise; Glad homage pay, with hallowed mirth, 110 And sing before him songs of praise;
- 2 Assured that he is God alone, [ceed, -From whom both we and all pro-We, whom he chooses for his own, The flock which he delights to feed.
- 3 O, enter, then, his temple gate; Thence to his courts devoutly press; And still your grateful hymns repeat, And still his name with praises bless;
- 4 For he's the Lord, supremely good; His mercy is forever sure; His truth, which always firmly stood, To endless ages shall endure.

ST. AMBROSE.

1 Both heaven and earth do worship Thou Father of eternity; thee With splendor from thy glory spread Are heaven and earth replenished.

Worship.

- 2 To thee all angels loudly cry, The heavens and all the powers on high, The apostles' glorious company, The prophets' fellowship praise thee.
- 3 The noble and victorious host Of martyrs make of thee their boast; The holy church, in every place Throughout the earth exalts thy praise.

From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor thee: Thy name we worship and adore, World without end, for evermore.

WATTE

The Brightness of God's Glory.

- 1 Now to the Lord a noble song! Awake, my soul! awake, my tongue! Hosanna to th' eternal name, And all his boundless love proclaim.
- 2 The spacious earth and spreading flood Proclaim the wise, the powerful God, And thy rich glories from afar Sparkle in every rolling star;
- 3 But in the gospel of thy Son Are all thy mightiest works outdone; The light it pours upon our eyes Outshines the wonders of the skies.
- 4 Our spirits kindle in its beam; It is a sweet, a glorious theme: Ye angels, dwell upon the sound: Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground.

All thy Saints bless Thee.

1 Lord God of Hosts, by all adored! Thy name we praise with one accord; The earth and heavens are full of thee, Thy light, thy love, thy majesty.

The holy church in every place Thro'out the world exalts thy praise; Both heaven and earth do worship thee, Thou Father of eternity!

For Sincerity in Worship.

 LORD! when we bend before thy throne, And our confessions pour,
 O may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we deplore.

- Our contrite spirits pitying see;
 True penitence impart;
 And let a healing ray from thee
 Beam hope on every heart.
- When we disclose our wants in prayer,
 O let our wills resign;
 And not a thought our bosom share,
 Which is not wholly thine.
- 4 Then, on thy glories while we dwell,
 Thy mercies we'll review;
 With love divine transported, tell,—
 "Thou, God, art Father too!"

116

Homage and Devotion.

- 1 With sacred joy we lift our eyes To those bright realms above,— That glorious temple in the skies Where dwells eternal love.
- 2 Thee we adore, and, Lord, to thee Our filial duty pay; Thy service, unconstrained and free, Conducts to endless day.
- 3 While in thy house of prayer we kneel With trust and holy fear,
 Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
 And lend a gracious ear.

4 With fervor teach our hearts to pray, And tune our lips to sing; Nor from thy presence cast away The sacrifice we bring.

117

G. BURDER.

- 1 Come, ye that know and fear the Lord!
 And raise your souls above;
 Let every heart and voice accord
 To sing that God is love.
- 2 Behold his loving-kindness waits
 For those who from him rove,
 And calls of mercy reach their hearts,
 To teach them God is love.
- 3 Oh! may we all, while here below, This best of blessings prove; Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds Shall shout that — God is love.

JERVIS. 118

- Pure Worship.

 1 The off'rings to thy throne which rise,
 Of mingled praise and prayer,
 Are but a worthless sacrifice,
 Unless the heart is there.
- 2 Upon thine all-discerning ear Let no vain words intrude; No tribute but the vow sincere,— The tribute of the good.
- 3 My offerings will indeed be blest,
 If sanctified by thee;
 If thy pure Spirit touch my breast
 With its own purity.

BOWRING.

Perpetual Praise.

- 1 When, wakened by thy voice of power, The hour of morning beams in light, My voice shall sing that morning hour, And thee, who mad'st that hour so bright.
- 2 The morning strengthens into noon; Earth's fairest beauties shine more And noon and morning shall attune [fair, My grateful heart to praise and prayer.
- 3 When 'neath the evening's western gate The sun's retiring rays are hid, My joy shall be to meditate, E'en as the pious patriarch did.
- 4 As twilight wears a darker hue, And gathering night creation dims, The twilight and the midnight, too, Shall have their harmonies and hymns
- 5 So shall sweet thoughts, and thoughts My constant inspirations be; [sublime, And every shifting scene of time Reflect, my God, a light from thee.

WATTS.

The Promises sure.

- 1 Praise, everlasting praise, be paid To him who earth's foundations laid; Praise to the God whose strong decrees Sway all the world as he doth please.
- 2 Praise to the goodness of the Lord, Who rules his people by his word; And there, as strong as his decrees, Reveals his kindest promises.

- O for a strong, a lasting faith, To credit what th' Almighty saith! To hear the message of his Son, And call the joys of heaven our own!
- 4 Then, should the earth's firm pillars shake. And all the wheels of nature break, Our steady souls would fear no more Than solid rocks when billows roar.

"Abide with us, for it is towards Evening, and the Day is far spent."

- 1 'T is gone, that bright and orbéd blaze, Fast fading from our wistful gaze; You mantling cloud has hid from sight The last faint pulse of quivering light.
- 2 Sun of my soul! thou Saviour dear, It is not night if thou be near: O may no earth-born cloud arise To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.
- Abide with me from morn till eve. For without thee I cannot live; Abide with me when night is nigh. For without thee I dare not die.

- Light for those who sit in Darkness.
- 1 Though now the nations sit beneath The darkness of o'erspreading death; God will arise with light divine, On Zion's holy towers to shine.
- 2 O light of Zion, now arise! Let the glad morning bless our eyes; Ye nations, catch the kindling ray, And hail the splendors of the day.

General Praise.

- 1 HAIL! Source of light, of life, and love, 1 God of the sunlight hours, how sad And joys that never end; In whom all creatures live and move; Creator, Father, Friend.
- 2 All space is with thy presence crowned; 2 How mournfully that golden gleam Creation owns thy care; Each spot in nature's ample round, Proclaims that God is there.
- 8 Attuned to praise be every voice; Let not one heart be sad; Jehovah reigns! Let earth rejoice; Let all the isles be glad.
- 4 Then sound the anthem loud and long, In sweetest, loftiest strains; And be the burden of the song, The Lord, Jehovah, reigns!

ANON,

Evening Prayer.

- 1 Thou Lord of life! whose tender care 2 In trouble's dark and stormy hour Hath led us on till now, We, in this quiet hour of prayer, Before thy presence bow.
- 2 Thou, blessed God! hast been our Guide, Through life our Guard and Friend; Oh, still on life's uncertain tide, Preserve us to the end.
- 3 To thee our grateful praise we bring For mercies day by day: Lord, teach our hearts thy love to sing, Lord, teach us how to pray!

M. RAYNER. |125

LITCHFIELD'S COLL Evening Hymn.

- Would evening shadows be! Or night, in deeper shadows clad, If aught were dark to thee!
- Would touch the thoughtful heart, If, with its soft, retiring beam, We saw thy light depart!
- 3 Enough, while these dull heavens may lower, If here thy presence be; Then midnight shall be morning hour And darkness light to me.
- 126 SPIRIT OF THE PSALMS God the only Object of Worship.
- 1 O God, our strength! to thee the song, With grateful hearts we raise; To thee, and thee alone, belong All worship, love, and praise.
- Thine ear hath heard our prayer: And graciously thine arm of power Hath saved us from despair.
- 3 Led by the light thy grace imparts, Ne'er may we bow the knee To idols which our wayward hearts Set up instead of thee!
- 4 So shall thy choicest gifts, O Lord! Thy faithful people bless; For them shall earth its store afford, And heaven its happiness.

127 C. Wesley.

Worship in Spirit and in Truth.

- 1 FATHER of omnipresent grace!
 We seem agreed to seek thy face:
 But every soul assembled here
 Doth naked in thy sight appear;
 Thou know'st who only bows the knee,
 And who in heart approaches thee.
- 2 To-day, while it is called to-day, Awake and stir us up to pray; The spirit of thy word impart, And breathe the life into our heart; Our weakness help, our darkness chase, And guide us by the light of grace.

128
At Evening Time let there be Light. Anom

- 1 Ar evening time, let there be light;
 Life's little day draws near its close;
 Around me fall the shades of night,
 The night of death, the grave's repose:
 To crown my joys, to end my woes,
 At evening time let there be light.
- 2 At evening time, there shall be light,
 For God hath spoken,—it must be;
 Fear, doubt, and anguish take their flight,
 His glory now is risen on me;
 Mine eyes shall his salvation see;
 'T is evening time—and there is light.

The Morning and Evening Light.

1 When, streaming from the eastern skies, The morning light salutes mine eyes,

- O Sun of righteousness divine, On me with beams of mercy shine! Oh! chase the clouds of guilt away, And turn my darkness into day.
- When each day's scenes and labors close, And wearred nature seeks repose, With pardoning mercy richly blest,

With pardoning mercy richly blest, Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest; And, as each morning sun shall rise, Oh, lead me onward to the skies!

3 And at my life's last setting sun,
My conflicts o'er, my labors done,
Jesus, thy heavenly radiance shed,
To cheer and bless my dying bed;
And, from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see thy face, and sing thy praise.

13() C. WRELEY.
Spiritual Needs.

- 1 I WANT the spirit of power within,
 Of love and of a healthful mind,
 Of power to conquer every sin,
 Of love to God and all mankind;
 Of health that pain and death defies,
 Most vigorous when the body dies.
- 2 Oh that the Comforter would come, Nor visit as a transient guest, But fix in me his constant home, And keep possession of my breast, And make my soul his loved abode, The temple of indwelling God!

S. F. SMITH.

Sabbath Evening.

1 SOFTLY fades the twilight ray Of the holy Sabbath day; Gently as life's setting sun, When the Christian's course is run.

- 2 Night her solemn mantle spreads O'er the earth, as daylight fades; All things tell of calm repose At the holy Sabbath's close.
- 3 Peace is on the world abroad; "T is the holy peace of God, — Symbol of the peace within, When the spirit rests from sin.
- 4 Still the Spirit lingers near, Where the evening worshipper Seeks communion with the skies, Pressing onward to the prize.

132

God our Shepherd.

- 1 Lo, my Shepherd's hand divine! Want shall never more be mine: In a pasture fair and large He shall feed his happy charge.
- 2 When I faint with summer's heat He shall lead my weary feet To the streams that, still and slow, Through the verdant meadows flow.
- He my soul anew shall frame; And, his mercy to proclaim, When through devious paths I stray, Teach my steps the better way.

4 Constant to my latest end, Thou my footsteps shalt attend; And shalt bid thy hallowed dome Yield me an eternal home.

Evening Hymn.

- 1 Softly now the light of day Fades upon my sight away; Free from care, from labor free, Lord: I will commune with thee.
- 2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
 Naught escapes, without, within,
 Pardon each infirmity,
 Open fault and secret sin.
- 3 Soon, for me, the light of day Shall forever pass away; Then from sin and sorrow free, Take me, Lord, to dwell with thee.

ANON.

1 Thou from whom we never part, Thou whose love is everywhere, Thou who seest every heart.

Evening Prayer.

- Thou who seest every heart, Listen to our evening prayer.
- 2 Father, fill our hearts with love, Love unfailing, full, and free; Love that no alarm can move; Love that ever rests on thee.
- 3 Heavenly Father! through the night Keep us safe from every ill; Cheerful as the morning light, May we wake, to do thy will.

Sabbath Evening.

- 1 THERE is a time when moments flow More happily than all beside; It is, of all the times below, A Sabbath at the eventide.
- 2 O then the setting sun shines fair, And all below, and all above, The various forms of Nature, wear One universal garb of love.
- 3 And then the peace that Jesus brought, The life of grace eternal beams, And we, by his example taught, Improve the life his love redeems.
- 4 Delightful scene! a world at rest; A God all love; no grief, no fear; A heavenly hope, a peaceful breast, A smile, unsullied by a tear.

COLLYER. Evening Recollections.

1 Another fleeting day is gone; Slow o'er the west the shadows rise; Swift the soft-stealing hours have flown, And night's dark mantle veils the skies.

- 2 Another fleeting day is gone Swift from the records of the year; And still, with each successive sun, Life's fading visions disappear.
- 8 Another fleeting day is gone; But soon a fairer day shall rise, A day whose never-setting sun Shall pour its light o'er cloudless skies.

ANON.

Evening Hymn.

WATTE.

- 1 Thus far the Lord has led me on, Thus far his power prolongs my days! And every evening shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- 2 Much of my time has run to waste, And I, perhaps, am near my home; But he forgives my follies past, He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep; Peace is the pillow for my head; While well-appointed angels keep Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 Faith in his name forbids my fear. O, may thy presence ne'er depart! And in the morning make me hear Thy love and kindness in my heart.
- 5 And when the night of death shall come, Still may I trust Almighty Love, -The love which triumphs o'er the tomb. And leads to perfect bliss above.

Love and Glory of God.

- 1 THY works, O Lord, interpret thee, And through them all thy love is Flowing about us like a sea, [shown; Yet steadfast as th' eternal throne.
- 2 Out of the light that runneth through Thy hand the lily's dress is spun; Thine is the brightness of the dew. And thine the glory of the sun.

Morning and Evening.

1 Great Framer of the earth and sky,
Who dost the light and darkness give,
And all the cheerful change supply
Of alternating morn and evel

2 Awake us from false sleep profound, And thro' our senses pour thy light; Be thy blest name the first we sound At early dawn, the last at night.

- Sabbath Evening.

 1 Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve,
 And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
 For these blest hours, the world I leave,
 Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.
- Season of rest! the tranquil soul Feels the sweet calm, and melts to love — And while these sacred moments roll, Faith sees the smiling heavens above.
- 3 Nor will our days of toil be long, Our pilgrimage will soon be trod:

And we shall join the ceaseless song, — The endless Sabbath of our God.

ANOM

The Still Hour.

1 GENTLY the shades of night descend;
Thy temple, Lord, is calm and still;
A thousand lamps of ether blend,

A thousand fires that temple fill.

2 Thou bidd'st the cares of earth depart, Heaven's peace is wafted from above; A Sabbath stillness fills the heart, Devotion's calm and holy love.

Evening Prayer.

1 O BLEST Creator of the light,
Who dost the dawn from darkness bring,
And, framing nature's depth and height,
Didst with the new-born light begin;

2 Who gently blending eve with morn, And morn with eve, did'st call them day,— Thick flows the flood of darkness down: Oh, hear us as we weep and pray;

3 Teach us to knock at heaven's high door, Teach us the prize of life to win; Teach us all evil to abhor, And purify ourselves within.

BOWRING.

Evening Worship.

- 1 How shall we praise thee, Lord of light!

 How shall we all thy love declare!

 The earth is veiled in shades of night,

 But heaven is open to our prayer,—

 That heav'n so bright with stars and suns—
 That glorious heav'n which has no bound,

 Where the full tide of being runs,

 And life and beauty glow around.
- 2 We would adore thee, God sublime! Whose power and wisdom, love and grace Are greater than the round of time, And wider than the bounds of space. O, how shall thought expression find, All lost in thine immensity! How shall we seek thee, glorious Mind, Amid thy dread infinity!
- 8 But thou art present with us here, As in thy glittering, high domain; And grateful hearts and humble fear Can never seek thy face in vain.

Help us to praise thee, Lord of light!
Itelp us thy boundless love declare;
And, here within thy courts to-night,
Aid us, and hearken to our prayer.

W. H. BURLEIGH

Evening Hymn.

And stillness of this evening hour,
We would lift up our solemn psalm,
To praise thy goodness and thy power:
For over us, and over all,

Thy tender mercies still extend, Nor vainly shall thy children call On thee, our Father and our Friend!

2 Kept by thy goodness through the day, Thanksgiving to thy name we pour! Night o'er us, with its stars, — we pray Thy love, to guard us evermore! In grief, console; in gladness, bless; In darkness, guide; in sickness, cheer; Till, perfected in righteousness, Before thy throne our souls appear!

MONTGOMERY.

Jubilate.

- 1 Soft as fades the sunset splendor, And the light of day grows dim, We to thee our praises render; Sing we thus our vesper hymn: Jubilate! Amen! Father, gracious, loving, tender, O, accept the grateful strain.
- > Day by day comes rich in blessing; Night by night brings holy calm; Lord, to thee our praise addressing, Rises thus our joyful psalm: Jubilate! Amen! But, unworthiness confessing, Into silence fades again.

Vesper Hymn.

- 1 HARK! the vesper hymn is stealing O'er the waters soft and clear; Nearer yet, and nearer pealing, Now it bursts upon the ear! Jubilate! Amen! Farther now, now farther stealing, Soft it fades upon the ear.
- 2 Now like moonlight waves retreating To the shore, it dies along; Now like angry surges meeting, Breathes the mingled tide of song. Jubilate! Amen! Hush! again like waves retreating

To the shore, it dies along.

- Evening Hymn.

 1 LORD of glory! King of power!
 In this lone and silent hour,
 While the shades of darkness rise
 And the eve is on the skies,
 By thy blessing, as the dews,
 Which you shaded skies diffuse,
 Bid our feverish passions cease;
 Calm us with thy promised peace.
- Wheresoe'er the brow of pain Seeks oblivion's balm in vain, Or the form of watchful grief Knows not of the night's relief,

There thy pity, softening pour, There the spirit's calm restore; Till each tongue, from murmuring free. Wakes the hymn of praise to thee.

AYON.

The Pilgrim's Welcome.

1 PILGRIM, burdened with thy sin,
Come the way to Zion's gate;
There, till mercy speaks within,
Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait:
Knock—he knows the sinner's cry;
Weep—he loves the mourner's tears;
Watch, for saving grace is nigh;
Wait, till heavenly grace appears.

2 Hark! it is the Saviour's voice,

"Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest!"

Now within the gate rejoice,
Safe, and owned, and bought, and blest:
Safe, from all the lures of vice;
Owned, by joys the contrite know;
Bought by love, and life the price;
Blest, the mighty debt to owe.

Call to Life.

AWOR,

1 SINNER! rouse thee from thy sleep; Wake, and o'er thy folly weep; Raise thy spirit, dark and dead; Jesus waits his light to shed. Be not blind and foolish still; Called of Jesus, learn his will; Jesus calls from death and night, Jesus waits to shed his light.

Eventide.

- 1 O SHADOW in a sultry land!
 We gather to thy breast,
 Whose love, enfolding us like night,
 Brings quietude and rest;
 Glimpse of a fairer life to be,
 In foretaste here possessed.
- From all our wanderings we come, From drifting to and fro, From tossing on life's restless deep, Amid its ebb and flow; The grander sweep of tides serene Our spirits yearn to know.
- 3 That which the garish day has lost,
 The twilight vigil brings;—
 The breezes from celestial hills,
 The draughts from deeper springs,
 The sense of an immortal trust,
 The touch of angel wings.

Lowly Service.
1 I ASK thee for the daily strength
To none that ask denied;
A mind to blend with outward life

While keeping at thy side:
Content to fill a little space,

2 Briers beset my every path,
Which call for patient care;
There is a cross in every lot,
An earnest need for prayer:
But lowly hearts that lean on thee

Are happy anywhere.

If thou be glorified.

There are no bonds for me;

My inmost heart is taught the truth

ANOE.

Not Foreaken.

- 1 And wilt thou now forsake me, Lord?
 I feel it cannot be;
 No earthly tongue can ever tell
 What thou hast been to me:
 Through all the changing scenes of life
 Thy love hath sheltered me.
- 2 And wilt thou now forget thy child?
 Thy grace forbids a fear:
 Thy love hath been my heritage
 Through many a weary year;
 I've trusted in thy promises,
 And thou hast dried each tear.
- 3 In life or death, I take my stand
 Where I have ever stood,
 Beneath the shelter of thy cross,
 Still trusting in thy blood,—

Hymn of Night.

HARRIS. |162"Be still and know that I am God."

- 1 THE stars are sparks of burning sand; 1 HE who himself and God would know, They fall, with measured sound sublime, From the great hour-glass in God's hand, And mete the flying years of time.
- 2 We watch them from our earthly ball; 2 We hear their faint, mysterious hymn; From east to west we see them fall Beyond the blue horizon's rim.
- 3 O burning hour-glass of the skies; O sparks from glory's central sun; Our spirits, while ye fall, arise, In Love's eternal path to run.
- 4 From God ye roll in measured flight; Your glory fails beneath his feet. To God we tend, from light to light, And all who love in him shall meet.

BREVLARY. Night Watches.

- 1 THROUGHOUT the hours of darkness dim, Still let us watch and raise the hymn; And in deep midnight's awful calm, Pour forth the soul in deepest psalm.
- 2 Amid the silence, else so drear, Think the Almighty leans to hear; Well pleased to list at such a time, The wakeful heart in praise sublime.
- 8 Still watch and pray and raise the hymn, 4 Nor here alone: hope pierces far Throughout the hours of darkness dim! God will not spurn the humblest guest, But give us of his holy rest.

- Into the silence let him go, And, lifting off pall after pall, Reach to the inmost depth of all.
- Let him look forth into the night; What solemn depths, what silent might! Those ancient stars, how calm they roll, He but an atom 'mid the whole!
- 3 How small, in that uplifted hour, Temptation's lure and passion's power! How weak the foe that made him fall! How strong the soul to conquer all!

163FROM THE GERMAN. Blessedness of Love to God.

- AH, happy hours! whene'er upsprings My soul to you eternal Source, Whence the glad river downward sings, Watering with goodness all my course.
- 2 Can I, with loveless heart, receive Tokens of love that never cease? Can I be thankless, Lord, and grieve Thee, who art all my joy and peace?
- 3 Forth from thy rich and bounteous store Life's common blessings daily flow; More than I dare to ask, far more Than I deserve, dost thou bestow.
- Through all the shades of earth and time; Faith mounts beyond the farthest star; You shining heights she fain would climb.

God's sustaining Presence.

1 FATHER and friend, thy light, thy love Beaming through all thy works we see; Thy glory gilds the heavens above, And all the earth is full of thee.

2 Thy voice we hear, thy presence feel,
Whilst thou, too pure for mortal sight,
Involved in clouds, invisible,
Reignest the Lord of life and light.

- 3 We know not in what hallowed part Of the wide heav'ns thy throne may be; But this we know, — that where thou art, Strength, wisdom, goodness, dwell with thee.
- Yhy children shall not faint nor fear, Sustained by this delightful thought, Since thou, their God, art everywhere, They cannot be where thou art not.

165
"In whose Hand are all thy Ways."

- 1 God of my life, whose gracious power
 Through varied deaths my soul hath led,
 Or turned aside the fatal hour,
 Or lifted up my sinking head!
- In all my ways thy hand I own,
 Thy ruling providence I see:
 Assist me still my course to run,
 And still direct my paths to thee.

3 Whither, O, whither should I fly,
But to my loving Father's breast;
Secure within thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath thy wings to rest!

4 I have no skill the snare to shun,
But thou, O God! my wisdom art;
I ever into ruin run,
But thou art greater than my heart.

166 Providence Mysterious.

AFOR.

- 1 THY ways, O Lord, with wise design, Are framed upon thy throne above, And every dark or bending line Meets in the centre of thy love.
- 2 With feeble light, and half obscure, Poor mortals thine arrangements view, Not knowing that the least are sure, And the mysterious just and true.
- 3 They neither know nor trace the way; But, trusting to thy piercing eye, None of their feet to ruin stray, Nor shall the weakest fail or die.
- 4 My favored soul shall meekly learn
 To lay her reason at thy throne;
 Too weak thy secrets to discern;
 I'll trust thee for my guide alone.

Perfection of God.

1 Thou art, Almighty Lord of all, From everlasting still the same; Before thee dazzling scraphs fall, And veil their faces in a flame, To see such bright perfections glow,— Such floods of glory from thee flow.

2 The sun himself is but a gleam,
A transient meteor, from thy throne;
And every frail and fickle beam,
That ever in creation shone,
Is nothing, Lord, compared to thee
In thy own vast immensity.

3 But though thy brightness may create
All worship from the hosts above,
What most thy name must clevate
Is, that thou art a God of love;
And mercy is the central sun
Of all thy glories joined in one.

Prayer for the Spirit of God's Word.

1 Inspired of the ancient seers, In number and in compass more Who wrote from thee the sacred page, Than ocean's sand or ocean's shore.

The same through all succeeding years!
To us, in our degenerate age,
The spirit of thy word impart,
And breathe its life into our heart.

While now thine oracles we read, With carnest prayer and strong desire, O, let thy truth from thee proceed Our souls to waken and inspire; Our weakness help, our darkness chase, And guide us by the light of grace.

3 Supplied from out thy treasury,
O, may we always ready stand
To help the souls redeemed by thee,
In what their various states demand;
To teach, convince, correct, reprove,
And build them up in noblest love.

169 MONTGOMMY.

God good and omniscient.

1 How precious are thy thoughts of peace,
O God! to me, — how great the sum!
New every morn, they never cease;
They were, they are, and yet shall come,
In number and in compass more
Than ocean's sand or ocean's shore.

The Sovereign God.

- 1 YE nations round the earth, rejoice Before the Lord, your sovereign King, Serve him with cheerful heart and voice. With all your tongues his glory sing.
- Doth life and breath and being give; We are his work, and not our own, The sheep that on his pastures live.

COMDER, The Lord is King.

- 1 THE Lord is King! lift up thy voice, O earth, and all ye heavens rejoice! From world to world the joy shall ring; The Lord Omnipotent is King.
- 2 The Lord is King! O child of dust, The Judge of all the earth is just. Holy and true are all his ways; Let every creature speak his praise.
- 3 Come, make your wants, your burdens known; The contrite soul he'll ne'er disown; And angel bands are waiting there. His messages of love to bear.
- His might decay, his love forsake; Then may his children cease to sing The Lord Omnipotent is King.

TATE & BRADY. Eternity and Sovereignty of God.

196MOORE. All Things are of God.

1 Thou art, O God, the life and light Of all this wondrous world we see: Its glow by day, its smile by night, Are but reflections caught from thee; Where'er we turn, thy glories shine, And all things fair and bright are thine.

2 When day, with farewell beam, delays Among the opening clouds of even, And we can almost think we gaze Through golden vistas into heaven, — Those hues that mark the sun's decline. So soft, so radiant, Lord, are thine.

3 When night, with wings of starry gloom. O'ershadows all the earth and skies. Like some dark, beauteous bird, whose plume Is sparkling with unnumbered eyes,— That sacred gloom, those fires divine, So grand, so countless, Lord, are thine.

Acknowledgment of Divine Love.

1 How dread are thine eternal years, O everlasting Lord! By prostrate spirits day and night Incessantly adored!

- 2 Yet I may love thee too, O Lord! Almighty as thou art, For thou hast stooped to ask of me The love of my poor heart.

- 3 On the Eternal arm reclining, We at length shall win the day; All the powers of earth combining, Shall not snatch our crown away.

God is Love.

HARRIS. 215

DODDRIDGE. Praise for Divine Goodness.

- 1 From all who dwell in heaven above We hear the anthem, "God is Love!" While, through the souls of all below, His tender mercies ever flow.
- 2 Oh, while this glorious faith we own, Be love in all our acts made known; Then blinded eyes shall ope to see God is not wrath, but charity.
- 3 He sows the suns, like golden grain, On the blue ether's boundless plain, Yet in the soul his mercies are More vast, more bright than every star.
- 4 Teach us, O Lord! like thee, to give To all that love wherein we live; Till earth below, to heaven above, Repeats the anthem, "God is Love."

214 Mrs. Steele. Grace of God's Name.

- 1 Lord, in thy great, thy glorious name, I place my hope, my only trust; Save me from sorrow, guilt, and shame, 216 Thou ever gracious, ever just.
- 3 Thou art my rock! thy name alone The fortress where my hopes retreat; Oh, make thy power and mercy known; To safety guide my wandering feet.
- 3 Blest be the Lord, forever blest, Whose mercy bids my fears remove; The sacred walls which guard my rest Are his almighty power and love.

- 1 God of my life, through all its days My grateful powers shall sound thy praise, The song shall wake with opening light, And warble to the silent night.
- 2 When anxious cares would break my rest, And griefs would tear my throbbing breast, Thy tuneful praises, raised on high, Shall check the murmur and the sigh.
- 3 When death o'er nature shall prevail, And all its powers of language fail, Joy through my swimming eyes shall break, And mean the thanks I cannot speak.
- 4 But oh! when that last conflict's o'er. And I am chained to flesh no more, With what glad accents shall I rise, To join the music of the skies!
- Soon shall I learn the exalted strains Which echo o'er the heavenly plains, And emulate, with joy unknown, The glowing seraphs round thy throne.

The Shadowing Rock.

WHITTIES.

- 1 THE path of life we walk to-day Is strange as that the Hebrews trod: We need the shadowing rock as they, We need, like them, the guides of God.
- 2 God send his angels, Cloud and Fire. To lead us o'er the desert sand! God give our hearts their long desire, His shadow in a weary land!

AYON.

God is Love.

1 Earth with her ten thousand flowers, Air, with all its beams and showers, Ocean's infinite expanse, Ileaven's resplendent countenance; All around, and all above, Hath this record, — God is love.

- 2 Sounds among the vales and hills, In the woods and by the rills, Of the breeze and of the bird, By the gentle murmur stirred; All these songs, beneath, above, Have one burden, — God is love.
- 3 All the hopes and fears that start
 From the fountain of the heart;
 All the quiet bliss that lies
 In our human sympathies;
 These are voices from above,
 Sweetly whispering, God is love.

218

T. T. LYNCH.

Prayer for the Spirit.

- 1 GRACIOUS Spirit, dwell with me; I myself would gracious be, And with words that help and heal Would thy life in mine reveal, And with actions bold and meek Would for Christ my Saviour speak.
- 2 Mighty Spirit, dwell with me; I myself would mighty be,

Mighty so as to prevail Where unaided man must fail, Ever by a mighty hope Pressing on and bearing up.

3 Holy Spirit, dwell with me; I myself would holy be; Separate from sin, I would Choose and cherish all things good, And whatever I can be Give to him who gave me thee.

NEWYOR

Childlike Trust in God.

- 1 QUIET, Lord, my froward heart;
 Make me teachable and mild,
 Upright, simple, free from art;
 Make me as a weanéd child,—
 From distrust and envy free,
 Pleased with all that pleases thee.
- 2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
 Let me as a child receive;
 What to-morrow may betide,
 Calmly to thy wisdom leave:
 'T is enough that thou wilt care;
 Why should I the burden bear?
- 3 As a little child relies
 On a care beyond his own,
 Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
 Fears to stir a step alone;
 Let me thus with thee abide,
 As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

ANCIENT CATH. HYMN. God's all-embracing Love.

1 Thou Grace divine, encircling all! A soundless, shoreless sea; Wherein at last our souls shall fall; O Love of God, most free.

- 2 When over dizzy steeps we go, One soft hand blinds our eyes; The other leads us safe and slow, O Love of God most wise!
- 8 And though we turn as from thy face, And wander wide and long, Thou hold'st us still in thine embrace, O Love of God most strong!
- 4 The saddened heart, the restless soul,
 The toil-worn frame and mind,
 Alike confess thy sweet control,
 O Love of God most kind!
- 5 But not alone thy care we claim, Our wayward steps to win; We know thee by a dearer name, O Love of God within!
- 6 And filled and quickened by thy breath, Our souls are strong and free; To rise o'er sin, and fear, and death, O Love of God, to thee!

221 God omnipresent.

1 THERE'S not a place in earth's vast round, In ocean deep, or air, Where skill and wisdom are not found, For God is everywhere.

- 2 Around, within, below, above, Wherever space extends, There heaven displays its boundless love, And power with mercy blends.
- 3 Then rise, my soul, and sing his name, And all his praise rehearse, Who spread abroad earth's wondrous frame, And built the universe.
- 4 Where'er thine earthly lot is cast,
 II is power and love declare;
 Nor think the mighty theme too vast,
 For God is everywhere.

222

ANON.

WATTS.

Power, Wisdom, and Goodness of God.

- 1 I sing the mighty power of God, That made the mountains rise, That spread the flowing seas abroad, And built the lofty skies.
- 2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
 The sun to rule the day:
 The moon shines full at his command.
 And all the stars obey.
- 3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
 That filled the earth with food;
 He formed the creatures with his word,
 And then pronounced them good.
- 4 There's not a plant or flower below, But makes thy glories known; And clouds arise and tempests blow By order from thy throne.

223
The Divine Being and Perfections.

- High in the heavens, eternal God,
 Thy goodness in full glory shines;
 Thy truth shall break through every cloud,
 That veils and darkens thy designs.
- 2 Forever firm thy justice stands, As mountains their foundations keep; Wise are the wonders of thy hands; Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
- 3 Thy providence is kind and large:
 Both men and beasts thy bounty share:
 The whole creation is thy charge;
 But saints are thy peculiar care.
- 4 Life, like a fountain full and free, Springs from the presence of my Lord; And in thy light our souls shall see The glories promised in thy word.

224

Public Adoration.

- 1 Before Jehovah's awful throne, Ye nations bow with sacred joy! Know that the Lord is God alone: He can create, and he destroy.
- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid, Made us of clay, and formed us men; And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed, He brought us to his fold again.
- B We are his people, we his care, Our souls and all our mortal frame: What lasting honors shall we rear, Almighty Maker, to thy name?

- 4 We'll crowd thy gates: with thankful songs
 High as the heavens our voices raise;
 And earth, with her ten thousand tongues, [praise.
 Shall fill thy courts with sounding
- 5 Wide as the world is thy command, Vast as eternity thy love; Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand When rolling years shall cease to move.

225

Every Good Gift from the Father.

- 1 FATHER, to thy kind love we owe All that is fair and good below; Bestower of the health that lies On tearless cheeks and cheerful eyes!
- 2 Giver of sunshine and of rain!
 Ripener of fruits on hill and plain!
 Fountain of light, that, rayed afar,
 Fills the vast urns of sun and star!
- 3 Who send'st thy storms and frosts to bind The plagues that rise to waste mankind; Then breathest, o'er the naked scene, Spring gales, and life, and tender green.
- 4 Yet deem we not that thus alone, Thy mercy and thy love are shown; For we have learned, with higher praise, And holier names, to speak thy ways.
- 5 In woe's dark hour, our kindest stay! Sole trust when life shall pass away! Teacher of hopes that light the gloom Of death, and consecrate the tomb!

God's Infinite and Eternal Dominion. 1 Great God, how infinite art thou! How weak and frail are we! Let the whole race of creatures bow, And pay their praise to thee.

- 2 Eternity, with all its years, Stands present in thy view; To thee there's nothing old appears. Great God! there's nothing new.
- 8 Our lives through various scenes are drawn, 2 When heaven, thy glorious work on high, And vexed with trifling cares, While thine eternal thoughts move on Thine undisturbed affairs.

227

WATTS. God our Help.

- 1 Our God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come! Our shelter from the stormy blast, And our eternal home!
- 2 Before the hills in order stood. Or earth received her frame, From everlasting thou art God, To endless years the same.
- 3 A thousand ages in thy sight Are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night, Before the rising sun.
- 4 Time, like an ever-rolling stream, Bears all its sons away Then fly, forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.

WATTS. | 5 Our God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Be thou our guard while troubles last, And our eternal home!

TATE & BRADY. God's Condescension.

- 1 O THOU, to whom all creatures bow Within this earthly frame, Through all the world how great art thou! How glorious is thy name!
- Employs my wondering sight, -The moon that nightly rules the sky, With stars of feebler light, —
- 3 Lord, what is man, that he is blessed With thy peculiar care! Why on his offspring is conferred Of love so large a share?
- 4 O Thou, to whom all creatures bow Within this earthly frame, Through all the world how great art thou! How glorious is thy name!

WATTS. The Everlasting God.

- GREAT is the Lord, his power unknown, Oh, let his praise be great! I'll sing the honors of thy throne; Thy works of grace repeat.
- 2 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name, And children learn thy ways: Ages to come thy truths proclaim. And nations sound thy praise.

Divine Goodness

- 1 Who fathoms the Eternal Thought? Who talks of scheme and plan? The Lord is God! he needeth not The poor device of man.
- 2 I walk with bare, hushed feet the ground 1 O God of Bethel, by whose hand Men tread with boldness shod: I dare not fix with mete and bound The love and power of God.
- 3 They praise his justice; even such His pitying love I deem; They seek a king; I fain would touch The robe that hath no seam.
- 4 They see the curse which overbroods A world of pain and loss; I hear our Lord's beatitudes And prayer upon the cross.

MONTGOMERY.

God's Faithfulness.

- 1 FAITHFUL, O Lord, thy mercies are, A rock that cannot move: A thousand promises declare Thy constancy of love.
- 2 Who trusted in thy word of old Were never put to shame; And as thy purposes unfold, Thy truth is still the same.
- 3 Thou waitest to be gracious still; Thou dost with sinners bear, That, saved, we may thy goodness feel, And all thy grace declare.

4 Its streams the whole creation reach. So plenteous is the store; Enough for all, enough for each, Enough for evermore.

232

The God of Bethel.

- Thy people still are fed, Who, through this weary pilgrimage, Hast all our fathers led.
- 2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present Before thy throne of grace: God of our fathers! be the God Of their succeeding race.
- 3 Through each perplexing path of life, Our wand'ring footsteps guide; Give us each day our daily bread, And all we need provide.
- 4 O spread thy cov'ring wings around, Till all our wand'rings cease, And at our Father's loved abode, Our souls arrive in peace.

233

Ceaseless Praise.

- 1 THE glorious armies of the sky To thee, almighty King, Triumphant anthems consecrate, And hallelujahs sing.
- 2 But still their most exalted flights Fall vastly short of thee; How distant then must human praise From thy perfections be!

234
All-embracing Providence of God.

- 1 Jehovah God! thy gracious power
 On every hand we see;
 O may the blessings of each hour
 Lead all our thoughts to thee.
- 2 If, on the wings of morn, we speed To earth's remotest bound, Thy hand will there our footsteps lead, Thy love our path surround.
- 3 Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
 And reaches to the skies;
 Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
 Thy goodness never dies.
- 4 In all the varying scenes of time, On thee our hopes depend; Through every age, in every clime, Our Father and our Friend!

Prividence Kind and Bountiful.

- 1 The kingdom, Lord, forever stands, While earthly thrones decay; And time submits to thy commands, While ages roll away.
- 2 Thy sovereign bounty freely gives
 1ts unexhausted store;
 And universal nature lives
 On thy sustaining power.
- 8 Holy and just in all its ways Is Providence divine; In all its works, immortal rays Of power and mercy shine.

4 The praise of God — delightful theme!
Shall fill my heart and tongue;
Let all creation bless his name,
In one eternal song.

236 Scort. God's Superintendency.

- 1 God reigns; events in order flow, Man's industry to guide; But in a different channel go, To humble human pride.
- Weak mortals do themselves beguile, When on themselves they rest; Blind is their wisdom, vain their toil, By thee, O Lord, unblest.
- 3 'T is ours the furrows to prepare,
 And sow the precious grain;
 'T is thine to give the sun and air,
 And send the genial rain.
- 4 Evil and good before thee stand,
 Their mission to perform;
 The sun shines bright at thy command;
 Thy hand directs the storm.
- 5 In all our ways, we humbly own
 Thy providential power;
 Entrusting to thy care, alone,
 The lot of every hour.

237

God's Ways.

1 THY way, O Lord, is in the sea; Thy paths I cannot trace, Nor comprehend the mystery Of thine unbounded grace.

The Beneficence of God.

1 God of the universe, whose hand Hath sown with suns the fields of space, Round which, obeying thy command, Unnumbered worlds fulfil their race:

- 2 How vast the region where thy will Existence, form, and order gives, Pleased the wide cup with joy to fill, For all that grows, and feels, and lives.
- Beneficence to all below: They praise thee best whose bosoms burn Thy gifts on others to bestow.

DYER. God's Cure over All.

- 1 Greatest of Beings! Source of life! Sovereign of air, of earth, and sea! All nature feels thy power, — but man 241 A grateful tribute pays to thee.
- 2 All, great Creator! all are thine; All feel thy providential care; And, through each varying scene of life, Alike thy constant pity share.
- 3 And whether grief oppress the heart, Or whether joy elate the breast, Or life still keep its little course, Or death invite the heart to rest;
- 4 All are thy messengers, and all Thy sacred pleasure, Lord, obey; And all are training man to dwell Nearer to bliss, and nearer thee.

W. TATLOR. |240

Providence Kind and Sure.

COLLETT

- 1 Through all the various passing scene Of life's mistaken ill or good, Thy hand, O God! conducts unseen The beautiful vicissitude.
- 2 Thou givest with paternal care, Howe'er unjustly we complain, To each their necessary share Of joy and sorrow, health and pain.
- 3 Lord! while we thank thee, let us learn |3 All things on earth, and all in heaven, On thy eternal will depend; And all for greater good were given, And all shall in thy glory end.
 - 4 Be this my care!—to all beside Indifferent let my wishes be; Passion be calm, and dumb be pride, And fixed my soul, great God, on thee.

T. H GILL

Desire of Progress. 1 Lord, thou wouldst have us like to thee; Lord, thou wouldst lift us to thy Son: Thou biddest us aspirants be, -

2 Alas our wrath! alas our pride! Yet shall they not at last be gone? Oh may we not each day abide Still nearer the all-loving One?

Put all divine ambition on.

3 Would we not grow divinely bright, Take sweetness in, put glory on, Yes, wax more worthy to delight In thee, first fair, all-glorious One?

The Book of Nature.

1 THERE is a book, who runs may read, Which heavenly truth imparts; And all the lore its scholars need, Pure eyes and willing hearts.

- 2 The works of God above, below, Within us and around, Are pages in that book to show How God himself is found.
- 3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
 Is like the Father's love;
 Wherewith encompassed, great and small,
 In peace and order move.
- 4 Thou who hast given us eyes to see And love this sight so fair, Give to us hearts to find out thee, And read thee everywhere.

243

God seen in His Works.

1 THERE'S not a star whose twinkling light Illumes the distant earth, And cheers the solemn gloom of night, But Goodness gave it birth.

KEBLE. 2 There's not a cloud whose dews distil
Upon the parching clod,
And clothe with verdure veloced bill

And clothe with verdure vale and hill, That is not sent by God.

- 3 There 's not a place in earth's vast round, In ocean deep, or air, Where skill and wisdom are not found; For God is everywhere.
- 4 Around, within, below, above,
 Wherever space extends,
 There heaven displays its boundless love,
 And power with goodness blends.

244

J. G. WHITTIER

Nature's Worship.

- 1 The harp at Nature's advent strung
 Has never ceased to play;
 The song the stars of morning sung
 Has never died away.
- 2 So nature keeps the reverent frame With which her years began; And all her signs and voices shame The prayerless heart of man.

God over All.

- 1 THE Lord our God is Lord of all; His station who can find? I hear him in the waterfall; I hear him in the wind.
- 2 If in the gloom of night I shroud, His face I cannot fly;
 I see him in the evening cloud, And in the morning sky.
- 3 He lives, he reigns in every land, From winter's polar snows, To where, across the burning sand, The blasting meteor glows.
- 4 He bids his gales the fields deform,
 Then, when his thunders cease,
 He paints his rainbow on the storm,
 Aud lulls the winds to peace.

246 Coodness of God in his Works.

- 1 Hath, great Creator, wise and good! To thee our songs we raise; Nature, through all her varying scenes, Invites us to thy praise.
- 2 Thy glory beams in every star,
 Which gilds the gloom of night,
 And decks the smiling face of morn
 With rays of cheerful light.
- 8 The lofty hill, the humble lawn, With countless beauties shine; The silent grove, the awful shade, Proclaim thy power divine.

4 Great nature's God! still may these scenes
Our serious hours engage!
Still may our grateful hearts consult
Thy work's instructive page!

ANOM.

Whispers in the Tempest.

- 1 GREAT Ruler of all nature's frame, We own thy power divine; We hear thy breath in every storm, For all the winds are thine.
- 2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way, They work thy sovereign will; And awed by thy majestic voice, Confusion shall be still.
- 3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
 To those who seek thy face,
 And mingles with the tempest's roar
 The whispers of thy grace.
- 4 Those gentle whispers let us hear,
 Till all the tumult cease,
 And gales of Paradise shall lull
 Our weary souls to peace.

HYMNS OF THE SPIERT. "His Greatness is Unsearchable."

- 1 GREAT God, on whose sustaining power Unnumbered worlds depend; Great Spirit, comprehending all, Whom none can comprehend,—
- With wondering reverence we adore, With awe before thee bend, Whom none, but by thine inward light And spirit, apprehend.

Being of God.

MRS. STEELE.

- 1 THERE is a God all nature speaks, Through earth, and air, and sea, and skies: See, from the clouds his glory breaks, When first the beams of morning rise.
- 2 The rising sun, serenely bright,
 O'er the wide world's extended frame
 Inscribes, in characters of light,
 His mighty Maker's glorious name.
- 3 The blooming flowers in beauty rise
 Above the weak attempts of art;
 Their bright, inimitable dyes
 Speak sweet conviction to the heart.
- 4 Ye curious minds, who roam abroad, And trace creation's wonders o'er, Confess the footsteps of a God; Come, bow before him, and adore.

250 MRS. FOLLEN. Divine Goodness seen in Nature.

- 1 Gop, thou art good! each perfumed flower,
 The waving field, the dark green wood,
 The insect fluttering for an hour,—
 All things proclaim that God is good.
- 2 I hear it in each breath of wind:

 The hills that have for ages stood,
 And clouds with gold and silver lined,
 All still repeat that God is good.
- 3 The countless hosts of twinkling stars, That sing his praise with light renewed; The rising sun each day declares, In rays of glory, God is good.

The moon that walks in brightness says
That God is good! and man, endued
With power to speak his Maker's praise,
Doth still repeat that God is good.

251

Sterling.

God's Works.

1 Thou, Lord, who rear'st the mountain's height, [bright, And mak'st the cliffs with sunshine Oh, grant that we may own thy hand No less in every grain of sand!

- With forests huge, of dateless time, Thy will has hung each peak sublime; But withered leaves beneath the tree Have tongues that tell as loud of thee.
- 3 Teach us that not a leaf can grow Till life from thee within it flow; That not a grain of dust can be, O Fount of being, save by thee.
- 4 That every human word and deed, Each flash of feeling, will, or creed, Hath solemn meaning from above, Begun and ended all in love.

DODDEIDGE

Divine Goodness.

- 1 TRIUMPHANT, Lord, thy goodness reigns, Through all the wide celestial plains; And its full streams redundant flow Down to the abodes of men below.
- 2 Oh, give to every human heart To taste and feel how good thou art; With grateful love, and reverent fear To know how blest thy children are!

GRANT.

J. WESLEY, |255"The healthful Spirit of God's Grace."

- 1 Spirit of grace, and health, and power! 1 The starry firmament on high, Fountain of light and love below! Abroad thy healing influence shower; On all thy servants let it flow.
- 2 Inflame our hearts with perfect love; In us the work of faith fulfil: So not heaven's host shall swifter move, Than we on earth to do thy will.
- 3 Father! 't is thine each day to yield Thy children's wants a fresh supply; Thou cloth'st the lilies of the field, And hearest the young ravens cry.
- 4 On thee we cast our care; we live Through thee who know'st our every need: Oh, feed us with thy grace, and give Our souls this day the living bread!

254 Nature and Scripture compared.

- 1 THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord; 1 Up to the hills I lift mine eyes, In every star thy wisdom shines; But when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fairer lines.
- 2 The rolling sun, the changing light, And nights and days thy power confess; But, lo! the volume thou hast writ Reveals thy justice and thy grace.
- 3 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest, Till through the world thy truth has run; Till Christ has all the nations blest, That see the light or feel the sun.

Permanence of God's word.

And all the glories of the sky, Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord, So brightly as thy written word.

- 2 The hopes that holy word supplies, Its truths divine and precepts wise, In each a heavenly beam I see, And every beam conducts to thee.
- Almighty Lord, the sun shall fail, The moon forget her nightly tale, And deepest silence hush on high The radiant chorus of the sky;—
- 4 But fixed for everlasting years, Unmoved, amid the wreck of spheres, Thy word shall shine in cloudless day, When heaven and earth have passed away.

watts.|256"Up to the Hills I lift mine Eyes."

- Th' eternal hills beyond the skies; Thence all her help my soul derives, There my almighty Refuge lives.
- He lives the everlasting God That built the world, that spread the flood: The heavens with all their hosts he made, And the dark regions of the dead.
- 3 He guides our feet, he guards our way; His morning smiles bless all the day: He spreads the evening vail, and keeps The silent hours, while Israel sleeps.

CEPHAS. L. M. Double.

257

The Heavens declare the Glory of God.

Addison.

- 1 THE spacious firmament on high,
 With all the blue ethereal sky,
 And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
 Their great original proclaim.
 Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
 Doth his Creator's power display;
 And publishes to every land
 The work of an Almighty hand.
- 2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
 The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
 And nightly to the listening earth
 Repeats the story of her birth: [burn,
 Whilst all the stars which round her
 And all the planets in their turn,
 Confirm the tidings as they roll,
 And spread the truth from pole to pole.
- 3 What though, in solemn silence, all Move round this dark terrestrial ball; What though no real voice nor sound Amidst their radiant orbs be found; In reason's ear they all rejoice, And utter forth a glorious voice; Forever singing, as they shine, "The hand that made us is divine."

258

Nature a Temple.

T. MOORE.

- 1 The turf shall be my fragrant shrine; My temple, Lord, that arch of thine; My censer's breath the mountain airs, And silent thoughts my only prayers. My choir shall be the moonlit waves, When murmuring homeward to their caves, Or when the stillness of the sea, E'en more than music, breathes of thee.
- 2 I'll seek, by day, some glade unknown, All light and silence, like thy throne; And the pale stars shall be, at night, The only eyes that watch my rite. Thy heaven, on which 't is bliss to look, Shall be my pure and shining book, Where I can read in words of flame, The glories of thy wondrous name.
- There's nothing bright, above, below, From flowers that bloom, to stars that glow, But in its light my soul can see Some feature of thy Deity.

 There's nothing dark, below, above, But in its gloom I trace thy love, And meekly wait that moment when Thy touch shall turn all bright again.

259 Mrs. OFTH.
Uniting with Nature in God's Praise.

- 1 THERE seems a voice in every gale,
 A tongue in every opening flower,
 Which tells, O Lord, the wondrous tale
 Of thine indulgence, love, and power.
 The birds that rise on quivering wing
 Appear to hymn their Maker's praise,
 And all the mingling sounds of Spring
 To thee a general pean raise.
- 2 And shall my voice, great God, alone
 Be mute 'mid Nature's loud acclaim?
 No! let my heart, with answering tone,
 Breathe forth in praise thy holy name.
 And Nature's debt is small to mine—
 Thou bad'st her being bounded be;
 But (matchless proof of love divine!)
 Thou gav'st immortal life to me.
- 3 The Saviour left his heavenly throne
 A ransom for our souls to give;
 Man's suffering state he made his own,
 And deigned to die that we might live.
 But thanks and praise for love so great
 No mortal tongue can e'er express;
 Then let me bow before thy feet,
 In silence love thee, Lord, and bless.

ANON

The Scriptures.

- 1 Lamp of our feet! whose hallowed beam Deep in our hearts its dwelling hath, How welcome is the cheering gleam Thou sheddest o'er our lowly path! Light of our way! whose rays are flung In mercy o'er our pilgrim road, How blesséd, its dark shade among, The star that guides us to our God.
- 2 In the sweet morning's hour of prime,
 Thy blesséd word our lips engage;
 And round our hearths at evening time
 Our children spell the holy page;
 The waymark through long distant years,
 To guide their wandering footsteps on,
 Till thy last ioveliest beam appears,
 Inscribed upon the churchyard stone.
- 3 Lamp of our feet! which day by day
 Are passing to the quiet tomb,
 If on it fall thy peaceful ray,
 Our last low dwelling hath no gloom.

How beautiful their calm repose
To whom thy blesséd hope is given,
Whose pilgrimage on earth is closed
By the unfolding gates of heaven!

STERLING.

The two Temples.

- 1 When up to nightly skies we gaze,
 Where stars pursue their endless ways,
 We think we see, from earth's low clod,
 The wide and shining home of God.
 But could we rise to moon or sun,
 Or path where planets duly run,
 Still heaven would spread above us far,
 And earth, remote, would seem a star.
- 2 This earth, with all its dust and tears, Is his no less than yonder spheres; And rain-drops weak, and grains of sand, Are stamped by his immediate hand. But more than this, thou God benign, Whose rays on us unclouded shine; Thy breath sustains yon fiery dome, But man is most thy favored home.

262

W. B. O. PEABODY. God in Creation.

- 1 God of the rolling orbs above,
 Thy name is written clearly bright
 In the warm day's unvarying blaze,
 Or evening's golden shower of light;
 For every fire that fronts the sun,
 And every spark that walks alone
 Around the utmost verge of heaven,
 Were kindled at thy burning throne.
- 2 God of the world, the hour must come, And nature's self to dust return; Her crumbling altars must decay; Her incense-fires shall cease to burn. But still her grand and lovely scenes Have made man's warmest praises flow. For hearts grow holier as they trace The beauty of the world below.

Goodness of God to Soul and Body.

1 Bless, O my soul! the living God; Call home thy tho'ts that rove abroad: Let all the powers within me join In work and worship so divine. Bless, O my soul! the God of grace; His favors claim thy highest praise: Why should the wonders he hath wrought Be lost in silence and forgot?

Value of the Scriptures.

1 Word of the ever-living God! Will of his glorious Son! Without thee how could earth be trod, Or heaven itself be won?

- 2 Yet, to unfold thy hidden worth, Thy mysteries to reveal, That Spirit which first gave thee forth, Thy volume must unseal!
- 3 And we, if we aright would learn The wisdom it imparts, Must to its heavenly teaching turn With simple, childlike hearts!

RIPPON'S COLL Value of the Bible.

- 1 How precious is the book divine, By inspiration given! Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine, To lead our souls to heaven.
- ? O'er all the straight and narrow way Its radiant beams are cast; A light whose never waning ray Grows brightest at the last.
- 3 It sweetly cheers our fainting hearts In this dark vale of tears; Life, light, and comfort it imparts, And calms our anxious fears.
- 4 This lamp through all the dreary night 3 Let everlasting thanks be thine, Of life shall guide our way Till we behold the glorious light Of never-ending day.

The Bible suited to our Wants.

1 FATHER of mercies, in thy word What endless glory shines! Forever be thy name adored For these celestial lines.

- 2 'T is here the Saviour's welcome voice Speaks heavenly peace around, And life, and everlasting joys, Attend the blissful sound.
- 3 Oh, may these heavenly pages be My ever dear delight; And still new beauties may I see, And still increasing light.
- 4 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord, Be thou forever near; Teach me to love thy sacred word And view my Saviour here.

267

Glory of the Word.

COWPER

1 A GLORY gilds the sacred page, Majestic, like the sun;

It gives a light to every age; — It gives, but borrows none.

2 The hand, that gave it, still supplies The gracious light and heat; Its truths upon the nations rise,— They rise, but never set.

For such a bright display, As makes a world of darkness shine With beams of heavenly day.

Comfort from the Bible.

WATTE

- LORD, I have made thy word my choice, My lasting heritage;
 There shall my noblest powers rejoice, My warmest thoughts engage.
- 2 I'll read the histories of thy love, And keep thy laws in sight, While through the promises I rove, With ever-fresh delight.
- 3 'Tis a 'road land of wealth unknown, Where springs of life arise, See's of immortal bliss are sown, And hidden glory lies.
- 4 The best relief that mourners have, It makes our sorrows blest; Our fairest hope beyond the grave, And our eternal rest.

Instruction from the Scriptures.

- 1 How shall the young secure their hearts, And guard their lives from sin? Thy word the choicest rules imparts To keep the conscience clean.
- 2 When once it enters to the mind, It spreads such light abroad, The meanest souls instruction find, And raise their thoughts to God.
- T is like the sun, a heavenly light
 That guides us all the day;
 And, through the dangers of the night,
 A lamp to lead our way.

- 4 The starry heavens thy rule obey;
 The earth maintains her place;
 And these, thy servants, night and day,
 Thy skill and power express.
- 5 But still thy law and gospel, Lord, Have lessons more divine; Not earth stands firmer than thy word, Nor stars so nobly shine.

270

The Bible.

- 1 LAMP of our feet! whereby we trace
 Our path when wont to stray;
 Stream from the fount of heavenly grace!
 Brook by the traveller's way!
- 2 Bread of our souls! whereon we feed; True manna from on high! Our guide and chart! wherein we read Of realms beyond the sky.
- 3 Pillar of fire through watches dark, And radiant cloud by day! [bark, When waves would whelm our tossing Our anchor and our stay!
- 4 Word of the everlasting God!
 Will of his glorious Son!
 Without thee how could earth be trod,
 And heaven itself be won?
- 5 Lord! grant us all aright to learn
 The wisdom it imparts,
 And to its heavenly teaching turn
 With simple, childlike hearts.

The revealed Word.

1 O LORD, thy perfect word Direct our steps aright; Nor can all other books afford Such profit or delight.

- 2 Celestial light it sheds, To cheer this vale below; To distant lands its glory spreads, And streams of mercy flow.
- 8 True wisdom it imparts; Commands our hope and fear; Oh, may we hide it in our hearts, And feel its influence there.

The Bible.

E. TATLOR.

- 1 IT is the one true light, When other lamps grow dim, 'T will never burn less purely bright, Nor lead astray from Him.
- 2 It is Love's blessed band, That reaches from the throne To him —whoe'er he be — whose hand Will seize it for his own!
- 3 It is the golden key Unto celestial wealth, Joy to the sons of poverty, And to the sick man, health!
- 4 The gently proffered aid Of one who knows and best Supplies the beings he has made With what will make them blessed.
- 5 It is the sweetest sound That infant years can hear, Travelling across that holy ground, With God and angels near.
- 6 There rests the weary head, There age and sorrow go: And how it smooths the dying bed, Oh! let the Christian show!

"If God be for us, who can be against us?"

1 Here I can firmly rest; I dare to boast of this, That God, the highest and the best, My Friend and Father is.

Prayer for Renewal.

- 1 Come, holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers, Kindle a flame of sacred love In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 Look! how we grovel here below, Fond of these trifling toys! Our souls can neither fly nor go To reach eternal joys.
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs; In vain we strive to rise; Hosannas languish on our tongues, And our devotion dies.
- 4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live At this poor dying rate— Our love so faint, so cold to thee, And thine to us so great!
- 5 Come, holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers, Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love, And that shall kindle ours.

Spirit of Holiness.

- 1 Spirit of holiness, descend;
 Thy people wait for thee;
 Thine ear in kind compassion lend;
 Let us thy mercy see.
- 2 Behold thy weary churches wait, With wistful, longing eyes; Let us no more lie desolate: Oh, bid thy light arise!

- 3 Thy light that on our souls hath shone, Leads us in hope to thee; Let us not feel its rays alone — Alone thy people be.
- 4 Spirit of holiness, 't is thine
 To hear our feeble prayer;
 Come,—for we wait thy power divine,—
 Let us thy mercy share.

BULFINOH.

1 Calm on the listening ear of night, Come heaven's melodious strains, Where wild Judea stretches far Her silver-mantled plains.

- 2 The answering hills of Palestine Send back the glad reply;
 And greet, from all their holy heights,
 The dayspring from on high.
- 3 O'er the blue depths of Galilee There comes a holier calm, And Sharon waves, in solemn praise, Her silent groves of palm.
- 4 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
 Loud with their anthems ring,—
 "Peace to the earth,—good-will to men,
 From heaven's eternal King!"
- 5 Light on thy hills, Jerusalem!
 The Saviour now is born!
 And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains
 Breaks the first Christmas morn.

200 Christ walking on the Sea.

And trusted in his Father's arm,
Omnipotent to save;

2 When darkly round our footsteps rise The floods and storms of life; Send thou thy Spirit down to still The dark and fearful strife.

281 "Peace | Be still!"

- 1 FEAR was within the tossing bark,
 When stormy winds grew loud;
 And waves came rolling high and dark,
 And the tall mast was bowed.
- 2 And men stood breathless in their dread, And baffled in their skill — But One there was who rose and said To the wild sea, "Be still!"
- 3 Thou that didst bow the bille w's pride,
 Thy mandates to fulfil—
 Speak, speak to passion's raging tide,
 Speak and say,—"Peace! In still!"

BOWRING.

- 1 WATCHMAN! tell us of the night,
 What its signs of promise are;
 Traveller! o'er yon mountain's height,
 See that glory-beaming star.
 Watchman! does its beauteous ray
 Aught of hope or joy foretell?
 Traveller! yes; it brings the day,
 Promised day of Israel.
- Watchman! tell us of the night,
 Higher yet that star ascends;
 Traveller! blessedness and light,
 Peace and truth, its course portends.
 Watchman! will its beams alone
 Gild the spot that gave them birth?
 Traveller! ages are its own,
 See, it bursts o'er all the earth.
- 5 Watchman! tell us of the night, For the morning seems to dawn; Traveller! darkness takes its flight, Doubt and terror are withdrawn.

Watchman! let thy wanderings cease, Hic thee to thy quiet home; Traveller! lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God is come.

The Birth of Christ.

- 1 HARK! the herald-angels sing Glory to the new-born King! Peace on earth and mercy mild, Man to God is reconciled. Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumphs of the skies; With th' angelic hosts proclaim, Christ is born in Bethlehem.
- Mild he lays his glories by;
 Born, that man no more may die;
 Born, to raise the sons of earth;
 Born, to give them second birth.
 Hail the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
 Hail the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,
 Risen with healing in his wings.

E. H. CHAPIN.

Christmas Hymn.

1 HARK! hark! with harps of gold,
What anthem do they sing? —
The radiant clouds have backward rolled,
And angels smite the string.
"Glory to God!"—bright wings
Spread glist'ning and afar,
And on the hallowed rapture rings
From circling star to star.

2 "Glory to God!" repeat
The glad earth and the sea;
And every wind and billow fleet
Bears on the jubilee.
Where Hebrew bard hath sung,
Or Hebrew seer hath trod;
Each holy spot has found a tongue:
"Let glory be to God."

8 Soft swells the music now
Along that shining choir,
And every scraph bends his brow
And breathes above his lyre.
What words of heavenly birth
Thrill deep our hearts again,
And fall like dew-drops to the earth?
"Peace and good-will to men!"

4 Soft!— yet the soul is bound
With rapture like a chain:
Earth, vocal, whispers them around,
And heaven repeats the strain.
Sound, harps, and hail the morn
With every golden string;
For unto us this day is born
A Saviour and a King!

ANON

1 Thou art gone up on high
To mansions in the skies,
And round thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise.
But we are lingering here
With sin and care oppressed;
Lord! send thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to thy rest.

Christ ascended.

2 Thou art gone up on high!
But thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto thy crown:
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us, at last, to thee!

Song of the Angels of Bethleh

1 Habk! what mean those holy voices, Sweetly sounding through the skies? Lo! th' angelic host rejoices; Heavenly hallelujahs rise. Listen to the wondrous story

Which they chant in hymns of joy; "Glory in the highest, glory! Glory be to God most high!

2 "Peace on earth, good-will from heaven, Reaching far as man is found: Souls redeemed and sins forgiven: — Loud our golden harps shall sound. Christ is born, the great Anointed; Heaven and earth his praises sing! Oh, receive whom God appointed For your Prophet, Priest, and King."

287

Praise for a Saviour.

1 Ler our songs of praise ascending,
Rise to thee, O God most high;
While before thee, humbly bending,
Glory to thy name we cry.
With the shepherds in the story,
Let our hearts to Bethlehem go,
Where the Lord of life and glory,
In a manger lieth low.

2 Age to age thy glory beareth On the stream of time abroad; Race to race thy name declareth, Son of Mary! Son of God! Heaven exults and earth rejoices
In the work that thou hast wrought
Lord, attune our trembling voices,
Let us praise thee as we ought.

Christ Rison.

1 ALLELUIA! alleluia!

Hearts to heaven and voices raise;
Sing to God a hymn of gladness,
Sing to God a hymn of praise.
He who on the cross a victim
For the world's salvation bled,—
Jesus Christ, the King of Glory,—
Now is risen from the dead.

2 Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,—
Glorious life and life immortal,—
On this holy Easter morn.
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
By his mighty enterprise;

By his mighty enterprise; We with Christ to life eternal, By his resurrection, rise.

3 Christ is risen, we are risen:
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain and dew, and gleams of glory,
From the brightness of thy face.
Grant that we, with hearts in heaven,
Here on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel-hands be gathered,
And be ever safe with thee.

Odors of Edom, and offerings divine? Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,

Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation, Vainly with gold would his favor secure;

Richer by far is the heart's adoration, Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;

Star of the East, — the horizon adorning, -Guide where the infant Redeemer is

Wake, for thy foes shall oppress thee no more;

Bright o'er thy hills dawns the daystar of gladness;

Rise! for the night of thy sorrow is Monarch, Redeemer, Restorer of all. 2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm that subdued them, Scatt'ring their legions, was mightier

Flying like chaff, from the scourge that pursued them;

Vain were their steeds and their chariots of war!

3 Daughter of Zion! the power that hath saved thee,

Praised with the harp and the timbrel should be:

Shout! for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee. Tyranny's vanquished, and Zion is

HENRY C. LEONARD. 8
Hymn for Christmas Eve.

1 Bells, ring out with cheerful might; Tapers, burn with brilliant flame; Organs, play glad hymns to-night; Voices, chant with loud acclaim.

- 2 Hands, adorn the sacred wall;
 Twine the wreath, and braid the vine;
 And upraise the fir-tree tall;
 Minstrels, sing the glowing line.
- For the blessed eve has come, Star-lit, bright as none before;
 Magi seek the Saviour's home;
 Shepherds find his humble door.
- 4 With your outward rites and gifts, Let the heart to Christ be given; For the heart his power uplifts, Leading it to truth and heaven.
- 5 Offering from hand or lip,
 Like the ointment Mary poured,
 Meaneth inward fellowship
 With the Saviour, Christ the Lord.

292

ANGIENT HYMNS, Rejoicing in Christ.

- 1 Sweet thy memory, Saviour blest, In the true believer's breast; Musing on thy precious name, Purest joys his heart inflame.
- 8 By the ear or tuneful tongue Naught so sweet is heard or sung; Naught the mind can dwell upon Sweet as God's belovéd Son.

Tongue can speak not their delight, Nor can pen of man indite; None can know but they who prove, What it is their Lord to love.

GIBBONS,

The Saviour's Resurrection.

- 1 Angels, roll the rock away;
 Death, yield up thy mighty prey:
 See! he rises from the tomb—
 Rises with immortal bloom.
- 2 'T is the Saviour; seraphs, raise
 Your triumphant shouts of praise;
 Let the earth's remotest bound
 Hear the joy-inspiring sound.
- 3 Praise him, all ye heavenly choirs, Praise him with your golden lyres; Praise him in your noblest songs; Praise him from ten thousand tongues.

Resurrection of Christ.

- 1 CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day, Our triumphant, holy day; He endured the cross and grave, Sinners to redeem and save.
- 2 Lo! he rises, mighty King! Where, O death! is now thy sting? Lo! he claims his native sky! Grave! where is thy victory?
- 3 Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day, Our triumphant holy day; Loud the song of victory raise; Shout the great Redeemer's praise.

295 Greater Love hath no Man than this."

- 1 "SEE how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews, As tender tears from Jesus fell; My grateful heart the thought pursues, And on the theme delights to dwell.
- 2 See how he loved, who travelled on, Teaching the doctrine from the skies; Who bade disease and pain be gone, And called the sleeping dead to rise. |297
- 3 See how he loved, who, firm yet mild, Patient endured the scoffing tongue! 1 On the dark wave of Galilee Though oft provoked, he ne'er reviled, Or did his greatest foe a wrong.
- 4 See how he loved, who never shrank From toil or danger, pain or death; Who all the cup of sorrow drank, And meekly yielded up his breath.
- 5 Such love can we unmoved survey? Oh, may our breasts with ardor glow, To tread his steps, his laws obey, And thus our warm affections show

296 BUTCHER. Miracles of Christ.

- 1 On eyes that never saw the day Christ pours the bright celestial ray; And deafened ears by him unbound Catch all the harmony of sound.
- 2 Lameness takes up its bed, and goes Rejoicing in the strength that flows Through every nerve; and, free from pain, Pours forth to God the grateful strain.

- The shattered mind his word restores. And tunes afresh the mental powers: The dead revive, to life return, And bid affection cease to mourn.
- 4 Canst thou, my soul, these wonders trace, And not admire Jehovah's grace? Canst thou behold thy Prophet's power, And not the God he served adore?

"That ye through his Poverty might be Rich."

- The gloom of twilight gathers fast, And o'er the waters drearily Descends the fitful evening blast.
- 2 The weary bird hath left the air, And sunk into his sheltered nest The wandering beast has sought his lair, And laid him down to welcome rest.
- 3 Still, near the lake, with weary tread, Lingers a form of human kind; And on his lone, unsheltered head, Flows the chill night-damp of the wind
- 4 Why seeks he not a home of rest? Why seeks he not a pillowed bed? Beasts have their dens, the bird its nest: He hath not where to lay his head.
- 5 Such was the lot he freely chose, To bless, to save the human race; And through his poverty there flows A rich, full stream of heavenly grace.

The Holy Guest.

HEBER.

- 1 Messiah Lord! who, wont to dwell In lowly shape and cottage cell, Didst not refuse a guest to be At Cana's poor festivity.
- 2 Oh, when our soul from care is free, Then, Saviour, would we think on thee; And, seated at the festal board, In fancy's eye behold the Lord.
- 3 Then may we seem, in fancy's ear, Thy manna-dropping tongue to hear, And think,—"If now his searching view Each secret of our spirit knew!"
- 4 So may such joy, chastised and pure, Beyond the bounds of earth endure; Nor pleasure in the wounded mind Shall leave a rankling sting behind.

MILMAN.

Christ's Entry into Jerusalem.

- 1 Ride on, ride on in majesty! Hark! all the tribes hosannas cry! Thy humble beast pursues his road, With palms and scattered garments strewed.
- 2 Ride on, ride on in majesty!
 In lowly pomp ride on to die!
 O Christ! thy triumphs now begin,
 O'er captive death and conquered sin.
- 8 Ride on, ride on in majesty! The wingéd squadrons of the sky Look down with sad and wondering eyes, To see th' approaching sacrifice.

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Thy last and fiercest strife is nigh;
The Father on his sapphire throne
Expects his own anointed Son!

MONTGOMERY, His Submission.

- 1 Lord! in thy garden agony, No light seemed on thy soul to break, No form of scraph lingered nigh,
- Nor yet the voice of comfort spake, —

 2 Till, by thy own triumphant word,
 The victory over ill was won:
- The victory over ill was won;
 Till the sweet, mournful cry was heard,
 "Thy will, O God, not mine, be done!"
- 3 Lord, bring these precious moments back, When, fainting, against sin we strain; Or in thy counsels fail to track Aught but the present grief and pain.
- 4 In weakness, help us to contend; In darkness yield to God our will; And true hearts, faithful to the end, Cheer by thy holy angels still!

301

Behold the Man!

- 1 Behold the man, how glorious he! Before his foes he stands unawed; And, without wrong or blasphemy, He claims to be the Son of God.
- 2 Behold the man! though scorned below, He bears the greatest name above; The angels at his footstool bow, And all his royal claims approve.

SHWELL.

302

Christ the Sufferer.

- 1 DARK were the paths our Master trod, Yet never failed his trust in God; Cruel and fierce the wrongs he bore, Yet he but felt for man the more.
- 2 Unto the cross in faith he went, His Father's willing instrument; Upon the cross his prayer arose In pity for his ruthless foes.
- 3 Oh, may we all his kindred be, By holy love and sympathy; Still loving man through every ill, And trusting in our Father's will!

Christ Orucified.

- 1 HAVE we no tears to shed for him, While soldiers scoff and Jews deride? Ah! look how patiently he hangs-Jesus, our love, is crucified!
- 2 What was thy crime, my dearest Lord? By earth, by heaven, thou hast been tried, And guilty found of too much love; Jesus, our love, is crucified!
- 8 Found guilty of excess of love, It was thine own sweet will that tied Thee tighter far than helpless nails; Jesus, our love, is crucified!
- 4 O break, O break, hard heart of mine! 2 Oh, voice of mercy! voice of love! Thy weak self-love and guilty pride His Pilate and his Judas were; Jesus, our love, is crucified!

5 A broken heart, a fount of tears -Ask, and they will not be denied, A broken heart love's cradle is;

Jesus, our love, is crucified!

Christ Suffering on the Cross.

- 1 "'T is finished!" So the Saviour cried, And meekly bowed his head and died; ""T is finished!" - yes, the race is run, The battle fought, the victory won.
- 2 "'T is finished!"—all that heaven foretold By prophets in the days of old; And truths are opened to our view, That kings and prophets never knew.
- "T is finished!" Son of God, thy power Hath triumphed in this awful hour; And yet our eyes with sorrow see That life to us was death to thee.
- 4 "'T is finished!" let the joyful sound Be heard through all the nations round, "'T is finished!" - let the triumph rise. And swell the chorus of the skies.

Christ our Strength.

- 1 WITH tearful eyes I look around, Life seems a dark and stormy sea: Yet, 'midst the gloom, I hear a sound, A heavenly whisper, "Come to Me."
- In conflict, grief, and agony, Support me, cheer me from above! And gently whisper, "Come to Me."

MONTGOMERY.

Example in Suffering.

1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel temptation's power;
Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with him one bitter hour:
Turn not from his griefs away;
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

2 Follow to the judgment-hall;
View the Lord of life arraigned:
Oh, the wormwood and the gall!
Oh, the pangs his soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of him to bear the cross.

- 3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
 There, admiring at his feet,
 Mark that miracle of time,
 God's own sacrifice complete:
 "It is finished," hear him cry;
 Learn of Jesus Christ to die.
- 4 Early hasten to the tomb
 Where they lay his breathless clay;
 All in solitude and gloom:
 Who has taken him away?
 Christ is risen; he meets our eyes:
 Saviour, teach us so to rise!

BULFINCE.
It is finished.

1 It is finished, — glorious word From thy lips, our suffering Lord; Word of high, triumphant might, Ere thy spirit takes its flight. It is finished: all is o'er; Pain and scorn oppress no more.

- 2 Now no more foreboding dread Shades the path thy feet must tread; No more fear lest, in thine hour, Pain should patience overpower: On the perfect sacrifice Not a stain of weakness lies.
- 3 Champion, lay thine armor by;
 "T is thine hour of victory:
 All thy toils are now o'erpast;
 Thou hast found thy rest at last;
 All hath faithfully been done,
 And the world's salvation won.

AMO

1 Many woes had Christ endured, Many sore temptations met, Patient and to pains inured; But the sorest trial yet Was to be sustained in thee, Gloomy, sad Gethsemane!

Geiksemane.

2 Came at length the dreadful night; Sinners, with an iron rod, Stood, and with collected might, Bruised the harmless Lamb of God: See, my soul, thy Saviour see Prostrate in Getbsemane!

Glorying in the Oross. 1 In the cross of Christ I glory, Towering o'er the wrecks of time; All the light of sacred story Gathers round its head sublime. When the woes of life o'ertake me, Hopes deceive, and fears annoy, Never shall the cross forsake me; Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

2 When the sun of bliss is beaming Light and love upon my way, From the cross the radiance streaming | 1 ALWAYS with us, always with us, -Adds new lustre to the day. Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, By the cross are sanctified; Peace is there that knows no measure, Joys that through all time abide.

310 LYRA CATE. At the Oross.

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing, Which before the cross I spend; Life, and health, and peace possessing From the sinner's dying Friend: Here alone I find my heaven, Humbly on the Lamb to gaze; Feel how much has been forgiven, To his own eternal praise!

Bowame. 2 Love and grief my heart dividing, Here I'll spend my latest breath; Constant still in faith abiding, Life deriving from his death. May I still enjoy this feeling, In all need, to Jesus go, Prove each day his wounds more healing, And himself more deeply know!

311 NEVEL. " I am with you alway."

Words of cheer and words of love: Thus the risen Saviour whispers, From his dwelling-place above. With us when we toil in sadness. Sowing much and reaping none; Telling us that in the future Golden harvests shall be won.

2 With us when the storm is sweeping O'er our pathway dark and drear; Waking hope within our bosoms, Stilling every anxious fear. With us in the lonely valley, When we cross the chilling stream; Lighting up the steps to glory With salvation's radiant beam.

- 4 What, though parted from our sight, Far above you starry height; Thither our affections rise, Following him beyond the skies.

314 Louisa, Electross of Brandenburg, 1653.

"I know that my Redeemer liveth."

- 1 Jesus, my Redeemer, lives, Christ, my trust, is dead no more; In the strength this knowledge gives Shall not all my fears be o'er?
- 2 Close to him my soul is bound
 In the bonds of hope enclasped;
 Faith's strong hand this hold hath found,
 And the rock hath firmly grasped.
- Jesus, my Redeemer, lives,
 And his life I soon shall see:
 Bright the hope this promise gives,
 Where he is, I, too, shall be.

MADAN.

"The Lord is my Shepherd."

- 1 SHEPHERD of the holy hills,
 We, thy lambs, with tender feet,
 Follow thee beside the rills,
 And through pastures green and sweet.
- 2 Thou dost hear us when we cry; Thou dost watch us when alone: When we faint, thou drawest nigh, Soothing us with winning tone.
- 3 Thus, through all our earthly day,—
 Be our guard and only guide;
 Keep us from the evil way;
 Keep us ever by thy side.
- 4 And, when fall the shades of night On the path we tread below, Take us to the fields of light, Where the living waters flow.

316

Resurrection of Christ.

- 1 MORNING breaks upon the tomb, Jesus dissipates its gloom; Day of triumph through the skies, See the glorious Saviour rise!
- 2 Christians, dry your flowing tears; Chase those unbelieving fears; Look on his deserted grave; Doubt no more his power to save.
- 3 Ye who are of death afraid, Triumph in the scattered shade; Drive your anxious fears away: See the place where Jesus lay!

The Way, the Truth, the Life.

1 Thou art the way;— to thee alone
From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek
Must seek him, Lord, in thee.

- 2 Thou art the truth;—thy word alone True wisdom can impart; Thou only canst instruct the mind, And purify the heart.
- 2 Thou art the life; the rending tomb Proclaims thy conquering arm; And those who put their trust in thee, Not death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the way, the truth, the life;—
 Grant us to know that way,
 That truth to keep, that life to win,
 Which leads to endless day.

The gentle Shepherd. DODDETDGE.

- SEE Israel's gentle Shepherd stand
 With all-engaging charms;
 Hark, how he calls the tender lambs,
 And folds them in his arms.
- 2 Permit them to approach, he cries, Nor scorn their humble name; For 't was to bless such souls as these The Lord of angels came.
- 3 Ye little flock, with pleasure hear; Ye children, seek his face; And fly with transport to receive The blessings of his grace.

ANOM. |319

LITCHFIELD'S COLL.

The Shepherd of the Fold.

- 1 THERE is a little lonely fold,
 Whose flock one Shepherd keeps,
 Through summer's heat and winter's cold,
 With eye that never sleeps.
- 2 By evil beast, or burning sky, Or damp of midnight air, Not one in all that flock shall die Beneath that Shepherd's care.
- 3 For if, unheeding or beguiled,
 In danger's path they roam,
 His pity follows through the wild,
 And guards them safely home.
- 4 O gentle Shepherd, still behold Thy helpless charge in me; And take a wanderer to thy fold, Who trembling turns to thee.

J. G. WHITE AND He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.

- 1 O Love! O Life! our faith and sight Thy presence maketh one:
 As, through transfigured clouds of white, We trace the noon-day sun,—
- 2 So, to our mortal eyes subdued, Flesh-veiled, but not concealed, We know in thee the fatherhood And heart of God revealed.
- 3 We faintly hear, we dimly see, In differing phrase we pray; But, dim or clear, we own in thee The Light, the Truth, the Way.

Corner-Stone.

wates. |323

Praise for his Loving-Kindness.

- Lo, what a precious Corner-Stone
 The Jewish builders did refuse!
 But God hath built his church thereon,
 And bless'd the Gentiles with the Jews.
- 2 Great God, the work is all divine,
 The joy and wonder of our eyes!
 This is the day that proves it thine,—
 The day that saw our Saviour rise.
- Sinners, rejoice, and, saints, be glad;
 Hosanna! let his name be blest;
 A thousand honors on his head,
 With peace, and light, and glory rest.
- 4 In God's own name he comes to bring Salvation to our sinful race;
 Let all on earth address their King,
 With hearts of joy and songs of praise.

322 DODDRIDGE. Knocking at the Door.

- 1 Behold a stranger at the door!
 He gently knocks— has knocked before;
 Has waited long—is waiting still;
 You treat no other friend so ill.
- 3 O lovely attitude! he stands With melting heart and loaded hands; O matchless kindness! — and he shows This matchless kindness to his foes.
- 3 Rise touched with gratitude divine,
 Turn out his enemy and thine,—
 That soul-destroying monster, sin,—
 And let the heavenly stranger in.

- 1 'AWAKE, my soul, in joyful lays, And sing the great Redeemer's praise: He justly claims a song from me— His loving-kindness, oh, how free!
- 2 He saw me dead in sin and thrall, Yet loved me, notwithstanding all; He saved me from my lost estate— His loving-kindness, oh, how great!
- 3 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud, Has gathered thick and thundered loud, He near my soul has always stood— His loving-kindness, oh, how good!
- 4 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale, Soon all my mortal powers must fail; Oh, may my last expiring breath His loving-kindness sing in death!

Example of Christ.

WATTS.

- 1 My dear Redeemer, and my Lord, I read my duty in thy word: But in thy life the law appears, Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal, Such deference to thy Father's will, Such love, and meekness so divine, I would transcribe, and make them mine.
- 3 Be thou my pattern; may I bear
 More of thy gracious image here;
 Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
 Among the followers of the Lamb.

C. Wesley.

Sun of Righteousness.

1 Christ, whose glory fills the skies, Christ, the true, the only light, Sun of Righteousness, arise, Triumph o'er the shades of night; Day-spring from on high, be near, Day-star, in my heart appear.

- 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 If thy light is hid from me;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till thy mercy's beams I see;
 Till thy inward light impart
 Warmth and gladness to my heart.
- 8 Visit, then, this soul of mine; Pierce the gloom of sin and grief; Fill me, radiant Sun divine; Scatter all my unbelief; More and more thyself display, Shining to the perfect day.

326

TOPLADY.

1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee!
Let the water and the blood,
From thy wounded side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure,

Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Rock of Ages.

Nothing in my hand I bring; Simply to thy cross I cling; Naked, come to thee for dress; Helpless, look to thee for grace; Sinful, to thy fountain fly; Wash me, Saviour, or I die!

327

Our King.

- 1 GLORY, glory to our King!
 Crowns unfading wreathe his head;
 Jesus is the name we sing—
 Jesus, risen from the dead;
 Jesus, conqueror o'er the grave;
 Jesus, mighty now to save.
- 2 Now behold him high enthroned, Glory beaming from his face, By adoring angels owned, God of holiness and grace: Oh, for hearts and tongues to sing, Glory, glory, to our King!

NEWTOR

Christ's Help in Conflicts.

1 ONCE I thought my mountain strong,
Firmly fixed, no more to move;
Then my Saviour was my song,
Then my soul was filled with love:
Those were happy, golden days,
Sweetly spent in prayer and praise.

2 Saviour! shine and cheer my soul,
Bid my dying hopes revive;
Make my wounded spirit whole;
Far away the tempter drive:
Speak the word, and set me free:
Let me live alone to thee.

Strong Son of God.

Tennyson. |331

1 STRONG Son of God, immortal Love, Whom we, that have not seen thy face, By faith, and faith alone, embrace, Believing where we cannot prove!

- 2 Thou seemest human and divine, The highest, holiest manhood, thou: Our wills are ours, we know not how, Our wills are ours, to make them thine.
- 3 Our little systems have their day;
 They have their day and cease to be;
 They are but broken lights of thee,
 And thou, O Lord, art more than they.

330 8. Strekter.

- 1 A KING shall reign in rightcousness, And all the kindred nations bless; He's King of Salem, King of peace, Nor shall his spreading kingdom cease.
- 2 In him the naked soul shall find A hiding-place from chilling wind; Or, when the raging tempests beat, A covert warm, a safe retreat.
- 3 In burning sands and thirsty ground, He like a river shall be found, Or lofty rock, beneath whose shade The weary traveller rests his head.
- 4 The dimness gone, all eyes shall see His glory, grace, and majesty; All ears shall hearken, and the word Of life receive, from Christ the Lord.

MABON.

The Image of the invisible God.

1 Thou, Lord! by mortal eyes unseen, And by thine offspring here unknown, To manifest thyself to men, Hast set thine image in thy Son.

- 2 Though Jews, who granted not his claim, Contemptuous turned away their face, Yet those who trusted in his name Beheld in him thy truth and grace.
- 3 O thou! at whose almighty word
 Fair light at first from darkness shone,
 Teach us to know our glorious Lord,
 And trace the Father in the Son.
- 4 While we, thine image there displayed,
 With love and admiration view,
 Form us in likeness to our Head,
 That we may bear thine image too.

332 AMOM.
The Lord known to All.

- 1 MARKED as the purpose of the skies, This promise meets our anxious eyes, That heathen lands the Lord shall know, And warm with faith each bosom glow.
- 2 Ev'n now the hallowed scenes appear; Ev'n now unfolds the promised year; Lo! distant shores thy heralds trace, And bear the tidings of thy grace.
- 3 When, worn by toil, their spirits fail, Bid them the glorious future hail; Bid them the crown of life survey, And onward urge their conq'ring way.

Pentecost.

- 1 No track is on the sunny sky, No footprints on the air: Jesus hath gone; the face of earth Is desolate and bare.
- 2 That Upper Room is heaven on earth; 2 Amid the splendors of his throne, Within its precincts lie All that earth has of faith, or hope, Or heaven-born charity.
- 3 He comes! He comes! that mighty breath 3 Oh, the rich depths of love divine! From the eternal shores; His uncreated freshness fills His church as it adores!
 - 4 One moment and the Spirit hung O'er all with dread desire; Then broke upon the heads of all In cloven tongues of fire.

Christ's Exaltation.

MRS. STREET.

- 1 Now with eternal glory crowned, Our Lord, the conqueror, reigns; His praise the heavenly choirs resound, In their immortal strains.
- Unchanging love appears; The names he purchased for his own Still on his heart he bears.
- Of bliss, a boundless store; Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine; I cannot wish for more.
- 4 On thee alone, my hope relies; Beneath thy cross I fall, My Lord, my Life, my Sacrifice, My Saviour, and my All.

"He ever liveth."

ANUM. |337

Christ our Example.

A. C. COXIL

- 1 I know that my Redeemer lives,-What joy the blest assurance gives! He lives, he lives, who once was dead; He lives, my everlasting Head!
- 2 He lives, to bless me with his love: He lives, to plead for me above; He lives, my hungry soul to feed; He lives, to help in time of need.
- 3 He lives, and grants me daily breath; He lives, and I shall conquer death; He lives, my mansion to prepare; He lives, to bring me safely there.
- 4 He lives, all glory to his name; He lives, my Saviour still the same; What joy the blest assurance gives,— I know that my Redeemer lives!

H, BALLOU. 338 Example in Forgiving.

- 1 TEACH us to feel as Jesus prayed, When on the cross he bleeding hung; When all his foes their wrath displayed, And with their spite his bosom stung.
- 2 Till death, he loved his foes, and said, 2 Oh, let thy sacred presence fill, "Father, forgive,"—then groaned and died; And when arisen from the dead, His mercy to their souls applied.
- 3 For such a heart and such a love, O Lord, we raise our prayer to thee; Oh, pour thy spirit from above, That we may like our Saviour be.

- How beauteous were the marks divine, That in thy meekness used to shine; That lit thy lonely pathway, trod In wondrous love, O Son of God!
- 2 Oh, who like thee, so calm, so bright, So pure, so made to live in light? Oh, who like thee, did ever go So patient through a world of woe?
- 3 Oh, who like thee, so humbly bore The scorn, the scoffs of men, before? So meek, forgiving, godlike, high, So glorious in humility?
- 4 Oh, in thy light be mine to go, Illuming all my way of woe! And give me ever on the road To trace thy footsteps, Son of God!

WHELEY.

Renouncing all for Christ.

- 1 Come, Saviour, Jesus, from above, Assist me with thy heavenly grace; Empty my heart of earthly love, And for thyself prepare the place.
- And set my longing spirit free; Which pants to have no other will, But night and day to live for thee.
- 3 Henceforth may no profane delight Divide this consecrated soul; Possess it thou, who hast the right, As Lord and Master of the whole.

The True Refuge.

- 1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
 Let me to thy bosom fly,
 While the billows near me roll,
 While the tempest still is high;
 Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
 Till the storm of life is past,
 Safe into the haven guide;
 Oh, receive my soul at last!
- 2 Other refuge have I none—
 Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
 Leave, oh! leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me;
 All my trust on thee is stayed,
 All my help from thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of thy wing.

340

Salvation by Redeeming Love.

- 1 Now begin the heavenly theme, Sing aloud in Jesus' name:
 Ye, who his salvation prove,
 Triumph in redeeming love.
 Ye, who see the Father's grace
 Beaming in the Saviour's face,
 As to Canaan on ye move,
 Praise and bless redeeming love.
- Welcome, all by sin oppressed, Welcome to his sacred rest: Nothing brought him from above, Nothing but redeeming love.

When his spirit leads us home, When we to his glory come, We shall all the fulness prove Of our Lord's redeeming love.

341

Beauty of Christ.

ANOR

1 Earth has nothing sweet or fair,
Lovely forms or beauties rare,
But before my eyes they bring,
Christ, of beauty, Source and Spring.
When the morning paints the skies,
When the golden sunbeams rise,
Then my Saviour's form I find
Brightly imaged on my mind.

342

Nearness of Christ.

- 1 Many to the Saviour's tomb,
 Hasted at the early dawn,
 Spice she brought, and sweet perfume,
 But the Lord she loved had gone.
 Trembling, while a crystal flood
 Issued from her weeping eyes,
 For a while she lingering stood,
 Filled with sorrow and surprise.
- 2 But her sorrows quickly fied When she heard his welcome voice; Christ had risen from the dead; Now he bids her heart rejoice; What a change his word can make, Turning darkness into day; Ye who weep for Jesus' sake, He will wipe your tears away.

Our High Priest.

1 With joy we meditate the grace Of our High Priest above: His heart is full of tenderness; His bosom glows with love.

- 2 Touched with a sympathy within, He knows our feeble frame; He knows what sore temptations mean, 345 For he has felt the same.
- 3 He, in the days of feeble flesh, Poured out his cries and tears, And in his measure feels afresh What every member bears.
- 4 Then let our humble faith address His mercy and his power; We shall obtain delivering grace In each distressing hour.

COWPER A Fountain opened.

1 THERE is a fountain filled with blood. Drawn from Immanuel's veins: And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, 4 O Crucified! we share thy cross; Lose all their guilty stains.

- 2 The dying thief rejoiced to see That fountain in his day; Oh, may I there, though vile as he, Wash all my sins away!
- 3 Dear, dying Lamb, thy precious blood Shall never lose its power, Till all the ransomed church of God Be saved, to sin no more.

- 4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream Thy flowing wounds supply, Redeeming love has been my theme, And shall be till I die.
- 5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song I'll sing thy power to save, When this poor lisping, stammering tongue Lies silent in the grave

Hymn to Jesus.

S. JUDD.

- 1 O Son of God! thy children we; Train us in holiness: As thou the Father's image bore, Thine own on us impress.
- 2 O Bread of God! our natures crave The lost beatitude: The Father gave thee meat unknown. Give us thy flesh and blood.
- 3 O Vine of God! of thee bereft, Our virtues wilt and die: Thou wert the Father's tender care. Shield us when danger's nigh.
- Thy passion, too, sustain; We die thy death, to live thy life: And rise with thee again.

Doxology.

To God, before whom angels bow, The God whom we adore. Be glory, as it was, is now, And shall be evermore.

Lord of All.

- 1 All hail the power of Jesus' name, Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown him Lord of all.
- 2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race, A remnant weak and small, Hail him who saves you by his grace, And crown him Lord of all.
- 3 Let every kindred, every tribe On this terrestrial ball, To him all majesty ascribe, And crown him Lord of all.
- 4 Oh, that with yonder sacred throng
 We at his feet may fall!
 We'll join the everlasting song,
 And crown him Lord of all.

348

WATT

The Redeemer's Praise.

- 1 On, for a thousand tongues, to sing My dear Redeemer's praise, The glories of my Lord and King, The triumphs of his grace!
- 2 Jesus, the name that charms our fears,
 That bids our sorrows cease,—
 Tis music in the sinner's ears,
 Tis life, and health, and peace.
- 3 He speaks, and, listening to his voice, New life the dead receive; The mournful, broken hearts rejoice, The humble poor believe.

4 Hear him, ye deaf: his praise, ye dumb, Your loosened tongues employ: Ye blind, behold your Saviour come, And leap, ye lame, for joy.

A Name above every Name.

- 1 THE head that once was crowned with Is crowned with glory now; [thorns A royal diadem adorns The mighty Victor's brow.
- 2 The highest place that heaven affords
 Is his by sovereign right;
 The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
 He reigns in glory bright.
- 3 Jesus, the joy of all above!
 The joy of all below,
 To whom he manifests his love,
 And grants his name to know.
- 4 To them the cross, with all its shame,
 With all its grace is given;
 Their name—an everlasting name,
 Their joy—the joy of heaven.
- 5 To them the cross is life and health, Though shame and death to him: His people's hope, his people's wealth, Their everlasting theme.

Looking to Jenus.

1 In humble notes our faith adores The great, mysterious King; While angels strain their nobler powers, And sweep th' immortal string.

Jesus.

- 1 THE light of love is round his feet, His paths are never dim; And he comes nigh to us when we Dare not come nigh to him.
- 2 Let us be simple with him, then, Not backward, stiff, or cold, As though our Bethlehem could be What Sinai was of old.
- 3 Poor souls that know not how to love! 2 We faintly hear, we dimly see, They feel not Jesus near; And they who know not how to love, Still less know how to fear.
- 4 They love not, for they have not kissed 3 Apart from thee all gain is loss, The Saviour's outer hem; They fear not, for the Living God Is yet unknown to them.

Love to Christ.

DODDRIDGE.

- 1 Do not I love thee, O my Lord? Behold my heart, and see, And turn each worthless idol out, That dares to rival thee.
- 2 Is not thy name melodious still To my attentive ear? Doth not each pulse with pleasure beat My Saviour's voice to hear?
- 3 Hast thou a lamb in all thy flock I would disdain to feed? Hast thou a foe before whose face I fear thy cause to plead?

4 Thou know'st I love thee, dearest Lord; But, oh, I long to soar Far from the sphere of mortal joys, And learn to love thee more.

WHITTIBE.

One Lord.

- 1 O Lord and Master of us all. Whate'er our name or sign; We own thy sway, we hear thy call, We test our lives by thine.
- In differing phrase we pray; But, dim or clear, we own in thee, The Light, the Truth, the Way!
- And labor vainly done; The solemn shadow of thy cross Is better than the sun.
- 4 Alone, O Love ineffable! Thy saving name is given; To turn aside from thee is hell, To walk with thee is heaven.

MONTGOMERY.

Blessings of Christ's Reign.

- 1 Hall to the Lord's Anointed!
 Great David's greater Son;
 Hail, in the time appointed,
 His reign on earth begun!
 He comes to break oppression,
 To set the captive free!
 To take away transgression,
 And rule in equity.
- 2 He comes, with succor speedy, To those who suffer wrong; To help the poor and needy, And bid the weak be strong; To give them songs for sighing, Their darkness turn to light, Whose souls, condemned and dying, Were precious in his sight.
- 3 O'er every foe victorious,
 He on his throne shall rest,
 From age to age more glorious,
 All blessing, and all blest.
 The tide of time shall never
 His covenant remove;
 His name shall stand forever,—
 That name to us is Love.

358
Universality of Christ's Roign.

1 Now be the gospel banner, In every land, unfurled; And be the shout,—"Hosanna!" Re-echoed through the world; Till every isle and nation,
Till every tribe and tongue,
Receive the great salvation,
And join the happy throng.

2 Yes,— thou shalt reign forever, O Jesus, King of kings! Thy light, thy love, thy favor, Each ransomed captive sings: The isles for thee are waiting, The deserts learn thy praise, The hills and valleys greeting, The song responsive raise.

359

ABOR

Fear not, little Flock.

- 1 In heavenly love abiding,
 No change my heart shall fear,
 And safe is such confiding,
 For nothing changes here:
 The storm may roar without me,
 My heart may low be laid,
 But God is round about me,
 And can I be dismayed?
- Wherever he may guide me, No want shall turn me back; My Shepherd is beside me, And nothing can I lack: His wisdom ever waketh, His sight is never dim: He knows the way he taketh, And I will walk with him.

THE GOSPEL

- Christ's Invitations.
- 1 Come, said Jesus' sacred voice, Come, and make my path your choice; I will guide you to your home: Weary pilgrim, hither come.
- 2 Thou who, houseless, sole, forlorn, Long hast borne the proud world's scorn, Long hast roamed the barren waste, — Weary pilgrim, hither haste.
- 3 Ye who, tossed on beds of pain, Seek for ease, but seek in vain; Ye, whose swollen and sleepless eyes Watch to see the morning rise;—
- 4 Ye by fiercer anguish torn, In remorse for guilt who mourn, Here repose your heavy care: Who the stings of guilt can bear?
- Sinner, come; for here is found Balm that flows for every wound, Peace that ever shall endure, Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

- Praise for the Gospel.
- 1 Songs of praise the angels sang, Heaven with hallelujahs rang, When Jehovah's work begun, When he spake, and it was done.
- 2 Songs of praise awoke the morn, When the Prince of Peace was born; Songs of praise arose, when he Captive led captivity.
- 3 Heaven and earth must pass away— Songs of praise shall crown that day: God will make new heavens and earth— Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
- 4 Saints below, with heart and voice, Still in songs of praise rejoice;
 Learning here, by faith and love,
 Songs of praise to sing above.
- 5 And shall man alone be dumb,
 Till that glorious kingdom come?
 No; the Church delights to raise
 Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

The Call of Truth.

WHITTIER.

- Oh! not alone with outward sign,
 Of fear, or voice from heaven,
 The message of a truth divine,
 The call of God, is given;
 Awakening in the human heart,
 Love for the true and right,
 Zeal for the Christian's better part,
 Strength for the Christian's fight.
- 2 Though heralded by naught of fear,
 Or outward sign or show;
 Though only to the inward ear
 It whisper soft and low;
 Though dropping as the manna fell,
 Unseen yet from above,
 Holy and gentle, heed it well,—
 The call to truth and love.

363

The Gospel.

ANON.

- O'ER mountain tops, the mount of God, In latter days, shall rise
 Above the summits of the hills, And draw the wondering eyes.
 To this the joyful nations round, All tribes and tongues, shall flow;
 "Up to the mount of God," they say, "And to his house we'll go."
- 2 The beams that shine from Zion's hill Shall lighten every land; The King who reigns in Salem's towers Shall the whole world command.

No war shall rage, nor hostile strife
Disturb those happy years;
To ploughshares men shall beat their swords,
To pruning-hooks their spears.

364

Bonar,

The Voice of Jesus.

I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's light:
Look unto me; thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus and I found
In him my Star, my Sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk
Till all my journey's done.

365

T. MOORE.

- Day of Redemption.

 1 Bur who shall see the glorious day
 When, throned on Zion's brow,
 The Lord shall rend that veil away
 Which hides the nations now?
 When earth no more beneath the fear
 Of his rebuke shall lie;
 When pain shall cease, and every tear
 Be wiped from every eye.
- 2 Then, Judah, thou no more shalt mourn Beneath the heathen's chain; Thy days of splendor shall return, And all be new again. The fount of life shall then be quaffed In peace, by all who come; And every wind that blows shall waft Some long-lost exile home.

EPIS. COLL.

The Spirit's Invitations.

1 The Spirit, in our hearts,
Is whispering, "Sinner, come:"
The bride, the church of Christ, proclaims
To all his children, "Come!"
Let him who heareth say
To all about him, "Come;"
Let him that thirsts for righteousness
To Christ, the fountain, come.

2 Yes, whosoever will, Oh, let him freely come, And freely drink the stream of life; "T is Jesus bids him come. Lo! Jesus, who invites, Declares, "I quickly come:" Lord, even so; we wait thy hour; O blest Redeemer, come!

367

Serve God always.

1 Come at the morning hour, Come, let us kneel and pray; Prayer is the Christian pilgrim's staff, To walk with God all day. At noon, beneath the Rock
Of Ages, rest and pray;
Sweet is that shelter from the sun
In weary heat of day.

2 At evening, in thy home,
Around its altar, pray;
And, finding there the house of God,
With heaven then close the day.
When midnight vails our eyes,
Oh, it is sweet to say,
I sleep, but my heart waketh, Lord!
With thee to watch and pray.

DOBULL

Now is the Day of Salvation.

1 Now is th' accepted time, Now is the day of grace; O sinners! come, without delay, And seek the Saviour's face. Now is th' accepted time, The Saviour calls to-day; To-morrow it may be too late;— Then why should you delay?

S. STREETER. Blessings of the Gospel.

1 What glorious tidings do I hear From my Redeemer's tongue! I can no longer silence bear; I'll burst into a song:

- ? The blind receive their sight with joy; 2 Pleased with the news, the saints below The lame can walk abroad; The dumb their loosened tongues employ; The deaf can hear the word.
- 3 The dead are raised to life anew By renovating grace; The glorious gospel's preached to you, The poor of Adam's race.
- 4 O wondrous type of things divine, When Christ displays his love, To raise from woe the sinking mind, To reign in realms above!

WATTS. Salvation.

1 SALVATION! oh, the joyful sound! 'T is pleasure to our ears; A sovereign balm for every wound, A cordial for our fears.

- 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin, At death's dark door we lay; But we arise by grace divine, To see a heavenly day.
- 3 Salvation! let the echo fly The spacious earth around, While all the armies of the sky Conspire to raise the sound.

NEEDHAM. Joy over one Sinner that repenteth.

- 1 Он, how divine, how sweet the joy, When but one sinner turns, And, with an humble, broken heart, His sins and errors mourns.
- In songs their tongues employ; Beyond the skies the tidings go, And heaven is filled with joy.
- 3 Nor angels can their joys contain, But kindle with new fire; "The sinner lost is found," they sing, And strike the sounding lyre.

MEDLEY.

The Living Water. 1 OH! what amazing words of grace

Are in the gospel found. Suited to every sinner's case Who hears the joyful sound!

- 2 Come, then, with all your wants and Your every burden bring; [wounds, Here love, unchanging love, abounds,— A deep, celestial spring.
- 3 This spring with living water flows, And heavenly joy imparts; Come, thirsty souls! your wants disclose, And drink, with thankful hearts.
- 4 Millions of sinners, vile as you, Have here found life and peace; Come then, and prove its virtues too, And drink, adore, and bless.

Gospel Invitations.

- 1 Come hither, all ye weary souls,
 Ye heavy-laden sinners, come!
 I'll give you rest from all your toils,
 And raise you to my heavenly home.
- 2 "They shall find rest that learn of me; I'm of a meek and lowly mind; But passion rages like the sea, And pride is restless as the wind.
- 3 "Blest is the man whose shoulders take My yoke, and bear it with delight; My yoke is easy to his neck, My grace shall make the burden light."
- 4 Jesus, we come at thy command;
 With faith, and hope, and humble zeal,
 Resign our spirits to thy hand,
 To mould and guide us at thy will.

374

Influence of the Gospel like Rain.

- 1 As showers on meadows newly mown, Jesus shall shed his blessings down; Crowned with whose life-infusing drops, Earth shall renew her blissful crops.
- 2 The dews and rains, in all their store, Drenching the pastures o'er and o'er, Are not so copious as that grace Which sanctifies and saves our race.
- As, in soft silence, vernal showers Descend, and cheer the fainting flowers, So, in the secrecy of love, Falls the sweet influence from above.

- 4 That heavenly influence let me find In holy silence of the mind, While every grace maintains its bloom, Diffusing wide its rich perfume.
 - 5 Nor let these blessings be confined To me, but poured on all mankind, Till earth's wild wastes in verdure rise, And a young Eden bless our eyes.

375

Whittier.

Christianity.

- 1 O FAIREST born of love and light, Yet bending brow and eye severe On all which pains the holy sight, Or wounds the pure and perfect ear,—
- 2 The generous feeling, pure and warm, Which owns the rights of all divine, The pitying heart, the helping arms, The prompt self-sacrifice, are thine.
- 3 Beneath thy broad, impartial eye,
 How fade the lines of caste and birth!
 How equal in their sufferings lie
 The groaning multitudes of earth!
- 4 In holy words which cannot die,
 In thoughts which angels leaned to know,
 Christ gave thy message from on high,
 Thy mission to a world of woe.
- 5 That voice's echo hath not died;
 From the blue lake of Galilee,
 From Tabor's lonely mountain side,
 It calls a struggling world to thee.

The Gospel of Peace. A. C. THOMAS.

1 Joy to the earth! the Prince of Peace His banner has unfurled;

Let strife, and sin, and error cease, And joy pervade the world!

- 2 Praise ye the Lord! for truth and grace His word and life display; Let every soul his love embrace, And own its gentle sway.
- 8 Peace on the earth, good-will to men, Embrace the gospel plan; Let that sweet strain be heard again, Which angel tones began.
- 4 Joy to the isles and lands afar! Messiah reigns above; Let every eye behold the star,— The star of light and love.

The Gospel Trumpet.

- 1 LET every mortal ear attend,
 And every heart rejoice;
 The trumpet of the gospel sounds,
 With an inviting voice.
- Ho! all ye hungry, starving souls,
 Who feed upon the wind,
 And vainly strive with earthly toys
 To fill th' immortal mind —
- Eternal wisdom has prepared
 A soul-reviving feast;

 And bids your longing appetites
 The rich provision taste.

4 Ho! ye that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die;

Here you may quench your raging thirst With streams that never dry.

5 The happy gates of gospel grace, Stand open night and day; Lord, we are come to seek supplies, And drive our wants away.

WATTS.

Joy to the World.

- 1 Joy to the world the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King; Let every heart prepare him room, And heaven and nature sing.
- 2 Joy to the earth the Saviour reigns!
 Let men their songs employ;

 While fields, and floods, rocks, hills, and plains,
 Repeat the sounding joy.
- 3 No more let sins and sorrows grow, Nor thorns infest the ground; He comes to make his blessings flow Far as the curse is found.
- 4 He rules the world with truth and grace
 And makes the nations prove
 The glories of his righteousness,
 And wonders of his love.

DODDRIDGE

Christ coming in Power.

1 HARK, the glad sound! the Saviour The Saviour promised long; [comes, Let every heart prepare a throne, And every voice a song.

(In singing hymns 380, 381, and 382, repeat last two lines of each verse.)

380

Mercy's Plea.

1 Hear the heralds of the gospel
News from Zion's King proclaim:"To each rebel sinner pardon;
Free forgiveness in his name:"
Oh, what mercy!
"Free forgiveness in his name."

2 Sinners, will you scorn the message Sent in mercy from above; Every sentence, oh, how tender! Every line is full of love: Listen to it; Every line is full of love.

3 Tempted souls, they bring you succor;
Fearful hearts, they quell your fears;
And with news of consolation
Chase away the falling tears.
Tender heralds—
Chase away the falling tears.

4 O ye angels, hovering round us,
Waiting spirits, speed your way;
Hasten to the court of heaven,
Tidings bear without delay;
Waiting children
Glad the message will obey.

381

Truth spreading.

1 Look, ye saints! the day is breaking; Joyful times are near at hand; God, the mighty God, is speaking By his word in every land:
Day advances —
Darkness flies at his command.

2 God of Jacob, high and glorious!
Let thy people see thy power;
Let the gospel be victorious
Through the world for evermore:
Then shall idols
Perish, while thy saints adore.

382

P. WILLIAMS.

Prayer for the Spread of the Gospel.

1 O'ER the gloomy hills of darkness,
Cheered by no celestial ray,
Sun of righteousness! arising,
Bring the bright, the glorious day;
Send the gospel
To the earth's remotest bound.

2 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness—Grant them, Lord! the glorious light; And, from eastern coast to western, May the morning chase the night: And redemption, Freely purchased, win the day.

3 Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel!
Win and conquer, never cease;
May thy lasting, wide dominions,
Multiply and still increase;
Sway thy sceptre,
Saviour! all the world around.

Power of the Gospel.

- 1 Behold, the morning sun
 Begins his glorious way;
 His beams through all the nations run,
 And life and light convey.
- 2 But where the gospel comes, It spreads diviner light; It calls dead sinners from their tombs, And gives the blind their sight.
- 3 How perfect is thy word!
 And all thy judgments just!
 Forever sure thy promise, Lord,
 And we securely trust.

384

The Kingdom of God.

- 1 Come, kingdom of our God, Sweet reign of light and love! Shed peace, and hope, and joy abroad, And wisdom from above.
- 2 Over our spirits first Extend thy healing reign; There raise and quench the sacred thirst, That never pains again.
- 8 Come, kingdom of our God! And make the broad earth thine; Stretch o'er her lands and isles the rod That flowers with grace divine.
- 4 Soon may all tribes be blest
 With fruit from life's glad tree;
 And in its shade like brothers rest,
 Sons of one family.

The Gospel for All.

C. WESLEY.

- 1 LORD! send thy servants forth
 To call the Hebrews home;
 From east, and west, and south, and north,
 Let all the wanderers come.
- 2 Where'er, in lands unknown, The fugitives remain, Bid every creature help them on, Thy holy mount to gain.
- 3 With Israel's myriads sealed, Let all the nations meet; And show the mystery fulfilled — Thy family complete.

H. BALLOU

1 In God's eternity
 There shall a day arise,
 When all the race of man shall be
 With Jesus in the skies.

Universal Redemption.

- 2 As night before the rays
 Of morning flees away,
 Sin shall retire before the blaze
 Of God's eternal day.
- 3 As music fills the grove
 When stormy clouds are past,
 Sweet anthems of redeeming love
 Shall all employ at last.
- 4 Redeemed from death and sin, Shall Adam's numerous race A ceaseless song of praise begin, And shout redeeming grace.

387
Universal Reign of Christ.

1 Great God, whose universal sway
The known and unknown worlds obey;
Now give the kingdom to thy Son;
Extend his power, exalt his throne.

- 2 The heathen lands, that lie beneath The shades of overspreading death, Revive at his first dawning light, And deserts blossom at the sight.
- 3 The saints shall flourish in his days, Dressed in the robes of joy and praise; Peace, like a river, from his throne Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

388

BOWRING.

Progress of Gospel Truth.

- 1 Upon the gospel's sacred page The gathered beams of ages shine: And, as it hastens, every age But makes its brightness more divine.
- 2 Truth, strengthened by the strength of thought, Pours inexhaustible supplies, Whence sagest teachers may be taught, And wisdom's self become more wise.
- 3 More glorious still as centurics roll, New regions blest, new powers unfurled, Expanding with the expanding soul, Its waters shall o'erflow the world;
- As when the cloudless lamp of day Pours out its floods of light and joy,
 And sweeps each lingering mist away.

WATTS.

PRATT'S COLL.

Israel returning from Captivity.

- 1 WHY, on the bending willows hung, O Israel, sleeps thy tuneful string?— Still mute remains thy sullen tongue, And Zion's song declines to sing?
- 2 Awake! thy sweetest raptures raise; Let harp and voice unite their strains: Thy promised King his sceptre sways; And Jesus, thy Messiah, reigns.
- 3 No taunting foes the song require; No strangers mock thy captive chain, But friends invite the silent lyre, And brethren ask the holy strain.
- 4 Nor fear thy Salem's hills to wrong, If other lands thy triumph share: A heavenly city claims thy song; A brighter Salem rises there.

390

Christ a Conqueror.

- 1 ETERNAL Father! thou hast said, That Christ all glory shall obtain; That he who once a sufferer bled, Shall o'er the world, a conqueror, reign.
- We wait thy triumph, Saviour-King! Long ages have prepared thy way; Now all abroad thy banner fling, Set Time's great battle in array.
- 3 Thy hosts are mustered to the field; "The Cross! the Cross!" the battle-call; The old grim towers of darkness yield, And soon shall totter to their fall.

S. F. SMITH.

The Light of the Gospel.

- The morning light is breaking,
 The darkness disappears;
 The sons of earth are waking
 To penitential tears:
 Lach breeze that sweeps the ocean
 Brings tidings from afar
 Of nations in commotion,
 Prepared for Zion's war.
- 2 Rich dews of grace come o'er us
 In many a gentle shower,
 And brighter scenes before us
 Are opening every hour:
 Each cry to heaven going,
 Abundant answer brings,
 And heavenly gales are blowing,
 With peace upon their wings.
- 3 See heathen nations bending
 Before the God we love,
 And thousand hearts ascending
 In gratitude above;
 While sinners, now confessing,
 The gospel call obey,
 And seek the Saviour's blessing,—
 A nation in a day.
- 4 Blest river of salvation;
 Pursue thy onward way;
 Flow thou to every nation,
 Nor in thy richness stay;

Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home,
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

392

The Salvation of Israel.

1 On, that the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home!
Let Israel, home returning,
Her lost Messiah see;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
And bind thy church to thee.

393

Peace Triumphant.

LYTE.

- 1 THE morn of peace is beaming —
 Its glory will appear;
 Behold its early gleaming,
 The day is drawing near;
 The spear shall then be broken,
 And sheathed the glittering sword —
 The olive be the token,
 And Peace the greeting word.
- 2 Yes, yes, the day is breaking! Far brighter joys that beam! The nations round are waking, As from a midnight dream: They see it radiance shedding, Where all was dark as night; 'T is higher, wider spreading — A boundless flood of light.

DUFFIELD.

Stand, therefore, having your Loins girt about.

- 1 STAND up! stand up for Jesus!
 Ye soldiers of the cross;
 Lift high his royal banner,
 It must not suffer loss:
 From viet'ry unto viet'ry
 His army shall he lead,
 Till every foe is vanquished,
 And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up! stand up for Jesus! The trumpet call obey; Forth to the mighty conflict, In this his glorious day: "Ye that are men, now serve him," Against unnumbered foes; Your courage rise with danger, And strength to strength oppose.
- 8 Stand up! stand up for Jesus! Stand in his strength alone; The arm of flesh will fail you — Ye dare not trust your own: Put on the gospel armor, And, watching unto prayer, Where duty calls, or danger, Be never wanting there.
- 4 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
 The strife will not be long;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song:

To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally!

395

HERER

Missionary Hymn.

- 1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
 From India's coral strand,
 Where Afric's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand;
 From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.
- 2 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,
 Shall we to men benighted
 The lamp of life deny?
 Salvation, O salvation!
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till earth's remotest nation
 Has learned Messiah's name.
- 3 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till, like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole;
 Till o'er our ransomed nature
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, Renovator,
 In bliss returns to reign.

396 Hastings. The Christian Reformer encouraged.

- 1 He that goeth forth with weeping, Bearing still the precious seed, Never tiring, never sleeping, Soon shall see his toil succeed: Showers of rain will fall from heaven, Then the cheering sun shall shine, So shall plenteous fruit be given, Through an influence all divine.
- 2 Sow thy seed, be never weary, Let not fear thy mind employ; Though the prospect be most dreary, Thou may'st reap the fruits of joy: Lo! the scene of verdure bright'ning, See the rising grain appear; Look again! the fields are whit'ning, Harvest-time is surely near.

COWPER.

The Kingdom of Heaven.

- 1 HEAR what God, the Lord, hath spoken; O my people, faint and few, Comfortless, afflicted, broken, Fair abodes I build for you; Scenes of heartfelt tribulation Shall no more perplex your ways; You shall name your walls salvation, And your gates shall all be praise.
- 2 There, in undisturbed possession, Peace and righteousness shall reign; Never shall you feel oppression, Never hear of war again;

God shall rise, and, shining o'er you, Change to day the gloom of night; He, the Lord, shall be your glory, God your everlasting light.

398 HOPEDALE COLL Reign of Christian Peace.

- 1 YEARS are coming speed them onward! When the sword shall gather rust, And the helmet, lance, and falchion, Sleep at last in silent dust! Earth has heard too long of battle, Heard the trumpet's voice too long! But another age advances, Seers foretold in ancient song.
- 2 Years are coming when, forever, War's dread banner shall be furled, And the angel Peace be welcomed, Regent of the happy world. Hail with song that glorious era, When the sword shall gather rust, And the helmet, lance, and falchion, Sleep at last in silent dust.

Christian Effort.

1 'MID these scenes of self-denial, We are called the race to run; We must meet full many a trial Ere the victor's crown is won. Love shall every conflict lighten; Hone shall urge us swifter on; Faith shall every prospect brighten, Till the morn of heaven shall dawn

The Universal Fold.

- 1 Willist far and wide thy scattered sheep, Great Shepherd, in the desert stray, Thy love, by some, is thought to sleep, 4()2 Unmindful of the wanderer's way.
- 2 But truth declares, they shall be found, 1 Jesus shall reign where'er the sun Wherever now they darkling roam: Thy voice shall through the desert sound, And summon every wanderer home.
- 3 Upon the darkened paths of sin, Instead of terror's sword of flame, Shall love descend,—for love can win Far more than terror can reclaim.
- 4 And they shall turn their wandering feet, By grace redeemed, by love controlled, Till all at last in Eden meet, One happy, universal fold.

401

Gospel Freedom Universal.

- 1 We long to see that happy time, That long-expected, blissful day, When men of every name and clime The glorious gospel shall obey.
- 2 The word of God shall firm abide, Though earth and hell should dare oppose; The stone cut from the mountain's side, To universal empire grows.
- 3 Afric's emancipated sons Shall shout to Asia's rapturous song, Europe, with her unnumbered tongues, And western climes the strain prolong.

From east to west, from north to south, Immanuel's kingdom shall extend; And every man, in every face, Shall meet a brother and a friend.

Universal Blessings of Christ's Reign.

- Does his successive journeys run; His kingdom stretch from shore to shore. Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- Blessings abound where'er he reigns; The prisoner leaps to loose his chains; The weary find eternal rest, And all the sons of want are blest.
- 3 Let every creature rise and bring Peculiar honors to their king; Angels descend with songs again, And earth repeat the long Amen.

ANON. 403

Prayer for Christ's Triumph.

ANOR

- 1 Soon may the last glad song arise Through all the millions of the skies, -That song of triumph which records That all the earth is now the Lord's!
- 2 Let thrones and powers and kingdoms be Obedient, mighty Lord, to thee! And over land, and stream and main, Wave thou the sceptre of thy reign!
- 3 Oh, let that glorious anthem swell, Let host to host the triumph tell That not one rebel heart remains, But over all the Saviour reigns!

BROWN. C. M.

404

The Empire of Christ.

- 1 Jesus his empire shall extend; Beneath his gentle sway Kings of the earth shall humbly bend, And his commands obey.
- 2 As clouds descend in gentle showers, When spring renews her reign; And call to life the fragrant flowers O'er forest, hill, and plain; —
- 3 So Jesus, by his heavenly grace, Descends on man below, And o'er the millions of our race His gentle blessings flow.
- 4 Long as the sun shall rule the day, Or moon shall cheer the night, The Saviour shall his sceptre sway With unresisted might.
- 5 All that the reign of sin destroyed, The Saviour shall restore; And, from the treasures of the Lord, Shall give us blessings more.

405 MILTON. The Kingdom of God on Earth.

- 1 THE Lord will come, and not be slow; His footsteps cannot err; Before him righteousness shall go, His royal harbinger.
- 2 Mercy and Truth, that long were missed, 4 He lives; his presence hath not ceased. Now joyfully are met; [kissed, Sweet Peace and Righteousness have And hand in hand are set.

- H. BALLOU. 3 The nations all whom thou hast made Shall come, and all shall frame To bow them low before thee, Lord, And glorify thy name.
 - 4 Truth from the earth, like to a flower, Shall bud and blossom then, And justice, from her heavenly bower, Look down on mortal men.
 - 5 Thee will I praise, O Lord, my God, Thee honor and adore With my whole heart, and blaze abroad Thy name for evermore.

406

NOVALIS

The World restored in Christ,

- 1 WE say to all men far and near That Christ has risen again; That he is with us now and here. And ever shall remain.
- 2 The way of darkness that he trod To heaven at last shall come, And he who hearkens to his word. Shall reach his Father's home.
- 3 Now let the mourner grieve no more, Though his belovéd sleep,
 - A happier meeting shall restore Their light to eyes that weep.
- Though foes and fears be rife; And thus we hall the gospel feast A world renewed to life!

Encouraging Prospects.

1 Yes, we trust the day is breaking, Joyful times are near at hand; God, the mighty God, is speaking, By his word, in every land: When he chooses,

Darkness flies at his command.

While the foe becomes more daring, While he enters like a flood, God, the Saviour, is preparing Means to spread his truth abroad: Every language Soon shall tell the love of God.

8 God of Jacob, high and glorious,
Let thy people see thy hand;
Let the gospel be victorious
Through the world, in every land:
Then shall idols
Perish, Icrd, at thy command.

408

Surely I come quickly.

1 O'ER the distant mountains breaking,
Comes the reddening dawn of day;
Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking,
Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray:
"T is thy Saviour,
On his bright returning way.

Heaven and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

In the furnace God may prove thee,
There to bring thee forth more brigh

2 O thou long-expected! weary Waits my anxious soul for thee: Life is dark and earth is dreary, Where thy light I do not see:
O my Saviour!
When wilt thou return to me?

3 Nearer is my soul's salvation;
Spent the night, the day at hand:
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for thee till I stand,
O my Saviour!
In thy bright and promised land.

409

God's Love for Zion.

1 Zion stands with hills surrounded — Zion, kept by power divine; All her foes shall be confounded, 'Though the world in arms combine; Happy Zion, What a favored lot is thine!

2 Every human tie may perish;
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish;
Heaven and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in his sight:
God is with thee—
God, thine everlasting light.

LAMARTINE. The Victory of Christ.

1 Thou dost come, all-healing Lord, Thou dost speak, and, lo! thy word Maketh truth o'er falschood strong, Maketh right prevail o'cr wrong. Immortality forth breaks, Time's best brightness to outglow! And sweet hope yet briefer makes

Our brief exile here below.

2 Love celestial maketh light, Lifteth up each burden here; Lo! the eternal age dawns bright; No remorse need be despair. Deeper worth the just soul hath; Virtue lowlier, loftier grows; Children know thy humble faith; Wisdom naught more glorious knows.

411

MONTGOMERY.

Christ's Triumph.

1 HARK! the song of jubilee, Loud as mighty thunders roar, Or the fulness of the sea, When it breaks upon the shore;— Hallelujah to the Lord! God omnipotent shall reign; Hallelujah! let the word Echo round the earth and nigin.

2 Hallelujah! — hark! the sound, Heard through earth, and through the skies, Wakes above, beneath, around, All creation's harmonies:

See Jehovah's banner furled, Sheathed his sword; he speaks,—'t is done! And the kingdoms of this world Are the kingdoms of his Son.

BAHNMAIER. Diffusion of the Gospel.

1 Spread, oh, spread, thou mighty word, Spread the kingdom of the Lord, Wheresoe'er his breath has given Life to beings meant for heaven. Tell them of the spirit given Now, to guide us up to heaven, Strong and holy, just and true, Working both to will and do.

2 Word of life, most pure and strong, Lo! for thee the nations long; Spread, till from its dreary night All the world awakes to light. Lord of all men, let there be Joy and strength to work for thee; Let the nations far and near See thy light, and learn thy fear.

ASHWORTH Progress of the Gospel.

4 The seas shall waste, the skies in smoke | 1 Pour, blesséd gospel, glorious news for

Thy stream of life o'er springless deserts roll;

Thy bond of peace the mighty earth can span,

And make one brotherhood from pole to pole.

On, piercing gospel, on: of every heart, In every latitude, thou own'st the key; From their dull slumbers savage souls shall start,

With all their treasures first unlocked by thee.

417 H. BALLOU. Blessings of Christ's Universal Reign.

- 1 When God descends with men to dwell, And all creation makes anew, What tongue can half the wonders tell? What eye the dazzling glories view?
- 2 Celestial streams shall gently flow; The wilderness shall joyful be; Lilies on parchéd ground shall grow; And gladness spring on every tree;
- 3 The weak be strong, the fearful bold, The deaf shall hear, the dumb shall sing, The lame shall walk, the blind behold, And joy through all the earth shall ring.
- 4 Monarchs and slaves shall meet in love; 3 That not a worm is cloven in vain; Old pride shall die, and meekness reign,-When God descends from worlds above, To dwell with men on earth again.

418 RICHARDS The Cloud and Pillar of Fire.

- 1 Long as the darkening cloud abode, So long did ancient Israel rest; Nor moved they, till the guiding Lord In brighter garments stood confest.
- 2 Father of spirits, Light of light, Lift up the cloud, and rend the veil: Shine forth in fire, amid that night, Whose blackness makes the heart to fail
- His death has rent the veil away, Our great forerunner entered heaven, And oped the gates of endless day.

4 Adoring nations hail the dawn. All kingdoms bless the noontide beam, And light, unfolding life's full morn, Is vast creation's deathless theme.

419 Good the final Goal of Ill.

- 1 OH, yet, we trust that somehow good Will be the final goal of ill, To pange of nature, sine of will, Defects of doubt, and taints of blood;
- 2 That nothing walks with aimless feet, That not one life shall be destroyed. Or cast as rubbish to the void, When God hath made the pile complete.
- That not a moth with vain desire Is shrivelled in a fruitless fire, Or but subserves another's gain.
- 4 Behold, we know not anything; We can but trust that good shall fall At last — far off — at last, to all, And every winter change to spring.

JOHN STERLING. Thou, God, will hear.

- 1 STILL prayers are strong, and God is good; Man is not made for endless ill; Dear spirit! my soul's tormented mood Has yet a hope thou canst not kill.
- 8 'T is done! to Christ the power is given; 2 Thou, God, wilt hear! thy pangs are meant To heal the spirit, not destroy; And what may seem for vengeance sent, When thou commandest, works for joy.

MEDLEY.

Excellency of Christ.

10H, could we speak the matchless worth,
Oh, could we sound the glories forth,
Which in our Saviour shine,
We'd soar, and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel, while he sings,
In notes almost divine.

- 2 We'd sing the characters he bears, And all the forms of love he wears, Exalted on his throne: In loftiest songs of sweetest praise, We would, to everlasting days, Make all his glories known.
- Well, the delightful days will come, When our dear Lord will bring us home, And we shall see his face: Then, with our Saviour, brother, friend, A blest eternity we'll spend, Triumphant in his grace.

M. RAYNER.

Roign of Christ.

1 THE radiant dawn of gospel light, The prophet saw in vision bright, And hailed th' auspicious day,
When Christ should all his grace disclose
And cure the world of all its woes,
By truth's triumphant sway.

- 2 The blind their eyes shall open wide;
 To drink the light's e'erflowing tide,
 The deaf sweet music hear;
 The lame like bounding hart shall leap;
 The dumb no longer silence keep,
 But shout Redemption near.
- 3 And there shall be a holy way,
 In which the simple shall not stray,—
 The path so plain and bright.
 Wayfaring men therein shall walk,
 And of their home and kindred talk,
 With rapture and delight.

423

ROSCOR

The Saviour's Mission.

1 OH, let your mingling voices rise
In grateful rapture to the skies,
And hail a Saviour's birth:
Let songs of joy the day proclaim,
When Jesus all-triumphant came
To bless the sons of earth!

NORTHFIELD. C.M.

424

Prospect of Universal Blessedness.

- Lo! what a glorious sight appears
 To our believing eyes!
 The earth and seas are passed away,
 And the old rolling skies.
- 2 From the third heaven, where God resides, That holy, happy place, The new Jerusalem comes down, Adorned with shining grace.
- 3 Attending angels shout for joy,
 And the bright armies sing,—
 "Mortals! behold the sacred seat
 Of your descending King:—
- 4 "The God of glory down to men Removes his blessed abode;
 Men, the dear objects of his grace,
 And he, the loving God.
- 5 "His own soft hand shall wipe the tears From every weeping eye; And pains and groans, and griefs and fears, And death itself shall die."
- 6 How long, dear Saviour, oh. how long Shall this bright hour delay? Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time, And bring the welcome day.

425

God for us.

1 O Gop! our God! thou shinest here, Thine own this latter day; To us thy radiant steps appear; Here beams thy glorious way!

- 2 The fathers had not all of thee! New births are in thy grace; All open to our souls shall be 'Thy glory's hiding-place.
- 3 On us thy Spirit hast thou poured, To us thy Word has come; We feel, we bless thee, quickening Lord, Thou shalt not find us dumb.
- 4 Thou comest near; thou standest by; Our work begins to shine; Thou dwellest with us mightily; On speed the years divine!

426

LOGAN.

Latter-Day Glory.

- 1 In latter days the mount of God O'er mountain tops shall rise; Shall be exalted o'er the hills, And draw the wondering eyes.
- 2 The beams that shine on Zion's hill
 Shall lighten every land;
 The King who reigns in Zion's towers
 Shall all the world command.
- 3 The nations, by his justice blest,
 Shall give their battles o'er; [swords,
 To ploughshares they shall beat their
 And learn to war no more.
- 4 Come, then,—oh, come from every land,
 To worship at his shrine;
 And, walking in the light of God,
 With holy beauty shine.

The Call to Victory.

COLLYDS.

- 1 Thou, whose wide extended sway Suns and systems e'er obey! Thou, our Guardian and our stay, Evermore adored: In prospective, Lord, we see Jew and Gentile, bond and free, Reconciled in Christ to thee, Holy, Holy Lord.
- 2 Thou by all shalt be confessed, Ever blessing, ever blest, When to thy eternal rest, In the courts above, Thou shalt bring the sore oppressed; Fill each joy-desiring breast; Make of each a welcome guest, At the feast of love.
- 3 When destroying death shall die, Hushed be every rising sigh, Tears be wiped from every eye, Never more to fall; Then shall praises fill the sky, And angelic hosts shall cry, Holy, Holy Lord, Most High, Thou art All in All!

- 1 Saints, for whom the Saviour bled, In your Captain's footsteps tread; Follow Jesus, and be led On to victory! See your formen take the ground; While the signal trumpets sound Hear his accents pour around, Cheering melody!
- Christian soldier, on with me! Soon the enemies must flee; Your reward before you see Sparkling from on high! Boldly take the glorious field; You may fall — but must not yield; You shall write upon your shield Vict'ry, though you die!
- 3 By the ransom which he gave, By his triumph o'er the grave, Trust his mighty power to save; Firm and faithful be: And when death's dark hour is nigh, When the tear-drop dims the eye, You shall, in the parting sigh, Grasp the victory.

The Ministry of Suffering. 1 O LIFE, O death, O world, O time, O grave, where all things flow, 'T is yours to make our lot sublime, With your great weight of woe!

2 Though sharpest anguish hearts may wring, Though bosoms torn may be, Yet suffering is a holy thing; Without it, what were we?

TOPLADY.

Sweetness of Submission.

1 When languor and disease invade This trembling house of clay, "T is sweet to look by faith abroad, And long to fly away;

- 2 Sweet to look inward and attend The whispers of his love; Sweet to look upward to the place Where Jesus lives above.
- 8 Sweet on his faithfulness to rest, Whose love can never end; Sweet on his covenant of grace For all things to depend;

R. C. TRENCH. 4 Sweet, in the confidence of faith. To trust his firm decrees; Sweet to lie passive in his hands, And know no will but his.

WATTE

Human Frailty.

- 1 Teach me the measure of my days. Thou Maker of my frame! I would survey life's narrow space, And learn how frail I am.
- 2 A span is all that we can boast,— An inch or two of time; Man is but vanity and dust, In all his flower and prime.
- 3 Some walk in honor's gaudy show; Some dig for golden ore; They toil for heirs, they know not who, And straight are seen no more.
- 4 What should I wish or wait for, then, From creatures, earth, and dust? They make our expectations vain, And disappoint our trust.

WEBER.

COWPER. 434

432

Trial Profitable.

NEWTOE.

- l'T' is my happiness below, Not to live without the cross But the Saviour's power to know, Sanctifying every loss.
- 2 Trials must and will befall; But with humble faith to see Love inscribed upon them all, This is happiness to me.
- 3 Trials make the promise sweet
 Trials give new life to prayer;
 Bring me to my Father's feet,
 Lay me low, and keep me there.

433

J. TATLOR. Confession of Sin.

- 1 God of mercy, God of grace,
 Hear our sad, repentant songs;
 Oh, restore thy suppliant race,
 Thou, to whom our praise belongs.
- 2 Deep regret for follies past, Talents wasted, time misspent; Hearts debased by worldly cares, Thankless for the blessings lent; -
- Foolish fears, and fond desires, Vain regrets for things as vain, Lips too seldom taught to praise, Oft to murmur and complain; —
- 4 These, and every secret fault,
 Filled with grief and shame we own;
 Humbled at thy feet we lie,
 Seeking pardon from thy throne.

1 'T is a point I long to know,— Oft it causes anxious thought,— Do I love the Lord or no? Am I his, or am I not?

Self-Distrust.

- 2 If I love, why am I thus? Why this dull and lifeless frame? Hardly, sure, can they be worse, Who have never heard his name.
- 3 If I pray, or hear, or read, Sin is mixed with all I do; You that love the Lord, indeed, Tell me, is it thus with you?
- 4 Yet I mourn my stubborn will, Find my sin a grief and thrall; Should I grieve for what I feel, If I did not love at all?

435

C. WESLET

The Simplicity of Christ.

- 1 LORD! that I may learn of thee, Give me true simplicity; Wean my soul, and keep it low, Willing thee alone to know.
- 2 Of my boasted wisdom spoiled, Docile, helpless as a child; Only seeing in thy light, Only walking in thy might.
- 3 Then infuse the living grace, Truthful soul of righteousness; Knowledge, love divine, impart,— Life eternal to my heart.

True Penilence.

- 1 O SINNER, bring not tears alone, Or outward form of prayer, But let it in thy heart be known That penitence is there.
- 2 To smite the breast, the clothes to rend, 1 Times without number have I prayed, God asketh not of thee; Thy secret soul he bids thee bend In true humility.
- 3 Oh, let us, then, with heartfelt grief, Draw near unto our God; And pray to him to grant relief, And stay the lifted rod.
- 4 O righteous One! if thou wilt deign To grant us what we need, We pray for time to turn again, And grace to turn indeed.

437 LUTHER. Out of the Depths have I called unto Thee.

- 1 Our of the depths I cry to thee, Lord God! oh, hear my prayer, Incline a gracious ear to me, And bid me not despair.
- 2 My hope is ever in the Lord, My works I count but dust, I build not there, but on thy word, And in thy goodness trust.
- 8 Though thou should'st tarry till the night, And round again to morn, My heart shall ne'er mistrust thy might, Nor count itself forlorm.

4 Though great our sins and sore our wounds, And deep and dark our fall, Thy helping mercy hath no bounds; Thy love surpasseth all.

438

C. WESLEY Vain Repentance.

- "This only once forgive;" Relapsing when thy hand was staved. And suffered me to live.
- 2 Yet now the kingdom of thy peace, Lord, to my heart restore; Forgive my vain repentances, And bid me sin no more.

439

AMON.

Prayer for Forgiveness.

- 1 Now let our prayers ascend to thee, Thou great and holy One; Above the world raise thou our hearts, In us thy will be done.
- 2 Oh, let us feel how frail we are, How much we need thy grace! Oh, strengthen, Lord, our fainting souls. While here we seek thy face!
- 3 Our sins, alas! before thee rise; Thou knowest all our guilt: Let not our faith, our hope, our trust, On earthly things be built.
- 4 Forgive our sins, thy Spirit grant, Let love our souls refine, And heavenly peace and holy hope Assure that we are thine.

Lo! I come.

- 1 Just as I am, without one plea But that thy blood was shed for me, And that thou bidd'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come!
- 2 Just as I am, though tossed about With many a conflict, many a doubt, Fightings and fears within, without, O Lamb of God, I come!
- 3 Just as I am, thou wilt receive, Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve! Because thy promise I believe, O Lamb of God, I come!
- 4 Just as I am,—thy love unknown Hath broken every barrier down; Now, to be thine, yea, thine alone, O Lamb of God, I come!

441

WHITTIER Man's Works follow him.

- 1 WE shape ourselves the joy or fear Of which the coming life is made, And fill our future's atmosphere With sunshine or with shade.
- 2 The tissue of the life to be We weave with colors all our own, And in the field of destiny We reap as we have sown.
- 3 Still shall the soul around it call The shadows which it gathered here, And painted on the eternal wall The past shall reappear.

CHARLOTTE ELLIOT, 1630. 4 Ah, yes; we live our life again; Or warmly touched or coldly dim, The pictures of the past remain; Man's works shall follow him.

442

There is no Death.

A MON.

- 1 THERE is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore; And bright in heaven's jewelled crown They shine for evermore.
- 2 There is no death! The dust we tread Shall change beneath the summer showers To golden grain or mellow fruit, Or rainbow-tinted flowers.
- 3 The granite rocks disorganize To feed the hungry moss they bear. The forest leaves drink daily life From out the viewless air.
- 4 There is no death! The leaves may fall, The flowers may fade and pass away -They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May.
- 5 There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread, He bears our best loved things away, And then we call them "dead."
- 6 He leaves our hearts all desolate He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers; Transplanted into bliss, they now Adorn immortal bowers.

The Penitent surrendering.

1 Lord, thou hast won—at length I yield; My heart, by mighty grace compelled, Surrenders all to thee; Against thy terrors long I strove, But who can stand against thy love?— Love conquers even me.

- 2 If thou hadst bid thy thunders roll, And lightnings flash to awe my soul, I still had stubborn been: But mercy has my heart subdued, A bleeding Saviour I have viewed, And now I hate my sin.
- 3 Now, Lord, I would be thine alone; Come, take possession of thine own, For thou hast set me free; Released from Satan's hard command, See all my powers in waiting stand, To be employed by thee.

C. WESLEY.
The Sinner turning to Christ.

- 1 O THOU, who hast redeemed of old,
 And bidst me of thy strength lay hold,
 And be at peace with thee,
 Help me thy benefits to own,
 And hear me tell what thou hast done,
 O dying Lamb! for me.
- 2 Love, only love, thy heart inclined, And brought thee, Saviour of mankind,

Down from thy throne above; Love made my Lord a Man of grief, Distressed thee sore for my relief: Oh, mystery of Love!

3 As thou hast loved and died for me, So grant me, Saviour, love to thee, And gladly I resign Whate'er I have, whate'er I am: My life be all with thine the same, And all thy death be mine.

445

Divine Love.

1 O Love divine, how sweet thou art!
When shall I find my willing heart
All taken up by thee?
I thirst, I faint, I die to prove
The greatness of redeeming love,—
The love of Christ to me.

2 Christ only knows the love of God; Oh, that it now were shed abroad In this poor saddened heart! For love I sigh, for love I pine; This only portion, Lord, be mine, Be mine the better part!

3 Oh, that I could, a favored one,
Recline my weary head upon
The dear Redeemer's breast;
From care and sin and sorrow free.
Give me, O Lord! to find in thee
My everlasting rest.

Breathings of Grace.

MOORE | 448

Peace after a Storm.

COWPER.

- 1 Like morning when her early breeze 1 When darkness long has veiled my mind, Breaks up the surface of the seas, That, in their furrows, dark with night, Her hand may sow the seeds of light —
- The spirit dark and lost before; And, freshening all its depths, prepare For truth divine to enter there.
- 3 Till David touched his sacred lyre, In silence lay the unbreathing wire; But when he swept its chords along, Then angels stooped to hear the song.
- 4 So sleeps the soul, till thou, O Lord, Shalt deign to touch its lifeless chord; Till, waked by thee, its breath shall rise, In music worthy of the skies.

RICHTER. Translated by J. Wesley. 447 Devout Penitence.

- 1 My soul before thee prostrate lies; To thee, her source, my spirit flies; My wants I mourn, my chains I see; Oh, let thy presence set me free.
- 2 In life's short day, let me yet more Of thy enlivening power implore; My mind must deeper sink in thee, My foot stand firm from wandering free.
- 8 Take full possession of my heart; The lowly mind of Christ impart; I still will wait, O Lord, on thee, Till, in thy light, the light I see.

- And smiling day once more appears, Then, my Creator! then I find The folly of my doubts and fears.
- 2 Thy grace can send its breathings o'er 2 Straight I upbraid my wandering heart, And blush that I should ever be Thus prone to act so base a part, Or harbor one hard thought of thee.
 - 3 Oh! let me then at length be taught, What I am still so slow to learn,-That God is love, and changes not, Nor knows the shadow of a turn.
 - 4 Sweet truth, and easy to repeat! But when my faith is sharply tried, I find myself a learner yet, Unskilful, weak, and apt to slide.

449

JOSEPH B. SMITH Afraid to Die.

- 1 AFRAID to die! Oh, idle fear! Since God our Father is so near, With loving arms to clasp the soul Released from pain and earth's control.
- Afraid to die! Oh, idle thought! Since Christ the immortal life hath brought So clearly to our raptured eyes, How can we shrink from Paradise!
- 3 Afraid to die! no, Father, no; When thou shalt call I'll gladly go; In death or life I would be thine, And to thy will my own resign.

HYMNS OF THE UNITY.

The Higher Life.

- 1 WITHIN thine altar's shade
 We bend the shrinking knee,
 Knowing our weak humanity
 Must strengthened be by thee.
- 2 With fear that seems like hope, And hope that seems like fear, We place thereon a naked heart, A penitential tear.
- 8 We know that we are weak,
 We know that thou art strong:
 Grant us the will to serve the right,
 The power to shun the wrong.
- 4 Act well; for every deed
 Will curse you or will bless;
 Its influence lingers near the soul,
 And makes you more or less.
- 5 Press on in duty's path;
 Press on to nobler life;
 Knowing that he who made you men
 Is with you in the strife.

451 MONTGOMERY.

Active Effort to do Good.

- 1 Sow in the morn thy seed,
 At eve hold not thy hand;
 To doubt and fear give thou no heed,
 Broadcast it o'er the land;
- 2 And duly shall appear,
 In verdure, beauty, strength,
 The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
 And the full corn at length.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, and moist, and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.

452

FROTHINGHAM.

1 "When I am weak, I'm strong," The great apostle cried; What did not to the earth belong, The might of heaven supplied.

Strength.

- 2 "When I am weak, I'm strong," Each Christian heart repeats, To tune its feeblest breath to song, And fire its languid beats.
- 3 O holy strength! whose ground
 Is in the heavenly land;
 Supporting help alone is found
 In God's immortal hand.
- 4 O blessed! that appears
 When fleshly aids are spent,
 And girds the mind, when most it fears,
 With trust and sweet content.

453

MOR

Peace from Above.

- 1 LET not your heart be faint, My peace I give to you,— Such peace as reason never planned, Nor sinners ever knew.
- 2 It tells of joys to come; It soothes the troubled breast; It shines, a star amid the storm,— The harbinger of rest.

DODDEIDGE. 456

TREMCH.

Brotherly Kindness.

1 FATHER of mercies! send thy grace, All powerful from above, To form, in our obedient souls, The image of thy love.

- 2 Oh, may our sympathizing breasts The generous pleasure know, Kindly to share in others' joy, And weep for others' woe!
- 8 When the most helpless sons of grief In low distress are laid, Soft be our hearts their pains to feel, And swift our hands to aid.

455 LOND. INQUIRER. Encouragement to Christian Effort.

- 1 Scorn not the slightest word or deed, 1 Supreme Disposer of the heart, Nor deem it void of power; There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed, Waiting its natal hour.
- And call it back to life; A look of love bid sin depart, And still unholy strife.
- 3 No act falls fruitless; none can tell How vast its power may be; Nor what results enfolded dwell Within it silently.
- 4 Work, and despair not; bring thy mite, 4 O God of justice, God of power! Nor care how small it be; God is with all that love the right, The holy, true, and free.

Giving and Receiving.

- 1 Make channels for the streams of love, Where they may broadly run; And love has overflowing streams To fill them every one.
- 2 But if at any time we cease Such channels to provide, The very fount of love for us Will soon be parched and dried.
- 3 For we must share, if we would keep, That blessing from above; Ceasing to give, we cease to have; -Such is the law of love.

457

BREVIARY.

The Reign of Love.

- Thou, since the world was made, Hast the blest fruits of holiness To holy hearts displayed.
- 2 A whispered word may touch the heart, 2 Here, hope and faith their links unite With love in one sweet chain; But, when all fleeting things are past, Love shall alone remain.
 - 3 'Mid thousand fears and dangers now, We sow our seed with prayer; But know that joyful hands shall reap The shining harvests there.
 - Our faith and hope increase; And crown them, in the future years, With endless love and peace.

RICHARDS. Joy and Peace in Christ.

- 1 O CHRIST, what gracious words, Are ever, ever thine; Thy voice is music to the soul, And life and peace divine.
- 2 The broken heart, the poor, The bruised, the deaf, the blind, The dumb, the dead, the captive wretch, In thee compassion find.
- 3 Lord Jesus, speed the day, The promised day of grace, To all the poor, the dumb, the deaf, The dead, of Adam's race.
- 4 One song shall then employ The blest, the blessing, whole; And human nature shout thy name,-The life of every soul.

459

BULFINCH.

1 How glorious is the hour When first our souls awake, power And through thy spirit's quickening 461

Convert's Joy.

Of the new life partake!

- 2 With richer beauty glows The world, before so fair; Her holy light religion throws, Reflected everywhere.
- 3 Amid repentant tears, We feel sweet peace within; We know the God of mercy hears, And pardons every sin.

4 Born of thy spirit, Lord, Thy spirit may we share; Deep in our hearts inscribe thy word, And place thine image there.

460

JERVIA. God's Mercy to the Penitent.

- 1 Sweet is the friendly voice Which speaks of life and peace; Which bids the penitent rejoice, And sin and sorrow cease.
- 2 No balm on earth like this Can cheer the contrite heart: No flattering dreams of earthly bliss Such pure delight impart.
- 3 Still merciful and kind, Thy mercy, Lord, reveal: The broken heart thy love can bind, The wounded spirit heal.
- 4 Thy presence shall restore Peace to my anxious breast: Lord, let my steps be drawn no more From paths which thou hast blessed.

WEALEY.

- Desire to find God.
- 1 My Father bids me come; Oh, why do I delay? He calls the wandering spirit home, And yet from him I stay.
- 2 Father, the hindrance show, Which I have failed to see: And let me now consent to know What keeps me far from thee.

462OLIVER For Divine Guidance and Sustenance.

1 Guide me, O thou great Jehovah! Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty; Hold me with thy powerful hand; Bread of heaven! Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open now the crystal fountains Whence the living waters flow; Let the fiery, cloudy pillar Lead me all the journey through. Strong Deliverer!

8 When I tread the verge of Jordan, Bid my anxious fears subside; Bear me through the swelling current, Land me safe on Canaan's side. Songs of praises I will ever give to thee.

463 ANON Divine Presence Requested.

1 Keep us, Lord, oh, keep us ever! Vain our hope, if left by thee; We are thine; oh, leave us never, Till thy glorious face we see! Then to praise thee Through a bright eternity.

Precious is thy word of promise,-Precious to thy people here;

Never take thy presence from us: Jesus, Saviour, still be near. Living, dying, May thy name our spirits cheer.

464 BREVLARY. Desire for the Heavenly Spirit.

1 HALLELUJAH! best and sweetest Of the hymns of praise above! Hallelujah! thou repeatest, Angel-hosts, these notes of love;

This ye utter, While your golden harps ye move.

Be thou still my strength and shield. 2 Hallelujah! church victorious, Join the concert of the sky! Hallelujah! bright and glorious, Lift, ye saints, this strain on high! We, poor exiles, Join not yet your melody.

> 3 Hallelujah! strains of gladness Comfort not the faint and worn; Hallelujah! sounds of sadness Best become the heart forlorn; Our offences We with bitter tears must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication, Holy God! we raise to thee; Visit us with thy salvation, Make us all thy peace to see! Hallelujah! Ours at length this strain shall be.

J. WEISS. Living to Christ.

1 THE world throws wide its brazen gates; With thee we enter in; Oh, grant us, in our humble sphere, To free that world from sin?

- 2 We have one mind in Christ our Lord, 1 OH, speed thee, Christian, on thy way, To stand and point above; To hurl rebuke at social wrong; But all, O God, in love.
- 3 The star is resting in the sky; To worship Christ we came: The moments haste; oh, touch our tongues With thy celestial flame!
- 4 The truest worship is a life; All dreaming we resign; We lay our offering at thy feet,-Our lives, O Christ, are thine!

466 DODDRIDGE. The Christian Race,

- 1 AWAKE, my soul! stretch every nerve, And press with vigor on; A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
- 2 A cloud of witnesses around Hold thee in full survey: Forget the steps already trod, And onward urge thy way.

And an immortal crown.

3 "T is God's all-animating voice That calls thee from on high; "I' is his own hand presents the prize To thine aspiring eye; —

That prize with peerless glories bright, Which shall new lustre boast When victors' wreaths and monarchs' gems, Must blend in common dust.

467 The whole Armor.

And to thy armor cling; With girded loins the call obey That grace and mercy bring.

ANON.

- 2 There is a battle to be fought, An upward race to run. A crown of glory to be sought, A victory to be won.
- 3 Oh, faint not, Christian, for thy sighs Are heard before his throne: The race must come before the prize. The cross before the crown.

468 T. H. GILL Life with God.

- 1 Alas the outer emptiness! What life has it to give? Oh! shall it God's own fire oppress? Soul, wilt thou slightly live?
- 2 Some joy of thine own seeking win; To thine own strength repair: Breathe, breathe the awful life within; Feel all the glory there.
- 3 Thyself amidst the silence clear. The world far off and dim, Thy vision free, the Bright One near, Thyself alone with him.

The Christian Race.

1 AWAKE, our souls, away our fears; Let every trembling thought be gone; Awake, and run the heavenly race, And put a cheerful courage on.

? True, 't is a strait and thorny road, And mortal spirits tire and faint; But they forget the mighty God, That feeds the strength of every saint.

3 From thee, the overflowing spring, Our souls shall drink a fresh supply; While such as trust their native strength, Shall melt away, and droop and die.

4 Swift as an eagle cuts the air, We'll mount aloft to thine abode; On wings of love our souls shall fly, Nor tire amidst the heavenly road.

47() MRS. BARBAULD. Christian Watchfulness and Life.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul! lift up thine eyes; See where thy foes against thee rise, In long array a numerous host; Awake, my soul! or thou art lost.
- 2 Here giant danger threatening stands, 1 THY will be done! I will not fear Must'ring his pale, terrific bands; There pleasure's silken banner's spread, And willing souls are captive led.
- 3 See where rebellious passions rage, And fierce desires and lusts engage; The meanest foe of all the train Has thousands and ten thousands slain.

Thou tread'st upon enchanted ground; Deceitful snares beset thee round; Beware of all; guard every part; But most the traitor in thy heart.

471

Thy Will be done.

DODDRIDGE

1 THY will be done! In devious way The hurrying stream of life may run; Yet still our grateful hearts shall say, "Our Father, may thy will be done."

2 Thy will be done! If o'er us shine A glad'ning and a prosperous sun, This prayer will make it more divine: "Our Father, may thy will be done."

- 3 Thy will be done! Though shrouded o'er Our path with gloom, all prayers in one Our souls before thy throne shall pour,-"Our Father, let thy will be done."
- 4 Thy will be done! The living way To thine own kingdom is begun, Continued, ended, when we pray, "Our Father, let thy will be done."

472

JANE ROSCOE

The fate provided by thy love; Though clouds and darkness shroud me here, I know that all is bright above.

The Bitter Cup.

2 Father! forgive the heart that clings, Thus trembling, to the things of time; And bid the soul, on angel wings, Ascend into a purer clime.

Living to God.

- 1 TEACH me, my God and King, Thy will in all to see: And what I do in anything, To do it as for thee!
- 2 To scorn the senses' sway,
 While still to thee I tend;
 In all I do, be thou the way,
 In all, be thou the end.
- 3 All may of thee partake:
 Nothing so small can be,
 But draws, when acted for thy sake,
 Greatness and worth from thee.
- 4 If done beneath thy laws,
 E'en servile labors shine;
 Hallowed is toil, if this the cause;
 The meanest work, divine.

474

L. H. SIGOURNEY.

1 SERVANTS of Christ, arise,
And gird you for the toil;
The dew of promise from the skies
Already cheers the soil.

Active Piety.

- 2 Go where the sick recline,
 Where mourning hearts deplore;
 And where the sons of sorrow pine,
 Dispense your hallowed lore.
- 5 Urge, with a tender zeal,
 The erring child along,

The Heavenly Call.

- 1 Come to the land of peace,
 From shadows come away,
 Where all the sounds of weeping cease,
 And storms no more have sway.
- 2 Fear hath no dwelling here, But pure repose and love Breathe through the bright, celestial air, The spirit of the dove.
- 3 Come to the bright and blest, Gathered from every land; For here thy soul shall find its rest, Amidst the shining band.
- 4 In this divine abode
 Change leaves no saddening trace;
 Come, trusting spirit, to thy God,
 Thy holy resting-place!

MONTGOMERY.

- The Christian Warrior. 1 THE Christian warrior, see him stand In the whole armor of his God; The spirit's sword is in his hand; His feet are with the gospel shod;
- In panoply of truth complete, Salvation's helmet on his head, With righteousness a breastplate meet, And faith's broad shield before him spread.
- With this omnipotence he moves: From this the alien armies flee; Till more than conqueror he proves, Through Christ, who gives him victory.
- 4 Thus strong in his Redeemer's strength, Sin, death, and hell he tramples down,-Fights the good night; and takes at length, Through merry, an immortal crown.

1 STILL hope! still act! Be sure that life, The source and strength of every good, Wastes down in feeling's empty strife, And dies in dreaming's sickly mood.

For all we know of right and true; In this alone our worth is seen; 'T is this we were ordained to do.

The Master praises,—what are men?

- Go, labor on; enough while here, If he shall praise thee; if he deign Thy willing heart to mark and cheer, No toil for him shall be in vain.
- Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice; For toil, comes rest; for exile, home: Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's

The midnight peal, Behold, I come!

HARTFORD SELEC. Daily Life in God.

1 OH, could I find, from day to day, A nearness to my God, Then would my hours glide sweet away, While leaning on his word.

- 2 Lord, I desire with thee to live Anew from day to day, In joys the world can never give, Nor never take away.
- 3 Blest Jesus, come, and rule my heart, And make me wholly thine, That I may never more depart, Nor grieve thy love divine.

The other World.

482

H B. STOWN.

1 It lies around us like a cloud,— A world we do not see; Yet the sweet closing of an eye May bring us there to be.

- Sweet helping hands are stirred, And palpitates the veil between With breathings almost heard.
- 3 The silence awful, sweet, and calm -They have no power to break; For mortal words are not for them To utter or partake.
- 4 Scarce knowing if we wake or sleep, Scarce asking where we are, We feel all evil sink away. All sorrow and all care.

483

C. D. STUART. Attractions of Heaven.

1 As distant lands beyond the sea, When friends go thence, draw nigh, So heaven, when friends have thither gone, Draws nearer from the sky.

2 And as those lands the dearer grow, When friends are long away, So heaven itself, through loved ones dead, Grows dearer day by day.

3 Heaven is not far from those who see, With the pure spirit's sight, But near, and in the very hearts Of those who see aright.

W. B. O. PEABODA. Evening Meditations.

- 1 Behold the western evening light, It melts in deepening gloom; So calmly Christians sink away, Descending to the tomb.
- 2 Sweet hearts around us throb and beat, 2 The winds breathe low,—the withering Scarce whispers from the tree; [leaf So gently flows the parting breath, When good men cease to be.
 - 3 And now above the dews of night The yellow star appears; So faith springs in the hearts of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears.
 - 4 But soon the morning's happier light Its glories shall restore; And eyelids that are sealed in death Shall wake to close no more.

Christian Courage and Self-

- 1 Am I a soldier of the cross, A follower of the Lamb, And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies On flowery beds of ease, Whilst others fought to win the prize, And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Sure I must fight, if I would reign; Increase my courage, Lord: I'll bear the toil, endure the pain, Supported by thy word.
- 4 Thy saints, in all this glorious war, Shall conquer though they 're slain: They view the triumph from afar, And soon with Christ shall reign.

LONGFELLOW.

1 We have not wings - we cannot soar -But we have feet to scale and climb By slow degrees — by more and more — The cloudy summits of our time.

Steps.

- 2 The heights by great men reached and 1 Nor by the martyrs' death alone, [won; Were not attained by sudden flight, [kept] But they while their companions slept Were toiling upward in the night.
- 3 Standing on what too long we bore, With shoulders bent and downcast eyes, We may discern — unseen before — A path to higher destinies.
- 4 Nor deem the irrevocable past As wholly wasted — wholly vain -If, rising on its wrecks, at last, To something robler we attain.

- 'T is by the faith of joys to come We walk through deserts dark as night; Till we arrive at heaven, our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
- 2 The want of sight she well supplies: She makes the pearly gates appear; Far into distant worlds she pries, And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through. While faith inspires a heavenly ray, Though lions roar, and tempests blow, And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abraham, by divine command, Left his own house to walk with God; His faith beheld the promised land, And fired his zeal along the road.

Self-Sacrifice in the Daily Life.

- The saints in heaven their crowns have There is a triumph robe on high, For bloodless fields of victory.
- 2 What though they were not called to feel The cross, the flame, the torturing wheel Yet daily to the world they died, And sinful passions crucified.
- 3 Lord, grant us so to thee to turn, That we to die through life may learn; And when our earthly toils are o'er, Rejoice with thee for evermore.

C. H. TOWNSEND.

1 WAIT! for the day is breaking, Though the dull night be long: Wait! God is not forsaking Thy heart. Be strong — be strong! Wait! and the clouds of sorrow Shall melt in gentle showers, And hues from heaven shall borrow, As they fall 'midst the flowers.

Wait!

Wait! 't is the key to pleasure And to the plan of God; Oh, tarry thou his leisure, Thy soul shall bear no load. Wait! for the time is hasting When life shall be made clear, And all who know heart-wasting Shall feel that God is dear.

Joy and Peace in believing.

1 SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord, who rises
With healing in his wings;
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

In holy contemplation, We sweetly then pursue The theme of God's salvation, And find it ever new; Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,

"E'en let the unknown morrow Bring with it what it may."

3 It can bring with it nothing,
But he will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe his people too.
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens
Will give his children bread.

4 Though vine, nor fig-tree neither,
Its wonted fruit should bear;
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice;
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

What foe have I to fear?

With God at my right hand?

Excellency of Faith.

- 2 Faith is the rainbow's form

 Hung on the brow of heaven,
 The glory of the passing storm,
 The pledge of mercy given;
 It is a bright, triumphal arch,
 Through which the saints to glory march.

497 Montgomert. Friends die, but to live again.

- 1 FRIEND after friend departs;
 Who hath not lost a friend?
 There is no union here of hearts,
 That finds not here an end.
 Were this frail world our only rest,
 Living or dying, none were blest.
- Beyond the flight of time,
 Beyond this vale of death,
 There surely is some blesséd clime,
 Where life is not a breath,
 Nor life's affections but a fire
 Whose sparks fly upward to expire.
- 3 There is a world above, Where parting is unknown,—

- A whole eternity of love
 And blessedness alone;
 And faith beholds the dying here
 Translated to that happier sphere.
- 4 Thus, star by star declines
 Till all are passed away,
 As morning high and higher shines
 To pure and perfect day.
 Nor sink those stars in empty night —
 They hide themselves in heaven's own light.

Burial of Friends.

- THIS place is holy ground!
 World, with its cares, away!
 A holy, solemn stillness, round
 This lifeless, mouldering clay;
 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
 Can reach the peaceful sleeper here.
- 2 Behold the bed of death, The pale and mortal clay! Heard ye the sob of parting breath? Marked ye the eye's last ray? No! life so sweetly ceased to be, It lapsed in immortality.
- 3 Bury the dead, and weep
 In stillness o'er the loss.
 Bury the dead! in Christ they sleep
 Who bore on earth his cross;
 And from the grave their souls shall rise,
 In his own image to the skies.

MONTGOMERY.
The Christian Graces.

1 Faith, hope, and charity, these three; Yet is the greatest charity; Father of lights, these gifts impart To mine and every human heart.

- Faith, that in prayer can never fail; Hope, that o'er doubting must prevail; And charity, whose name above, Is God's own name, for God is love.
- 3 The morning star is lost in light, Faith vanishes at perfect sight; The rainbow passes with the storm, And hope with sorrow's fading form.
- 4 But charity, serene, sublime, Beyond the reach of death and time, Like the blue sky's all-bounding space, Holds heaven and earth in its embrace.

Self-Denial.

- 1 If on our daily course our mind Be set, to hallow all we find, New treasures still, of countless price, God will provide for sacrifice.
- 2 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be, As more of heaven in each we see; Some softening gleam of love and prayer Shall dawn on every cross and care.
- 3 The trivial round, the common task, Will furnish all we ought to ask; Room to deny ourselves, a road To bring us daily nearer God.
- 4 Only, O Lord, in thy dear love, Fit us for perfect rest above; And help us this and every day To live more nearly as we pray.

For Brotherly Love.

1 God of love, we look to thee,
Let us in thy Son agree;
Show to us the Prince of Peace;
Bid our jars forever cease.
By thy reconciling love,
Every stumbling block remove;
Each to each unite, endear,
Come, and spread the banner here.

2 Make us of one heart and mind, Courteous, pitiful, and kind; Lowly, meek, in thought and word, Altogether like our Lord. Let us for each other care; Each the other's burden bear; To thy church the pattern give; Show how true believers live.

Far from thine own household band;

Of a voice from this world gone;
Captive, in whose narrow cell
Sunshine hath not leave to dwell;
Sailor, on the darkening sea—
Lift the heart and bend the knee!

- 2 Sweet as the dew on hill and flower. That silently distils, At evening's soft and balmy hour, On Zion's fruitful hills.

The Use of present Opertunities.

- 1 CHILDREN of light, awake!
 At Jesus' call arise,
 Forth with your leader to partake
 His toil, his victories.
- 2 Ye must not idly stand, His sacred voice who hear; Arm for the strife the feeble hand, The holy standard rear.
- 3 Naught doth the world afford, But toil must be the price; Wilt thou not, servant of the Lord, Then toil for paradise?
- 4 Awake, ye sons of light!
 Strive till the prize be won;
 Far spent already is the night;
 The day comes brightening on.

533

MONTGOMERY.

- The Lord's Prayer.

 1 Our heavenly Father, hear
 The prayer we offer now;
 Thy name be hallowed far and near;
 To thee all nations bow.
- 2 Thy kingdom come; thy will On earth be done in love, As saints and seraphim fulfil Thy perfect law above.
- 3 Our daily bread supply,
 While by thy word we live;
 The guilt of our iniquity
 Forgive, as we forgive.

- 4 From dark temptation's power
 Our feeble hearts defend:
 Deliver in the evil hour,
 And guide us to the end.
- 5 Thine, then, forever be Glory and power divine; The sceptre, throne, and majesty Of heaven and earth are thine.

C. WESLEY.

All Things in Christ.

- THE soul, by faith reclined
 On the Redeemer's breast,
 'Mid raging storms, exults to find
 An everlasting rest.
- 2 Sorrow and fear are gone, Whene'er thy face appears; It stills the sighing orphan's moan, And dries the widow's tears.
- 3 It hallows every cross,
 It sweetly comforts me;
 It makes me now forget my loss,
 And lose myself in thee.
- 4 Jesus, to whom I fly,
 Will all my wishes fill;
 What though created streams are dry?
 I have the fountain still.
- 5 Stripped of my earthly friends,
 I find them all in one,—
 And peace, and joy which never ends,
 And heaven, in Christ, begun.

MONTGOMERY.

The Soul panting for God.

1 As the hart, with eager looks, Panteth for the waterbrooks, So my soul, athirst for thee, Pants the living God to see; When, oh, when with filial fear, Lord, shall I to thee draw near?

2 Why art thou cast down, my soul?
God, thy God, shall make thee whole:
Why art thou disquieted?
God shall lift thy fallen head,
And his countenance benign
Be the saving health of thine.

536

BOWRING.

The Pilgrimage of Life.

1 Lead us with thy gentle sway,
As a willing child is led;
Speed us on our forward way,
As a pilgrim, Lord, is sped,
Who with prayers and helps divine
Seeks a consecrated shrine.

2 We are pilgrims, and our goal
Is that distant land whose bourne
Is the haven of the soul;
Where the mourners cease to mourn,
Where the Saviour's hand will dry
Every tear from every eye.

3 Lead us thither! thou dost know All the way; but wanderers we Often miss our path below, And stretch out our hands to thee; Guide us,—save us,—and prepare Our appointed mansion there!

537

FRITZ & SCOLUTT.

Living Faith.

1 YE who think the truth ye sow Lost beneath the winter's snow, Doubt not time's unerring law Yet shall bring the genial thaw; God in nature ye can trust,—
Is the God of mind less just?

2 Workers on the barren soil, Yours may seem a thankless toil; Sick at heart with hope deferred, Listen to the cheering word; Now the faithful sower grieves; Soon he'll bind his golden sheaves.

538

Consecration.

1 Now, O God, thine own I am! Now I give thee back thine own: Freedom, friends, and health and fame, Consecrate to thee alone: Thine I live—thrice happy I! Happy still if thine I die.

2 Take me, Lord, and all my powers;
Tame my mind, and heart, and will;
All my goods and all my hours,
All I know, and all I feel,
All I think, or speak, or do,—
Take my soul and make it new!

WESLEYAN.

539

Love Divine.

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Father! thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every longing heart.

2 Breathe, oh, breathe, thy loving spirit
Into every troubled breast;
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find thy promised rest.
Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Graciously come down, and never,
Never more thy temples leave!

540 Divine Light Implored. TOPLADY

1 Light of those whose dreary dwelling
Borders on the shades of death!
Rise on us, thyself revealing—
Rise and chase the clouds beneath.
Thou, of heaven and earth Creator!
In our deepest darkness rise;
Scatter all the night of nature,
Pour the day upon our eyes.

2 Still we wait for thine appearing; Life and joy thy beams impart, Chasing all our fears, and cheering Every meek, benighted heart. By thine all-sufficient merit, Every burdened soul release; Every weary, wandering spirit Guide into thy perfect peace.

541

J. G. BARTHOLONEW. Guardian Angels.

1 Is it true that angels hear us,
When we sing our songs of praise?
That bright wings are waving near us,
When to heaven our thoughts we raise?
Is it true that when we're praying
Radiant forms are bending near?
That they know what we are saying,
And our every word can hear?

2 Do they come on holy missions
From our Father's home above,
To return with our petitions,
And our songs of praise and love?
Can we doubt since that bright legion
Came rejoicing to the earth,
Leaving the celestial region
To announce the Saviour's birth?

3 And if men have heard their chorus,
On the earth in days of old,
May they not be bending o'er us,
With their crowns and harps of gold?
Let us listen to their singing,
For it is of heavenly love;
And the very air is ringing
With their praise of God above.

Rising towards Heaven.

Anou.

- 1 Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings,
 Thy better portion trace;
 Rise from transitory things,
 Towards heaven, thy native place;
 Sun, and moon, and stars decay;
 Time shall soon this earth remove;
 Rise, my soul, and haste away
 To seats prepared above.
- 2 Rivers to the ocean run,

 Nor stay in all their course;
 Fire ascending, seeks the sun,—

 Both speed them to their source;
 So a soul that's born of God,

 Pants to view his glorious face,
 Upward tends to his abode,

 To rest in his embrace.

543

Joy in Christ.

- I JOYFUL let us cast aside
 All soul-debasing fear;
 Let us hence with thee abide,
 And dwell thou with us here.
 Thine we are, and would remain,
 Whether weal or woe betide;
 Let thy favor be our gain,
 Thy truth our only guide.
- ? Joyful be the hours to-day, Glad let the seasons be; Let us sing, for well we may— Lord, we will sing of thee.

- Should thy people silent be,

 Then the very stones would sing:

 What a debt we owe to thee,

 Our Saviour and our King!
- 3 Joyful are we now to own,— With rapture now we trace All the deeds thy love hath done, The riches of thy grace: For thy grace alone can save; Every blessing comes from thee: All we have and hope to have, And are, and hope to be.

544

WHILEYAM

Quiet Religion.

- 1 Open, Lord, my inward ear,
 And bid my heart rejoice;
 Bid my quiet spirit hear
 The comfort of thy voice;
 Never in the whirlwind found,
 Or where earthquakes rock the place,
 Still and silent is the sound,
 The whisper of thy grace.
- 2 From the world of sin and noise
 And tumult I withdraw;
 For the small and inward voice
 I wait with humble awe;
 Silent am I now and still,
 Dare not in thy presence move;
 To my waiting soul reveal
 The secret of thy love.

SARAH F. ADAMS. Nearer to Thee.

 NEARER, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee!
 E'en though it be a cross That raiseth me;
 Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee,— Nearer to thee!

- 2 Though like the wanderer,
 'The sun gone down,
 Darkness be over me,
 My rest a stone;
 Yet in my dreams I'd be
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!
- 8 There let the way appear,
 Steps unto heaven;
 All that thou sendest me,
 In mercy given;
 Angels to beckon me
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!
- 4 Then with my waking thoughts,
 Bright with thy praise,
 Out of my stony griefs,
 Bethel I'll raise;
 So by my woes to be
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!
- 5 Or if on joyful wing, Cleaving the sky,

Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly; Still, all my song shall be,— Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee!

Heaven our Home.

546

T. R. TAYLOR

1 I'm but a stranger here,
Heaven is my home;
Earth is a desert drear,
Heaven is my home:
Danger and sorrow stand
Round me on every hand;
Heaven is my fatherland,—

Heaven is my home.

2 What though the tempest rage,
Heaven is my home;
Short is my pilgrimage,
Heaven is my home:
Time's cold and wintry blast
Soon will be overpast;
I shall reach home at last;
Heaven is my home.

3 There, at my Saviour's side,
Heaven is my home;
I shall be glorified,
Heaven is my home:
There are the good and blest,
Those I loved most and best,
And there I, too, shall rest;
Heaven is my home!

MONTGOMERY.

1 Prayer is the soul's sincere desire, Uttered or unexpressed, The motion of a hidden fire That trembles in the breast.

What is Prayer!

- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh, The falling of a tear, The upward glancing of an eye, When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech That infant lips can try, Prayer the sublimest strains that reach The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath, The Christian's native air, The watchword at the gates of death; He enters heaven with prayer.
- 5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice, Returning from his ways; While angels in their songs rejoice, And cry "Behold he prays!"

548

FARER.

Distraction in Prayer.

- 1 HAD I, dear Lord! no pleasure found But in the thought of thee; Prayer would have come unsought, and been $|550\rangle$ A truer liberty.
- 2 Yet thou art oft most present, Lord! In weak, distracted prayer; A sinner out of heart with self, Most often finds thee there.

- 3 And prayer that humbles, sets the soul From all illusions free; And teaches it how utterly, Dear Lord! it hangs on thee.
- 4 These surface troubles come and go. Like rufflings of the sea; The deeper depth is out of reach To all, my God, but thee!

549

ANON.

The still small Voice.

- 1 Sweet is the prayer whose holy stream In earnest pleading flows: Devotion dwells upon the theme, And warm and warmer glows.
- 2 Faith grasps the blessing she desires, Hope points the upward gaze; And love, untrembling love, inspires The eloquence of praise.
- 3 But sweeter far the still small voice, Heard by no human ear, When God hath made the heart rejoice, And dried the bitter tear.
- 4 Nor accents flow, nor words ascend; All utterance faileth there; But listening spirits comprehend, And God accepts the prayer.

MONTGOMERY

Christ teaches to Pray.

1 O THOU by whom we come to God, The Life, the Truth, the Way! The path of prayer thyself hast trod; Lord! teach us how to pray.

METHODIST COLL.

A Call to Prayer.

- 1 THEY who seek the throne of grace Find that throne in every place; If we love a life of prayer, God is present everywhere.
- 2 In our sickness, in our health, In our want or in our wealth, If we look to God in prayer, God is present everywhere.
- 3 When our earthly comforts fail, When the woes of life prevail, 'T is the time for earnest prayer, God is present everywhere.
- 4 Then, my soul, in every strait, To thy Father come and wait; He will answer every prayer, God is present everywhere.

552

CONDER.

Give us our daily Bread.

- 1 DAY by day the manna fell: Oh, to learn this lesson well! Still by constant mercy fed, Give us, Lord, our daily bread.
- 2 "Day by day" the promise reads; Daily strength for daily needs; Cast foreboding fears away; Take the manna of to-day!
- 3 Lord, our times are in thy hand;
 All our sanguine hopes have planned,
 To thy wisdom we resign,
 And would mould our wills to thine.

4 Thou our daily task shalt give; Day by day to thee we live; So shall added years fulfil Not our own, our Father's will.

553

Merrice.

'ATOR

Inward Purity.

- 1 BLEST Instructor, from thy ways, Who can tell how oft he strays? Purge me from the guilt that lies Wrapt within my heart's disguise.
- 2 Let my tongue, from error free, Speak the words approved by thee; To thine all-observing eyes, Let my thoughts accepted rise.
- 3 While I thus thy name adore, And thy healing grace implore; Blest Redeemer, bow thine ear, God, my strength, propitious hear!

554

A Life hid in God.

1 Let my life be hid in thee,
Life of life, and Light of light!
Love's illimitable sea!
Depth of peace, of power the height

2 Let my life be hid in thee, From vexation and annoy; Calm in thy tranquility, All my mourning turned to joy.

3 Let my life be hid in thee; In the world, and yet above; Hid in thine eternity, In the ocean of thy love.

POPE'S COLL The Lord's Prayer.

1 FATHER, adored in worlds above! Thy glorious name be hallowed still; Thy kingdom come in truth and love; And earth, like heaven, obey thy will.

- 2 Lord, make our daily wants thy care; 2 Enrich me always with thy love; Forgive the sins which we forsake; In thy compassion let us share, As fellow-men of ours partake.
- 3 Evils beset us every hour,— Thy kind protection we implore; Thine is the kingdom, thine the power, The glory thine for evermore.

556 MRS. COTTERILL For a Life devoted to God's Glory.

- 10 THOU, who hast at thy command The hearts of all men in thy hand! Our wayward, erring hearts incline To have no other will but thine.
- 2 Our wishes, our desires, control; Mould every purpose of the soul; O'er all may we victorious be That stands between ourselves and thee.
- 8 Thrice blest will all our blessings be, When we can look through them to thee; When each glad heart its tribute pays Of love, and gratitude, and praise.
- 4 And while we to thy glory live, May we to thee all glory give, Until the final summons come, That calls thy willing servants home.

557

CHRISTIAN PSALMIST. Prayer for Divine Help.

- 1 BE with me, Lord, where'er I go; Teach me what thou would'st have me do; Show me my weakness,—let me see I have my power, my all from thee.
- My kind protection ever prove; Thy signet put upon my breast, And let thy spirit on me rest.
- Assist and teach me how to pray; Incline my nature to obey; What thou abhorr'st that let me flee. And only love what pleases thee.
- 4 Oh, may I never do my will, But thine, and only thine, fulfil; Let all my time and all my ways Be spent and ended to thy praise.

558

RAY PALMER. Quiet Devotion.

- 1 Thou Saviour, from thy throne on high, Enrobed in light and girt with power, Dost note the thought, the prayer, the sigh, Of hearts that love the tranquil hour.
- 2 Oft thou thyself didst steal away At eventide, from labor done, In some still peaceful shade to pray Till morning watches were begun.
- 3 Thou hast not, dearest Lord, forgot Thy wrestlings on Judea's hills; And still thou lov'st the quiet spot Where praise the lowly spirit fills.

WESLEY'S COLL.
Thy Kingdom come.

1 FATHER of me and all mankind,
And all the hosts above,
Let every understanding mind
Unite to praise thy love.

- 2 Thy kingdom come, with power and grace To every heart of man; Thy peace, and joy, and righteousness, In all our bosoms reign:
- 3 The righteousness that never ends,
 But makes an end of sin;
 The joy that human thought transcends
 Into our souls bring in:
- 4 'The kingdom of established peace, Which can no more remove; The perfect power of godliness, Th' omnipotence of love.

560

Pope.

Prayer for Divine Guidance.

- 1 FATHER of all! whose cares extend To carth's remotest shore, Through every age let praise ascend, And every clime adore.
- 2 Mean though I am, not wholly so, Since quickened by thy breath; Lord, lead me whereso'er I go, Through this day's life or death.
- 8 Teach me to feel another's woe,
 To hide the fault I see;
 That mercy I to others show,
 That mercy show to me.

- 4 If I am right, thy grace impart,
 Still in the right to stay;
 If I am wrong, oh, teach my heart
 To find that better way.
- 5 What conscience dictates to be done, Or warns me not to do, This teach me more than hell to shun, That more than heaven pursue.

561

MONTGOMERY.

For grateful Submission.

- 1 One prayer I have,—all prayers in When I am wholly thine; [one,—"Thy will, my God, thy will be done, And let that will be mine."
- 2 May I remember that to thee Whate'er I have I owe; And back in gratitude from me May all thy bounties flow.
- 3 Thy gifts are only then enjoyed,
 When used as talents lent;
 Those talents only well employed,
 When in thy service spent.
- 4 And though thy wisdom takes away, Shall I arraign thy will? No, let me bless thy name, and say, "The Lord is gracious still."
- 5 All-wise, almighty, and all-good, In thee I firmly trust; Thy ways, unknown or understood, Are merciful and just.

Thy Will be Done.

I THY way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be!
Lead me by thine own hand;
Choose out the path for me.
I dare not choose my lot:
I would not, if I might;
Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

- In thing that I seek
 Is thine: so let the way
 That leads to it be thine,
 Else I must surely stray.
 Take thou my cup, and it
 With joy or sorrow fill,
 As best to thee may seem;
 Choose thou my good and ill.
- 3 Choose thou for me my friends, My sickness or my health; Choose thou my cares for me, My poverty or wealth.

H, Bonar.

Not mine, not mine the choice, In things or great or small; Be thou my Guide, my Strength, My Wisdom, and my All.

563

HAPPINGS.

- Trust in God.

 1 Be tranquil, O my soul,
 Be quiet every fear!
 Thy Father hath control,
 And he is ever near.
 Ne'er of thy lot complain,
 Whatever may befall;
 Sickness or care, or pain,
 "T is well appointed all.
- 2 A Father's chastening hand
 Is leading thee along;
 Nor distant is the land,
 Where swells the immortal song.
 Oh, then, my soul, be still!
 Await heaven's high decree;
 Seek but thy Father's will,
 It shall be well with thee.

Divine Aid implored.

1 O Gon! whose dread and dazzling brow Love never yet forsook, On those who seek thy presence now, In deep compassion look.

- 2 For many a frail and erring heart Is in thy holy sight, And feet too willing to depart From the plain way of right.
- 8 Yet pleased the humble prayer to hear, 2 Oh, help us, when our spirits bleed, And kind to all that live; Thou, when thou seest the contrite tear, Art ready to forgive.
- 4 Lord! aid us with thy heavenly grace, Our truest bliss to find; Nor sternly judge our erring race, So feeble, and so blind.

565

MERRICK.

Dependence and Submission.

- 1 AUTHOR of good, to thee we turn, Thine ever-watchful eye Alone can all our wants discern. Thy hand alone supply.
- 2 Oh, let thy fear within us dwell, Thy love our footsteps guide: That love shall vainer loves expel; That fear all fears beside.
- 3 And since, by passion's force subdued, 2 Our dark and erring minds illume Too oft, with stubborn will, We blindly shun the latent good, And grasp the specious ill,—

4 Not what we wish, but what we want, Let mercy still supply; The good, unasked, O Father, grant; The ill, though asked, deny.

566

H. H. MILMAN. Praying for Divine Help.

1 Он, help us, Lord! each hour of need Thy heavenly succor give; Help us in thought, and word and deed, Each hour on earth we live.

With contrite anguish sore, And when our hearts are cold and dead. Oh, help us, Lord, the more.

3 Oh, help us through the prayer of faith More firmly to believe; For still the more the servant hath. The more shall he receive.

4 Oh, help us, Father! from on high; We know no help but thee; Oh! help us so to live and dic. As thine in heaven to be.

567

CAPPE'S SELECTION Prayer for Divine Direction.

1 ETERNAL Source of life and light, Supremely good and wise, To thee we bring our grateful vows, To thee lift up our eyes.

With truth's celestial rays; Inspire our hearts with sacred love, And tune our lips to praise.

Divine Life sought.

1 My God, permit me not to be

- A stranger to myself and thee; Amid a thousand thoughts I rove, Forgetful of my highest love.
- 2 Why should my passions mix with earth, 2 Thou art the weary wanderer's rest, And thus debase my heavenly birth; Why should I cleave to things below, And let my God, my Saviour, go?
- 3 Call me away from flesh and sense; I would obey the voice divine, And all inferior joys resign.
- Let noise and vanity be gone: In secret silence of the mind, My heaven, and there my God, I find.

569 SIR WALTER SCOTT. Divine Guidance implored.

- 1 When Israel of the Lord beloved, Out from the land of bondage came, Her father's God before her moved, An awful guide in smoke and flame.
- 2 By day, along th' astonished lands, The cloudy pillar glided slow; By night, Arabia's crimsoned sands Returned the fiery column's glow.
- 3 Thus present still, though now unseen, 3 When brightly shines the prosperous day, Be thoughts of thee a cloudy screen, To temper the deceitful ray!

The Light from Above.

ANON.

Anon.

- 1 ETERNAL God, thou light divine, Fountain of unexhausted love, Oh, let thy glories on me shine, In earth beneath, from heaven above.
 - Give me the casy yoke to bear; With steadfast patience arm my breast, With spotless love and lowly fear.
- 3 Be thou, O Rock of Ages, nigh! One sovereign word can draw me thence; So shall each murmuring thought be gone, And grief, and fear, and care shall fly, As clouds before the midday sun.
- 4 Be earth, with all her scenes withdrawn; 4 Speak to my warring passions, "Peace:" Say to my trembling heart, "Be still;" Thy power my strength and fortress is, For all things serve thy holy will.

571

Christ's Help in Trouble.

- Welcome to me the darkest night, If there the Saviour's presence bright Beam forth upon the soul dismayed, And say, "'T is I! be not afraid!"
- 2 Welcome the fiercest waves that roll Their deepening floods to whelm my soul, If he rebuke the storm of ill, And bid the tempest, "Peace, be still!"
- Welcome the thorniest path, if there The print-marks of his feet appear; If in his footsteps we may tread, And follow where our Lord hath led.

Walking with God.

1 OH, for a closer walk with God! A calm and heavenly frame! A light to shine upon the road

2 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed! How sweet their memory still! But now I find an aching void The world can never fill.

That leads me to the Lamb!

- 3 Return, O holy Dove, return, Sweet messenger of rest: I hate the sins that made thee mourn, And drove thee from my breast.
- 4 The dearest idol I have known, Whate'er that idol be, Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.

573

METHODIST COLL. Seeking God.

- 1 TALK with us, Lord, thyself reveal, While here o'er earth we rove; Speak to our hearts, and let us feel The kindling of thy love.
- 2 With thee conversing, we forget All time, and toil, and care: Labor is rest, and pain is sweet, If thou, my God, art here.
- 8 Here, then, my God, vouchsafe to stay, 3 He always wins who sides with God And bid my heart rejoice; My bounding heart shall own thy sway, And echo to thy voice.

COWPER. 574

Serving God.

T. H. GILL

- 1 OH, not to fill the mouth of fame My longing soul is stirred; Oh, give me a diviner name! Call me thy servant, Lord!
- 2 No longer would my soul be known As self-sustained and free: Oh, not mine own! oh, not mine own! Lord, I belong to thee!
- 3 In each aspiring burst of prayer, Sweet leave my soul would ask Thine every burden, Lord, to bear, To do thine every task.
- 4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven, No other name for me! The same sweet style and title given Through all eternity.

575

All Things work together for Good.

- 1 ILL, that God blesses, is our good, And unblest good is ill; And all is right that seems most wrong, If it be his dear will.
- 2 Man's weakness, waiting upon God, Its end can never miss; For man on earth no work can do More angel-like than this.
- To him no chance is lost; God's will is sweetest to him when It triumphs at his cost.

Solemn Litany.

- 1 FATHER, when in dust to thee
 Low we bend th' adoring knee;
 When, repentant, to the skies
 Scarce we lift our weeping eyes;
 Oh, by all the pains and woe
 Suffered by thy Son below,
 Bending from thy throne on high,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 2 By his helpless infant years,
 By his life of want and tears,
 By his days of sore distress
 In the savage wilderness;
 By the dread mysterious hour
 Of the insulting tempter's power;
 Turn, oh, turn a favoring eye,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 3 By his hour of dire despair;
 By his agony of prayer;
 By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
 Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
 By the gloom that veiled the skies
 O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
 Listen to our humble cry,
 Hear our solemn Litany!
- 4 By his deep expiring groan; By the sad sepulchral stone; By the vault, whose dark abode Held in vain the Son of God;

By the life to heaven restored, Reascended Light and Lord; Father! listen to the cry Of our solemn Litany!

Lord have Mercy.

- 1 LORD, have mercy when we pray,
 Strength to seek a better way;
 When our wakening thoughts begin
 First to loathe their cherished sin;
 Sigh for death, yet fear it still,
 From the dread of future ill;
 When the dim, advancing gloom
 Tells us that our hour is come.
- 2 Lord, have mercy when we lie
 On the restless bed, and sigh,—
 Sigh for death, yet fear it still,
 From the thought of former ill;
 When the dim, advancing gloom
 Tells us that our hour has come;
 When is loosed the silver cord,—
 Then, on, then! have mercy, Lord.
- 3 Lord, have mercy, when we know First how vain this world below; When its darker thoughts oppress, Doubts perplex, and fears distress; When the earliest gleam is given, Of the bright but distant heaven; Then thy fostering grace afford, Then, oh, then! have mercy, Lord!

584 Paith without Works is Dead.

- As body when the soul has fled,
 As barren trees, decayed and dead,
 Is faith; a hopeless, lifeless thing,
 If not of righteous deeds the spring.
- 2 One cup of healing oil and wine, One teardrop shed on mercy's shrine, Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee, Than lifted eye or bended knee.
- 3 To doers only of the word,
 Propitious is the righteous Lord;
 He hears their cries, accepts their prayers,
 Binds up their wounds, and soothes their cares.

585 MRS. GILMAN.
Our Sufficiency of God.

- 1 Is there a lone and dreary hour, When worldly pleasures lose their power? My Father! let me turn to thee, And set each thought of darkness free.
- 2 Is there a time of racking grief, Which scorns the prospect of relief? My Father! break the cheerless gloom, And bid my heart its calm resume.
- 3 Is there an hour of peace and joy, When hope is all my soul's employ? My Father! still my hopes will roam, Until they rest with thee, their home.
- 4 The noontide blaze, the midnight scene, The dawn, or twilight's sweet serene, The glow of life, the dying hour, Shall own my Father's grace and power.

586

Penilential Prayer.

- 1 Health of the weak, to make them strong!
 Refuge of sinners, and their song!
 Comfort of each afflicted breast!
 Haven of hope in realms of rest!
- 2 Lord of the patriarchs gone before! Light of the prophets' learned lore! Deign from thy throne to look on me, And hear my lowly litany.
- 3 Lead me, O Spirit, to thy Son,
 To taste and feel what he has done;
 To lay me low before his cross,
 And reckon all beside as dross;
- 4 To speak, and think, and will, and move, And love, as thou would'st have me love. Oh, look upon this bended knee, And hear my heart's own litany.

587 J. ROSCOM.

Joyful Hops.

- 1 The stars of heaven are shining on, Tho' these frail eyes are dimm'd with tears; And though the hopes of earth be gone, Yet are not ours th' immortal years?
- 2 There shall no doubts disturb its trust, No sorrows dim celestial love; But these afflictions of the dust, Like shadows of the night, remove.
- 3 That glorious life will well repay
 This life of toil and care, and woe:
 O Father! joyful on my way,
 To drink thy bitter cup, I go.

HAWEIS, 1792.

Lord, remember Me.

1 0 THOU, from whom all goodness flows, I lift my soul to thee; In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes, Good Lord, remember me.

- When on my aching, burdened heart My sins lie heavily, Thy pardon grant, new peace impart; Good Lord, remember me.
- 3 When trials sore obstruct my way, And ills I cannot flee, Oh, let my strength be as my day; Good Lord, remember me.
- 4 And when before thy throne I stand, And lift my soul to thee, Then, with the saints at thy right hand, Good Lord, remember me.

SMART.

For Prudence and Wisdom.

- 1 FATHER of light! conduct my feet
 Through life's dark, dangerous road;
 Let each advancing step still bring Me nearer to my God.
- Let heaven-eyed prudence be my guide;
 And when I go astray,
 Recall my feet from folly's path
 To wisdom's better way.
- 8 Teach me in every various scene To keep my end in sight;
 And while I tread life's mazy track,
 Let wisdom guide me right.

- 4 That heavenly wisdom from above Abundantly impart; And let it guard, and guide, and warm, And penetrate my heart.
- 5 Till it shall lend me to thyself,
 Fountain of bliss and love!
 And all my darkness be dispersed
 In endless light above.

Purposes of God developed by his Providence.

- God moves in a mysterious way,
 His wonders to perform;
 He plants his footsteps in the sea,
 And rides upon the storm.
- 2 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take; The clouds ye so much dread Are big with mercy, and shall break In blessings on your head.
- 3 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But trust him for his grace; Behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face.
- 4 His purposes will ripen fast
 Unfolding every hour;
 The bud may have a bitter taste,
 But sweet will be the flower.
- 5 Blind unbelief is sure to err, And sean his work in vain; God is his own interpreter, And he will make it plain.

Holy Aspirations.

1 THE Saviour now is gone before To you blest realms of light: Oh, thither may our spirits soar, And wing their upward flight.

- 2 Lord, make us to those joys aspire, That spring from love to thee, That pass the carnal heart's desire, And faith alone can see.
- 3 To guide us to thy glories, Lord, To lift us to the sky, Oh, may thy spirit still be poured Upon us from on high.

Looking to Christ.

R. BAXTER. |594

- 1 Curist leads me through no darker rooms Than he went through before; He that into God's kingdom comes, Must enter by the door.
- 2 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet Thy blessed face to see; For if thy work on earth be sweet, What must thy glory be?
- 3 Then shall I end my sad complaints, And weary, sinful days, And join with those triumphant saints, That sing Jehovah's praise.
- 4 My knowledge of that life is small, The eye of faith is dim; But 't is enough that Christ knows all, And I shall be with him.

593

BOWRING.

True Love to God and Christ,

- 1 My God, I love thee, not because I hope for heaven thereby: Nor yet that they who love thee not Must burn eternally.
- 2 Not with the hope of gaining aught, Nor seeking a reward; But as thyself hast loved me, O ever loving Lord!
- 3 E'en so I love thee, and will love. And in thy praise will sing; Because thou only art my Lord, And my eternal King.

Heaven desired.

 No drought of summer fears,
 The farther it pursues its course,
 The nobler it appears.

Who slumber in the Lord!
Oh, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward.

DODDRIDGE.

1 How gentle God's commands!

How kind his precepts are! "Come, cast your burdens on the Lord, 601 And trust his constant care."

Trust in God.

- 2 Beneath his watchful eye His saints securely dwell; That hand which bears all nature up, Shall guard his children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load Press down your weary mind? Haste to your heavenly Father's throne, And sweet refreshment find.

The Want within.

- 1 I FEEL within a want For ever burning there: What I so thirst for, kindly grant, O thou who hearest prayer!
- 2 This is the thing I crave,— A likeness to thy Son; This boon would I much rather have Than call the world my own.

Watchful Care.

- 1 How are thy servants blest, O Lord! How sure is their defence! Eternal Wisdom is their guide, Their help, Omnipotence.
- 2 In foreign realms and lands remote, Supported by thy care, Thro' burning climes they pass unhurt, And breathe in tainted air.
- 8 In midst of dangers, fears, and death, Thy goodness we'll adore; We'll praise thee for thy mercies past, And humbly hope for more.

Mrs. Steele Trust in the Divine Will.

- I This only can my fears control, And bid my sorrows fly; What harm can ever reach my soul Beneath my Father's eye?
- Whate'er thy providence denies, I calmly would resign; For thou art good, and just, and wise; Oh, bend my will to thine.

Whate'er thy sacred will ordains, Oh, give me strength to bear; And let me know my Father reigns, And trust his tender care.

HYMORS OF THE AGES. If He is Mine.

- 1 IF God is mine, then present things And things to come are mine; Yea, Christ, his word, and spirit too, And glory all divine.
- 2 If he is mine, then from his love He every trouble sends; All things are working for my good, And bliss his rod attends.
- Let wealth and honor flee; Sure he who giveth me himself Is more than these to me.
- 4 Oh, tell me, Lord, that thou art mine! What can I wish beside? My soul shall at the fountain live When all the springs are dried.

606

HEGINBUTEAE, Constant Care of God.

- Gratitude for Redemption. 1 THE Lord our God has sent his Son To save our race, And give us at his glorious throne A rightful place.

- With one accord, And all our pow'rs henceforth employ To praise the Lord.

O. W. HOLMES. Hymn of Trust.

1 0 Love divine, that stooped to share Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear, On thee we cast each earth-born care, We smile at pain while thou art near!

2 Though long the weary way we tread, And sorrows crowd each lingering year, No path we shun, no darkness dread, Our hearts still whispering, thou art near!

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief, And trembling faith is changed to fear, The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf, Shall softly tell us, thou art near!

4 On thee we fling our burdening woe, O Love Divine, forever dear, Content to suffer, while we know, Living and dying, thou art near.

612 MONTGOMERY. Following after God.

1 0 God, thou art my God alone; Early to thee my soul shall cry, A pilgrim in a land unknown, A thirsty land, whose springs are dry.

2 Yet, through this rough and thorny 3 Oh, let the love my soul inflame, I follow hard on thee, my God; [maze, Thine hand unseen upholds my ways, I lean upon thy staff and rod.

3 Thee, in the watches of the night, When I remember on my bed, Thy presence makes the darkness light, Thy guardian wings are round my head.

4 Better than life itself thy love, Dearer than all beside to me; For whom have I in heaven above, Or what on earth, compared with thee?

613 ALICE CARY. The Way.

1 I CANNOT plainly see the way, So dark my path is; but I know If I do truly work and pray, Some good will brighten out of woe.

2 I said I could not see the way, And yet what need is there to see, More than to do what good I may, And trust the great God over me?

614 Enjoyment of Christ's Love.

1 Jesus, thy boundless love to me, No thought can reach, no tongue declare, Unite my thankful heart to thee, And reign without a rival there.

2 Thy love, how cheering is its ray! All pain before its presence flies; Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away Where'er its healing beams arise.

And to thy service sweetly bind; Transfuse it through my inmost frame, And mould me wholly to thy mind.

4 Thy love, in sufferings, be my peace: Thy love, in weakness, make me strong; And, when the storms of life shall cease, Thy love shall be in heaven my song.

MRS. WILLARD.

- Now let our souls on wings sublime, Rise from the vanities of time, Draw back the parting veil, and see The glories of eternity.
- 2 Born by a new celestial birth, Why should we grovel here on earth? Why grasp at transitory toys, So near to heaven's eternal joys?
- 3 Shall aught beguile us on the road, When we are walking back to God? For strangers into life we come, And dying is but going home.

LO TENNYSON. And all is well.

- 1 LOVE is and was my Lord and King, And in his presence I attend To hear the tidings of my friend, Which every hour his couriers bring.
- 2 Love is and was my King and Lord, And will be, though as yet I keep Within his court on earth, and sleep Encompassed by his faithful guard.
- 3 And hear at times a sentinel
 Who moves about from place to place,
 And whispers to the worlds of space
 In the deep night, that all is well.
- 4 And all is well, though faith and form
 Be sundered in the night of fear;
 Well roars the storm to those that hear
 A deeper voice across the storm.

1 ROCKED in the cradle of the deep, I lay me down in peace to sleep; Secure I rest upon the wave, For thou, O Lord, hast power to save.

Entire Trust.

- 2 I know thou wilt not slight my call, For thou dost mark the sparrow's fall; And calm and peaceful is my sleep, Rocked in the crudle of the deep.
- 3 And such the trust that still were mine, Though stormy winds swept o'er the brine, Or though the tempest's fiery breath Roused me from sleep to wreck and death!
- 4 In ocean cave still safe with thee, The germ of immortality; And calm and peaceful is my sleep, Rocked in the cradle of the deep.

HEGINBOTHAM.

A good Conscience.

- 1 Sweet peace of conscience, heav'nly guest, Come, fix thy mansion in my breast; Dispel my doubts, my fears control, And heal the anguish of my soul.
- 2 Come, smiling hope and joy sincere, Come, make your constant dwelling here; Still let your presence cheer my heart, Nor sin compel you to depart.
- 3 O God of hope and peace divine!
 Make thou these secret pleasures mine:
 Forgive my sins, my fears remove,
 And fill my heart with joy and love.

Jesus our Leader.

Furness.

- 1 FEEBLE, helpless, how shall I Learn to live and learn to die? Who, O God, my guide shall be? Who shall lead thy child to thee?
- 2 Blesséd Father, gracious One, Thou hast sent thy holy Son, He will give the light I need, He my trembling steps will lead.
- 3 Thus in deed, and thought, and word, Led by Jesus Christ the Lord, In my weakness, thus shall I Learn to live and learn to die.
- 4 Learn to live in peace and love, Like the perfect ones above;— Learn to die without a fear, Feeling thee, my Father, near.

HYMNS OF THE AGES. Confidence.

- 1 When we cannot see our way, Let us trust and still obey; He who bids us forward go, Cannot fail the way to show.
- 2 Though the sea be deep and wide, Though a passage seem denied; Fearless let us still proceed, Since the Lord vouchsafes to lead.
- 8 Though it seems the gloom of night, Though we see no ray of light: Since the Lord himself is there, "T is not meet that we should fear.

4 Night with him is never night; Where he is, there all is light; When he calls us, why delay; They are happy who obey.

The Christian rejoicing in Hope.

- 1 CHILDREN of the Heavenly King, As ye journey, sweetly sing; Sing your Saviour's worthy praise, Glorious in his works and ways.
- 2 Ye are travelling home to God, In the way the fathers trod; They are happy now, and ye Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest; You on Jesus' throne shall rest; There your seat is now prepared, There your kingdom and reward.
- 4 Lord, submissive make us go, Ready, leaving all below; Only thou our Leader be, And we still will follow thee.

LONGFELLOW.

623

A Psalm of Life.

1 Tell me not in mournful numbers, "Life is but an empty dream!" For the soul is dead that slumbers, And things are not what they seem.

- 2 Life is real! Life is earnest!
 And the grave is not its goal;
 "Dust thou art, to dust returnest,"
 Was not spoken of the soul.
- 3 Not enjoyment and not sorrow,
 Is our destined end or way;
 But to act, that each to-morrow
 Find us farther than to-day.
- 4 Let us then be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait.

624 Mrs. Hemans.
The greatest of these is Charity.

- 1 Meek and lowly, pure and holy, Chief among the blessed three, Turning sadness into gladness, Heaven-born art thou, Charity!
- 2 Pity dwelleth in thy bosom, Kindness reigneth o'er thy heart; Gentle thoughts alone can sway thee — Censure hath in thee no part.
- 3 Hoping ever, failing never, Though deceived, believing still; Long abiding, all confiding, To thy heavenly Father's will.

4 Never weary of well-doing, Never fearful of the end; Claiming all mankind as brothers, Thou dost all alike befriend.

625

Courage.

ANON.

BONAR

- 1 Father, hear the prayer we offer! Not for ease that prayer shall be, But for strength that we may ever Live our lives courageously.
- Not forever by still waters
 Would we idly quiet stay;
 But would smite the living fountains
 From the rocks along our way.
- 3 Be our strength in hours of weakness, In our wanderings, be our guide; Through endeavor, failure, danger, Father, be thou at our side!

626

Active Efforts.

- 1 Like the eagle, upward, onward, Let my soul in faith be borne: Calmly gazing, skyward, sunward, Let my eye unshrinking turn!
- Where the cross, God's love revealing, Sets the fettered spirit free, Where it sheds its wondrous healing, There, my soul, thy rest shall be!
- 3 Oh, may I no longer dreaming,
 Idly waste my golden day,
 But, each precious hour redeeming,
 Upward, onward press my way!

Efficacy of Love.

1 God only is the creature's home,
Though long and rough the road;
Yet nothing less can satisfy
The love that longs for God.

A trusting heart, a yearning eye, Can win their way above; If mountains can be moved by faith, Is there less power in love?

2 Dole not thy duties out to God,
But let thy hand be free:
Look long at Jesus; his sweet blood,
How was it dealt to thee?
Be docile to thine unseen Guide,
Love him as he loves thee;
Time and obedience are enough,
And thou a saint shall be!

628

C. WESLEY.

1 I WANT a principle within
Of jealous, godly fear;
A sensibility of sin,
A pain to find it near.
I want the first approach to feel
Of pride, or fond desire;

To catch the wandering of my will,
And quench the kindling fire.

From thee that I no more may part, No more thy goodness grieve, The filial awe, tne fleshly heart, The tender conscience give. Quick as the apple of the eye, O God, my conscience make! Awake my soul when sin is nigh, And keep it still awake.

629

WATTS.

Oh, that my Ways were directed to keep thy Statutes.

1 On, that the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still!
Oh, that my God would grant me grace
To know and do his will!
Oh, send thy spirit down to write
Thy law upon my heart!
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,

Nor act the liar's part.

2 Order my footsteps by thy word, And make my heart sincere; Let sin have no dominion, Lord, But keep my conscience clear. Make me to walk in thy commands,— 'T is a delightful road; Nor let my head, or heart, or hands, Offend against my God.

630

AHOE.

The Seed in good Ground.

1 Almighty God! thy word is cast
Like seed into the ground;
Let now the dew of heaven descend,
And righteous fruits abound.
Let not the world's deceitful cares
The rising plant destroy;
But let it yield, a hundred-fold,
The fruits of peace and joy.

Covenant of Grace.

1 My God! the covenant of thy love Abides forever sure; And in its matchless grace I feel My happiness secure.

- 2 Since thou, the everlasting God, My Father art become, Jesus my guardian and my friend, And heaven my final home;
- 3 I welcome all thy sovereign will, For all that will is love; And when I know not what thou dost, I wait the light above.
- 4 Thy covenant in the darkest gloom Shall heavenly rays impart, And when my eyelids close in death, Sustain my fainting heart.

632 ALICE CARY. The True Rest.

- 1 Each fearful storm that o'er us rolls, Each path of peril trod, Is but a means whereby our souls Acquaint themselves with God.
- 2 Our wants and weakness, shame and sin, 4 That peace which flows serene and deep, His pitying kindness prove, And all our lives are folded in The mystery of his love.
- 8 His sun is shining, sure and fast, O'er all our nights of dread; Our darkness by his light, at last, Shall be interpreted.

Our Heaven within.

1 THERE is a world,—and oh, how blest! Fairer than prophets told; And never did an angel guest One half its peace unfold.

2 Look not abroad, with roving mind, To seek that fair abode; It comes where'er the lowly find The perfect peace of God.

634 AMORL

God's Peace. 1 WE bless thee for thy peace, O God! Deep as the soundless sea, Which falls like sunshine on the road Of those who trust in thee.

2 We ask not, Father, for repose Which comes from outward rest, If we may have through all life's woes Thy peace within our breast; —-

3 That peace which suffers and is strong, Trusts where it cannot see, Deems not the trial way too long, But leaves the end with thee; -

A river in the soul, Whose banks a living verdure keep: God's sunshine o'er the whole!

5 Such, Father, give our hearts such peace, Whate'er the outward be, Till all life's discipline shall cease, And we go home to thee.

Heavenly Joy on Earth.

- 1 Come, ye that love the Lord, And let your joys be known; Join in a song with sweet accord, And thus surround the throne.
- 2 The sorrows of the mind Be banished from the place! Religion never was designed To make our pleasures less.
- 3 The hill of Zion yields A thousand sacred sweets, Before we reach the heavenly fields, Or walk the golden streets.
- 4 Then let our songs abound, And every tear be dry; [ground, We're marching through Immanuel's To fairer worlds on high.

636

MONTGOMERY. 638 The True Rest.

- 1 On, where shall rest be found, Rest for the weary soul? "I were vain the ocean depths to sound, Or pierce to either pole:
- 2 The world can never give The bliss for which we sigh; "T is not the whole of life to live, Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears, There is a life above, Unmeasured by the flight of years, And all that life is love.

WATTS. |637

MISS PLETCHER. Where is Heaven!

- 1 Our heaven is everywhere, If we but love the Lord, Unswerving tread the narrow way, And ever shun the broad.
- 2 'T is where the trusting heart Bows meekly to its grief, Still looking up with earnest faith For comfort and relief.
- 3 Where guileless infancy In happiness doth dwell, And where the aged one can say, "He hath done all things well."
- 4 Wherever truth abides, Sweet peace is ever there; If we but love and serve the Lord, Our heaven is everywhere.

L. R. Steel For the Gifts of the Spirit.

- 1 SEND down thy truth, O God! Too long the shadows frown; Too long the darkened way we've trod: Thy truth, O Lord! send down.
- 2 Send down thy love, thy life, Our lesser lives to crown, And cleanse them of their hate and strife: Thy living love send down.
- 3 Send down thy peace, O Lord! Earth's bitter voices drown In one deep ocean of accord: Thy peace, O God! send down.

639 MONTGOMERY. 641 The Soul returning to God.

1 RETURN, my soul, unto thy rest, [cares, 1 HATH not thy heart within thee burned From vain pursuits and maddening From lonely woes that wring thy breast, The world's allurements, toils, and snares.

- 2 Return unto thy rest, my soul, From all the wanderings of thy thought; From sickness unto death made whole; Safe through a thousand perils brought.
- 3 Then to thy rest, my soul, return, From passions every hour at strife; Sin's works, and ways, and wages spurn, Lay hold upon eternal life.
- 4 God is thy rest; with heart inclined 4 Still be thy hallowed accents near; To keep his word, that word believe; Christ is thy rest; — with lowly mind, His light and easy yoke receive.

640 Peace in Believing.

- 1 FAR from the Lord I wandered long, Until the Gentle Shepherd came, And called me to the lowly throng, Who love his word and own his name.
- 2 Now in that peaceful fold I dwell, And hear his voice of love divine: Oh, for seraphic tongues, to tell What joys unspeakable are mine.
- 3 Within my heart a temple stands, And there the Lord of life comes down: Soon in a house not made with hands I shall receive my angel-crown.

BULFINGEL Did not our Hearts burn within us?

- At evening's calm and holy hour, As if its inmost depths discerned The presence of a loftier power?
- 2 As they who once with Jesus trod. With kindling breast his accents hearc But knew not that the Son of God Was uttering every burning word,-
- 3 Father of Jesus, thus thy voice Speaks to our hearts in tones divine Our spirits tremble and rejoice, But know not that the voice is thine
- To doubt and passion whisper peace Direct us on our journey here, [cease And bid, in heaven, our wanderings

HARRIS. | 642 DODDRIDGE. Communing with our Hearts.

- 1 RETURN, my roving heart, return, And chase these shadowy forms no more; Seek out some solitude to mourn, And thy forsaken God implore.
- 2 And thou, my God, whose piercing eye Distinct surveys each deep recess, In these abstracted hours draw nigh, And with thy presence fill the place.
- 3 Through all the mazes of my heart, My search let heavenly wisdom guide: And still its radiant beams impart, Till all be searched and purified.

BEARD'S COLL. God's Care our Comfort.

- 1 OH! sweet it is to know, to feel, [here, In all our gloom, our wanderings No night of sorrow can conceal Man from thy notice, from thy care.
- 2 When disciplined by long distress, And led through paths of fear and woe, Say, dost thou love thy children less? No! ever gracious Father, no!
- 3 No distance can outstretch thine eye, No night obscure thy endless day; Be this my comfort when I sigh, Be this my safeguard when I stray.

644 MME. GUYON. The omnipresent Peace of God.

- 1 0 Thou, by long experience tried, Near whom no grief can long abide; My Lord, how full of sweet content My years of pilgrimage are spent!
- 2 All scenes alike engaging prove, To souls impressed with sacred love; Where'er they dwell, they dwell in thee, 1 No bliss I'll seek, but to fulfil In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.
- 3 To their remains nor place nor time; Their country is in every clime; They can be calm and free from care On any shore, since God is there.
- 4 While place we seek, or place we shun, The soul finds happiness in none;

But with a God to guide our way, 'T is equal joy to go or stay.

Goodness of God in Affliction,

AMON.

- 1 I BLESS thee, Lord, for sorrows sent To break the dream of human power, For now my shallow cistern's spent, I find thy fount and thirst no more.
- 2 I take thy hand and fears grow still; Behold thy face, and doubts remove; Who would not yield his wavering will To perfect truth and boundless love!
- 3 That truth gives promise of a dawn, Beneath whose light I am to see, When all these blinding vails are drawn, This was the wisest path for me.
- 4 That love this restless soul doth teach The strength of thy eternal calm; And tune its sad and broken speech, To sing ev'n now the angels' psalm.

646

AHOE.

Trust in Trouble.

- In life, in death, thy perfect will; No succor in my woes I want, But what my Lord is pleased to grant.
- 2 Our days are numbered: let us spare Our anxious hearts a needless care; 'T is thine to number out our days; "T is ours to give them to thy praise.

A Rest remaineth.

1 LORD! we believe a rest remains To all thy people known: A rest where pure enjoyment reigns; -For thou art served alone:—

- 2 A rest where all our soul's desire Is fixed on things above; Where fear, and sin and grief expire Cast out by perfect love.
- Believe and enter in! Thou Holiest! now the power bestow, And let us cease from sin.
- 4 Remove this hardness from our lieart, This unbelief remove: The rest of perfect faith impart, The Sabbath of thy love.

648

RIPPON'S COLL.

1 FATHER! whate'er of earthly bliss Thy sovereign will denies,

Peace with God.

Accepted at thy throne of grace, Let this petition rise:—

- 2 "Give me a calm, a thankful heart, From every murmur free; The blessings of thy grace impart, And make me live to thee.
- 8 "Let the sweet hope that thou art mine 3 Oh, never let my soul remove My life and death attend; Thy presence through my journey shine, And crown my journey's end."

C. WESLEY. | 649

Benevolence of God's Decrees.

HERVEY.

1 Since all the varying scenes of time God's watchful eye surveys,

- Oh, who so wise to choose our lot, Or to appoint our ways!
- 2 Good, when he gives, supremely good; Nor less when he denies; Ev'n crosses, from his sovereign hand, Are blessings in disguise.
- 3 Oh, that we now that rest might know, 3 Why should we doubt a Father's love, So constant and so kind! To his unerring, gracious will Be every wish resigned.
 - 4 In thy fair book of life divine, My God, inscribe my name; There let it fill some humble place Beneath my Lord the Lamb!

650

MRS. STREET, The safe Retreut.

- 1 DEAR Father, to thy mercy-seat My soul for shelter flies:
 - 'T is here I find a safe retreat When storms and tempests rise.
- 2 My cheerful hope can never die, If thou, my God, art near; Thy grace can raise my comforts high, And banish every fear.
- From this divine retreat! Still let me trust thy power and love, And dwell beneath thy feet.

651
Rejoicing in Hope of the Glory of God.

- 1 Know, my soul, thy full salvation;
 Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
 Joy to find in every station
 Something still to do or bear;
 Think what spirit dwells within thee;
 Think what Father's smiles are thine;
 Think what Jesus did to win thee;
 Child of heaven, canst thou repine?
- 2 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee;
 God's own hand shall guide thee there;
 Soon shall close thy earthly mission;
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days;
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

J. G. ADAMS.

Heaven here.

- 1 Heaven is here. Its hymns of gladness
 Cheer the true believer's way,
 In this world where sin and sadness
 Often change to night our day.
 Heaven is here; where misery lightened
 Of its heavy load is seen,
 Where the face of sorrow brightened
 By the deed of love hath been:
- 2 Where the bound, the poor, despairing, Are set free, supplied and blest; Where, in others' anguish sharing, We can find our surest rest.

Where we heed the voice of duty Rather than man's praise, or rod; This is heaven,—its peace, its beauty, Radiant with the smile of God.

653

Blessed be the Lord,

1 Blest be thou, O God of Israel!
Thou, our Father and our Lord!
Majesty is thine for ever;
Ever be thy name adored. [ness;
Thine, O Lord, our power and greatGlory, victory, are thine own;
All is thine in earth and heaven,
Over all thy boundless throne.

2 Riches come of thee, and honor; Power and might to thee belong; Thine it is to make us prosper, Only thine to make us strong. Lord, our God, for these, thy bounties, Hymns of gratitude we raise; To thy name, for ever glorious, Ever we address our praise.

654

Doxology.

PRAISE the God of our salvation, Praise the Father's boundless love; Praise the Lamb, our Great Redeemer; Praise the Spirit from above; Praise the fountain of salvation, Him by whom our spirits live; Earnest, heartfelt adoration To the great Jehovah give!

What is Death?

1 DEATH is the fading of a cloud, The breaking of a chain; The rending of a mortal shroud We ne'er shall find again.

- 2 Death is the conqueror's welcome home; The heavenly city's door; The entrance of the world to come— 'T is life for evermore.
- 3 Death is the close of life's alarms,—
 The watch light on the shore;—
 The clasping in immortal arms
 Of loved ones gone before.
- 4 Death is the gaining of a crown
 Where saints and angels meet;
 The laying of our burden down
 At the Deliverer's feet.
- 5 Death is the song from seraph lips; The dayspring from on high; — The ending of the soul's eclipse, — Its transit to the sky.

656

WHITTIER

God's Love and Care.

- 1 I Long for household voices gone, For vanished smiles I long, But God hath led my dear ones on, And he can do no wrong.
- 2 I know not what the future hath
 Of marvel or surprise,
 Assured alone that life and death
 His mercy underlies.

- 3 And if my heart and flesh are weak
 To bear an untried pain,
 The bruised reed he will not break,
 But strengthen and sustain.
- 4 And so beside the silent sea
 I wait the muffled oar;
 No harm from him can come to me
 On ocean or on shore.
- 5 I know not where his islands lift
 Their fronded palms in air;
 I only know I cannot drift
 Beyond his love and care.

657

MONIGOMERY

Christian Hope.

- 1 The broken ties of happier days, How often do they seem To come before the mental gaze, Like a remembered dream;
- 2 And earthly hand can ne'er again Unite these broken ties, Around us each dissevered chain In sparkling ruin lies.
- 3 Oh, who in such a world as this, Could bear their lot of pain, Did not one radiant hope of bliss Unclouded yet remain?
- 4 That hope the sovereign Lord has given, Who reigns above the skies;—
 Hope, that unites our souls to heaven, By faith's endearing ties.

MONTGOMERY. Freedom in Death.

- 1 "SPIRIT, leave thy house of clay; Lingering dust, resign thy breath; Spirit, cast thy chains away; Dust, be thou dissolved in death!"
- 2 Thus the mighty Saviour speaks, While the faithful Christian dies; Thus the bonds of life he breaks, And the ransomed captive flies.
- 3 Prisoner, long detained below,
 Prisoner, now with freedom blest,
 Welcome from a world of woe;
 Welcome to a land of rest.

659

ANOR

- Diago.

 1 CLAY to clay, and dust to dust:
 Let them mingle for they must!
 Give to earth the earthly clod,
 For the spirit's fled to God.
- 2 Deep the pit, and cold the bed, Where the spoils of death are laid; Stiff the curtains, chill the gloom, Of man's melancholy tomb.
- 3 Never more shall midnight's damp Darken round this mortal lamp; Never more shall noonday's glance Search this mortal countenance.
- 4 Look aloft! The spirit's risen— Death cannot the soul imprison; "T is in heaven that spirits dwell, Glorious, though invisible.

660

WESLET'S COLL.
Blessed are the Dead, that die in the Lord.

- 1 READY for their glorious crown,— Sorrows past and sins forgiven,— Here they lay their burthen down, Hallowed and made meet for heaven.
- 2 Yes! the Christian's course is run; Ended is the glorious strife; Fought the fight, the work is done; Death is swallowed up in life.

661

Trust in God.

- 1 WE would leave, O God! to thee Every anxious care and fear; Thou the troubled thought canst see, Thou canst dry the bitter tear.
- 2 Thou dost care for us, we know,— Care with all a Father's love; Thou caust make each earthly woe Work to higher bliss above.

662

S. F. ADAMS

Dows and Tears.

- 1 GENTLY fall the dews of eve, Raising still the languid flowers; Sweetly flow the tears that grieve O'er a mourner's stricken hours,—
- 2 Blesséd dews and tears, that yet Lift us nearer unto heaven. Let us still his praise repeat, Who in mercy all hath given.

MONTGOMERY.

Death, and Entrance on Immortality.

1 O God unseen — but not unknown! Thine eye is ever fixed on me; I dwell beneath thy secret throne, Encompassed by thy deity.

- 2 The moment comes when strength must fail, When, health and hope and comfort I must go down into the vale [flown, And shade of death, with thee alone:
- 3 Alone with thee: in that dread strife, Uphold me through mine agony, And gently be this dying life Exchanged for immortality.
- 4 Then, when th' unbodied spirit lands Where flesh and blood have never trod. And in the unveiled presence stands, Of thee, my Saviour and my God:
- 5 Be mine eternal portion this, Since thou wert always here with me, That I may view thy face in bliss, And be for evermore with thee.

664The Fellowship of Christ's Sufferings.

- 1 FAINT not, poor traveller, though the way Be rough, like that thy Saviour trod; Though cold and stormy lower the day: This path of suffering leads to God.
- 2 Nay, sink not, though from every limb 4 Rejoice amid thy sorrow's tears; Are starting drops of toil and pain: Thou dost but share the lot of Him With whom his followers are to reign.

- 3 Christian, thy Friend, thy Master, praved While dread and anguish shook his frame, Then met his sufferings undismayed: Wilt thou not strive to do the same?
- 4 Oh, thinkest thou his Father's love Shone round him then with fainter rays Than now, when, throned all height above. Unceasing voices hymn his praise?
- Go, sufferer; calmly meet the woes Which God's own mercy bids thee bear; Then, rising as thy Saviour rose, Go, his eternal victory share.

665

HARRIS.

Children borne Home by Angels.

- 1 "WITH roses crown his baby head; Close with a kiss his tender eyes; Strew lilies o'er his cradle bed, For he shall wake in Paradise."
- 2 What music fills the silent room? Oh, list! the guardian angel sings: "Our spirit rosebud springs to bloom, Our spirit-bird unfolds its wings."
- 3 O mother! look with inward eyes; Dear heart! at once bereaved and blest Behold the infant cherub rise; He smiles upon an angel's breast.
- Rejoice, for unto thee 't was given To swell the music of the spheres, To bear an angel-babe for heaven.

666 MRS. BARBAULD. Death of the Righteous.

- 1 Sweet is the scene when virtue dies! When sinks a rightcous soul to rest; How mildly beam the closing eyes, How gently heaves th' expiring breast!
- 2 So fades a summer cloud away, So sinks the gale when storms are o'er, So gently shuts the eye of day, So dies a wave along the shore.
- 3 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears, Where lights and shades alternate dwell How bright the unchanging morn appears! Farewell, inconstant world, farewell!
- 4 Life's duty done, as sinks the clay, Light from its load the spirit flies; While heaven and earth combine to say, "How blest the righteous when he dies!"

667 WATTS. Christ's Presence makes Death easy.

- 1 Why should we start and fear to die? What timorous worms we mortals are! Death is the gate of endless joy, And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife, 1 How blest is he whose tranquil mind, Fright our approaching souls away; Still we shrink back again to life, Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 Oh! if my Lord would come and meet, 2 So, when the transient storm is past, My soul should stretch her wings in haste. Fly fearless through death's iron gate, Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

4 Jesus can make a dying bed Feel soft as downy pillows are, While on his breast I lean my head, And breathe my life out sweetly there.

668

AHOR.

ABOK.

1 DEAR is the spot where Christians sleep, And sweet the strains their spirits pour; Oh, why should we in anguish weep? —

Gone before.

They are not lost, but gone before. 2 Secure from every mortal care, By sin and sorrow vexed no more,

Eternal happiness they share Who are not lost, but gone before.

3 To Zion's peaceful courts above, In faith triumphant may we soar, Embracing, in the arms of love, The friends not lost, but gone before.

4 To Jordan's bank whene'er we come, And hear the swelling waters roar, Jesus! convey us safely home,

To friends not lost, but gone before.

669

A well-spent Life.

When life declines, recalls again The years that time has cast behind, And reaps delight from toil and pain.

The sudden gloom and driving shower, The sweetest sunshine is the last; The loveliest is the evening hour.

Clearing to Earth.

1 Earth's children cleave to earth; her frail,
Decaying children dread decay;
Yon wreath of mist that leaves the vale,
And lessens in the morning ray,—

- 2 Look, how by mountain rivulet It lingers as it upward creeps, And clings to fern and copsewood set Along the green and dewy steeps.
- 8 Yet all in vain it passes still From hold to hold, it cannot stay; And in the very beams that fill The world with glory wastes away.
- 4 Till, parting from the mountain's brow, It vanishes from human eye, And that which sprung of earth is now A portion of the glorious sky.

671 T. W. HIGGINSON. I will arise and go unto my Father.

- 1 To thine eternal arms, O God,
 Take us, thy erring children, in;
 From dangerous paths too boldly trod,
 From wandering thoughts and dreams of sin.
- 2 Those arms were round our childish ways, A guard through helpless years to be; Oh, leave not our maturer days; We still are helpless without thee.
- 8 We trusted hope, and pride, and strength; Our strength proved false, our pride was vain; Our dreams have faded all at length; We come to thee, O Lord, again.

4 A guide to trembling steps yet be; Give us of thine eternal powers; So shall our paths all lead to thee, And life smile on like childhood's hours.

How to learn of God. MME. GUYON.

- 1 If thou of God wouldst truly learn, His wisdom, goodness, glory see, All human arts and knowledge spurn, Let love alone thy teacher be.
- 2 Love is my master. When it breaks The morning light, with rising ray, To thee, O God! my spirit wakes, And love instructs it all the day.

673

ANON.

1 FATHER, beneath thy sheltering wing, In sweet security we rest; And fear no evil earth can bring; In life, in death, supremely blest.

Rest in God.

- 2 For life is good whose tidal flow The motions of thy will obeys; And death is good, that makes us know The Love Divine that all things sways.
- 3 And good it is to bear the cross,
 And so thy perfect peace to win;
 And naught is ill, nor brings us loss,
 Nor works us harm, save only sin!
- 4 Redeemed from sin we ask no more, But trust the love that saves, to guide; The grace that yields so rich a store Will grant us all we need beside.

674 THOMAS HOOD.

Farewell Life! Welcome Life!

- 1 FAREWELL life! My senses swim,
 And the world is growing dim:
 Thronging shadows cloud the light,
 Like the advent of the night—
- Colder, colder, colder still,
 Upward steals a vapor chill;
 Strong the earthy odor grows,—
 I smell the mould above the rose.
- 3 Welcome life! the spirit strives! Strength returns and hope revives; Cioudy fears and shapes forlorn Fly like shadows at the morn;
- 4 O'er the earth there comes a bloom; Sunny light for sullen gloom, Warm perfume for vapor cold — I smell the rose above the mould!

675

The Just in Heaven.

- 1 SEE the runsomed millions stand,—
 Palms of conquest in their hands!
 This before the throne their strain,—
 "Hell is vanquished—death is slain!—
- 2 Blessing, honor, glory, might, Are the Conqueror's native right! Thrones and powers before him fall,— Lamb of God, and Lord of all!"
- 3 Hasten, Lord! the promised hour; Come in glory and in power! Still thy foes are unsubdued: Nature sighs to be renewed:

4 Time has nearly reached its sum:
All things with the Bride, say, "Come!"
Jesus! whom all worlds adore,
Come,—and reign forevermore!

676
RATFLES.

God shall wipe away all Tears from their Eyes.

- 1 High in yonder realms of light, Dwell the raptured saints above; Far beyond our feeble sight, Happy in Immanuel's love:
- 2 Pilgrims in this vale of tears, Once they knew, like us below, Gloomy doubts, distressing fears, Terturing pain, and I eavy woe.
- 3 But these days of weeping o'er,
 Passed this scene of toil and pain,
 They shall feel distress no more,—
 Never, never weep again:
- 4 'Mid the chorus of the skies,
 'Mid th' angelic lyres above,
 Hark, their songs melodious rise,—
 Songs of praise to Jesus' love!
- 5 All is tranquil and serene, Calm and undisturbed repose; There no cloud can intervene, There no angry tempest blows;
- 6 Every tear is wiped away, Sighs no more shall heave the breast, Night is lost in endless day, Sorrow, in eternal rest.

S. F. SMITH. Death of a Young Girl.

- 1 Sister, thou wast mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the trees.
- 2 Peaceful be thy silent slumber Peaceful in the grave so low: Thou no more wilt join our number; Thou no more our songs shalt know.
- 3 Dearest sister, thou hast left us; Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 't is God that hath bereft us: He can all our sorrows heal.
- 4 Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

678

HORNE

Autumn Warnings.

- 1 SEE the leaves around us falling, Dry and withered, to the ground; Thus to thoughtless mortals calling, In a sad and solemn sound:—
- 2 "Youth, on length of days presuming, Who the paths of pleasure tread,-View us, late in beauty blooming, Numbered now among the dead.
- 3 "What though yet no losses grieve you, 2 So the dying saint, departing, Gay with health and many a grace, Let not cloudless skies deceive you: Summer gives to autumn place.

4 On the tree of life eternal, Let our highest hopes be stayed; This alone, forever vernal, Bears a leaf that shall not fade.

679

R. C. WATERSTON. Death of a Female Scholar.

- 1 One sweet flower has drooped and faded. One sweet infant voice has fled, One fair brow the grave has shaded, One dear schoolmate now is dead.
- 2 But we feel no thought of sadness, For our friend is happy now; She has knelt in soul-felt gladness. Where the blesséd angels bow.
- 3 She has gone to heaven before us, But she turns and waves her hand, Pointing to the glories o'er us, In that happy spirit land.
- 4 God, our Father, watch above us, Keep us from all danger free; Do thou guard and guide and love us. Till, like her, we go to thee.

680

AHON

Death of the Righteous.

- 1 As the bird with warbling music Soars above our feeble sight, Singing still, and still ascending, Melting in the glorious light,-
- Joyful takes his heavenward way; Life, and time, and gladness blending In the light of perfect day.

BURLEIGH. Why seek ye the Living among the Dead?

- 1 AH! why should bitter tears be shed In sorrow o'er the mounded sod, When verily there are no dead Of all the children of our God?
- 2 They who are lost to outward sense Have but flung off their robes of clay, And, clothed in heavenly radiance, Attend us on our lowly way.
- 3 And oft their spirits breathe in ours The hope and strength and love of theirs, Which bloom as bloom the early flowers In breath of summer's viewless airs.
- 4 And silent aspirations start, In promptings of their purer thought, Which gently lead the troubled heart To joys not even Hope had wrought.

682 NORTON. Blessedness of the pious Dead.

- 1 OH, stay thy tears; for they are blest, Whose days are past, whose toil is done: Here midnight care disturbs our rest; Here sorrow dims the noonday sun.
- 2 How blest are they whose transient years 1 O Goo! thy grace and blessing give, Pass like an evening meteor's flight! Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears; Whose course is short, unclouded, bright.
- 3 Oh, cheerless were our lengthened way; But heaven's own light dispels the gloom, Streams downward from eternal day, And casts a glory round the tomb.

4 Oh, stay thy tears: the blest above Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth, And sung a song of joy and love; Then why should anguish reign on earth?

683 MRS. MACKAY. Asleep in Christ.

- 1 Asleep in Jesus! blesséd sleep! From which none ever wakes to weep: A calm and undisturbed repose. Unbroken by the dread of foes.
- Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest! Whose waking is supremely blest; No fear, no woes shall dim that hour, Which manifest the Saviour's power!
- 3 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space Debars this precious hiding-place; On Indian plains, or Lapland's snows, Believers find the same repose.
- Asleep in Jesus! far from thee Thy kindred and their graves may be; But thine is still a blesséd sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep

684 AHOR Be ye also Ready.

- To us who on thy name attend; That we this mortal life may live, Regardful of our journey's end.
- 2 Then shall not death with terror come: But welcome as a bidden guest,— The herald of a better home, The messenger of peace and rest.

The Better Land.

1 THERE is a land mine eye hath seen, In visions of enraptured thought, So bright that all which spreads between Is with its radiant glory fraught:—

- 2 A land upon whose blissful shore There rests no shadow, falls no stain; There those who meet shall part no more, And those long parted meet again.
- 3 Its skies are not like earthly skies,
 With varying hues of shade and light;
 It hath no need of suns to rise,
 To dissipate the gloom of night.
- 4 There sweeps no desolating wind Across that calm, serene abode; The wanderer there a home may find, Within the paradise of God.

The glorious World on High.

- 1 THERE is a glorious world on high, Resplendent with eternal day;
 Faith views the blissful prospect nigh.
 And God's own word reveals the way.
- 2 There shall the servants of the Lord With never-fading lustre shine; Surprising honor! large reward, Conferred on man by love divine!
- 8 The shining firmament shall fade, And sparkling stars resign their light; But these shall know no change nor shade, Forever fair, forever bright.

- Anon. 4 And shall not these cold hearts of ours
 Be kindled at the glorious view?
 Come, Lord, awake our active powers,
 Our feeble, dying strength renew.
 - On wings of faith and strong desire
 Oh, may our spirits daily rise;
 And reach at last the shining choir,
 In the bright mansions of the skies.

687

The World to Come.

ANON.

- 1 THERE is a world we have not seen, That wasting time can ne'er destroy, Where mortal footsteps have not been, Nor ear hath caught its sounds of joy.
- 2 That world to come! and oh, how blest!
 Fairer than prophets ever told;
 And never did an angel-guest
 One half its blessedness unfold.
- 3 It is all holy and serene,— The land of glory and repose; And there, to dim the radiant scene, No tear of sorrow ever flows.
- 4 It is not fanned by summer gale;
 "T is not refreshed by vernal showers;
 It never needs the moonbeam pale,
 For there are known no evening hours.
- 5 There forms unseen by mortal eye,
 Too glorious for our sight to bear,
 Are walking with their God on high,
 And waiting our arrival there.

There is a Calm for those who weep.

- 1 THERE is a calm for those who weep,
 A rest for weary pilgrims found;
 They softly lie, and sweetly sleep,
 Low in the ground.
- 2 The storm that racks the wintry sky No more disturbs their deep repose Than summer evening's latest sigh, That shuts the rose.
- 3 I long to lay this painful head
 And aching heart beneath the soil;
 To slumber in that dreamless bed,
 From all my toil.
- 4 The soul, of origin divine,
 God's glorious image, freed from clay,
 In heaven's eternal sphere shall shine,
 A star of day.
- 5 The sun is but a spark of fire, A transient meteor in the sky; The soul, immortal as its Sire, Shall never die.

689

Love of God in Affliction.

- 1 I CANNOT always trace the way Where thou, almighty One, dost move; But I can always, always say That God is love.
- When fear her chilling mantle flings O'er earth, my soul to heaven above, As to her native home, upsprings; For God is love.

- 3 When myst'ry clouds my darkened path, I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove; In this my soul sweet comfort hath, That God is love.
- 4 Oh, may this truth my heart employ, Bid every gloomy thought remove, And turn all tears, all woes to joy,— Thou, God, art Love.

690 CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT. Submission to God's Will.

- 1 My God, my Father, while I stray Far from my home, on life's rough way, Oh, teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will be done!"
- What though in lonely grief I sigh For friends beloved no longer nigh; Submissive still would I reply, "Thy will be done!"
- 3 If thou shouldst call me to resign What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine; I only yield thee what was thine:
 "Thy will be done!"
- 4 Renew my will from day to day; Blend it with thine, and take away Whate'er now makes it hard to say, "Thy will be done!"
- 5 Then when on earth I breathe no more, The prayer oft mixed with tears before, I'll sing upon a happier shore: "Thy will be done!"

WATTS.

691

A Prospect of the Heavenly Canaan.

1 THERE is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign; Infinite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain.

- 2 There everlasting spring abides, And never-withering flowers; Death, like a narrow sea, divides This heavenly land from ours.
- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood, 2 Stand dressed in living green; So, to the Jews, old Canaan stood, While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink, 3 Apostles, martyrs, prophets, there To cross this narrow sea, And linger shivering on the brink, And fear to launch away.
- 5 Oh, could we make our doubts remove, 4 Jerusalem! my happy home! Those gloomy doubts that rise, And see the Canaan that we love With unbeclouded eyes;

6 Could we but climb where Moses stood And view the landscape o'er, [flood Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold Should fright us from the shore.

692The Heavenly Home.

1 JERUSALEM! my happy home! Name ever dear to me! When shall my labors have an end In joy, in peace, and thee?

There happier bowers than Eden's Nor sin nor sorrow know: [bloom, Blest seats! through bright or stormy I onward press to you.

Around my Saviour stand; And soon my friends in Christ below Will join the glorious band.

My soul still pants for thee; Then shall my labors have an end. When I thy peace shall see.

(When singing four-line stansas, repeat last two lines of each.)

693 STERRETT. | 694 Prospect of the promised Land.

- 1 On Jordan's stormy banks I stand, And cast a wistful eye To Canaan's fair and happy land, Where my possessions lie.
- 2 Oh, the transporting, rapturous scene That rises to my sight! Sweet fields, arrayed in living green, And rivers of delight!
- 3 All o'er those wide-extended plains Shines one eternal day; There God, the sun, forever reigns, And scatters night away.
- Can reach that healthful shore; Sickness nor sorrow, pain and death, Are felt and feared no more.

DODDEIDGE. The Way to the Heavenly City

- 1 Sing, ye redeemed of the Lord, Your great Deliverer sing; Pilgrims, for Zion's city bound, Be joyful in your King.
- 2 A hand divine shall lead you on Through all the blissful road, Till to the sacred mount you rise, And see your Father, God.
- 3 There garlands of immortal joy Shall bloom on every head, While sorrow, sighing, and distress, Like shadows all are fled.
- 4 No chilling winds or poisonous breath 4 March on in your Redeemer's strength, Pursue his footsteps still, And let the prospect cheer your eye While laboring up the hill.

(In singing hymns 696 and 697, repeat third line of each verse.)

Heaven anticipated.

- 1 THERE is an hour of peaceful rest To mourning wanderers given; There is a joy for souls distressed, A balm for every wounded breast; Tis found alone in heaven.
- 2 There is a home for weary souls, By sins and sorrows driven, When toss'd on life's tempestu'us shoals, Where storms arise, and ocean rolls, And all is drear — 't is heaven.
- 3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye, The heart no longer riven,— And views the tempest passing by, Sees evening shadows quickly fly, And all serene in heaven.
- 4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom, And joys supreme are given; There rays divine disperse the gloom; 2 Beyond the storm, beyond the glocm, Beyond the dark and narrow tomb Appears the dawn of heaven.

WATTS.

Longing for Heaven.

- 1 FATHER! I long, I faint, to see The place of thine abode; I'd leave thine earthly courts, and flee Up to thy seat, my God!
- 2 Here I behold thy distant face, And 't is a pleasing sight; But, to abide in thine embrace Is infinite delight!

- W. B. TAPPAN. 3 I'd part with all the joys of sense To gaze upon thy throne; Pleasure springs fresh forever thence, Unspeakable, unknown.
 - 4 There all the heavenly hosts are seen: In shining ranks they move; And drink immortal vigor in, With wonder and with love.
 - 5 Father! I long, I faint, to see The place of thine abode; I'd leave thine earthly courts to be Forever with my God!

PLYNOUTH COLL. The Future Life.

- 1 THERE is a place of sacred rest, Far, far beyond the skies; Where beauty smiles eternally, And pleasure never dies.
- Breaks forth the light of morn; Bright beaming from the Father's house.

To cheer the soul forlorn.

- 3 The vision of that heavenly home Shall cheer the parting soul; And o'er it, mounting to the skies. A tide of rapture roll.
- 4 For there adieus are sounds unknown: Death frowns not on that scene: But life and glorious beauty shine, Untroubled and serene.

Forever with the Lord.

Forever with the Lord,"
 Amen. So let it be;
 Life from the dead is in that word,
 And immortality.
 Here in the body pent,

Absent from him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.

- 2 My Father's house on high,
 Home of my soul, how near,
 At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
 Thy golden gates appear!
 Yet doubts still intervene,
 And all my comfort flies;
 Like Noah's dove, I flit between
 Rough seas and stormy skies.
- 8 "Forever with the Lord!"
 Father, if 't is thy will,
 The promise of thy gracious word,
 E'en here to me fulfil.
 Be thou at my right hand,
 So I shall never fail:
 Uphold me, and I needs must stand;
 Fight, and I shall prevail.

4 So, when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing "as I am known,"
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
"Forever with the Lord!"

Heaven.

MRS. STEELS

- 1 FAR from these scenes of night
 Unbounded glories rise,
 And realms of infinite delight,
 Unknown to mortal eyes.
 No cloud those regions know,
 Forever bright and fair;
 For sin, the source of mortal woe,
 Can never enter there.
- 2 There night is never known, Nor sun's faint, sickly ray; But glory from th' eternal throne Spreads everlasting day. Oh, may this prospect fire Our hearts with ardent love! And lively faith and strong desire Bear every thought above.

The Freed Spirit.

- 1 DEATHLESS principle, arise;
 Soar, thou native of the skies;
 Pearl of price, by Jesus bought,
 To his glorious likeness wrought,
 Go to shine before his throne,
 Deck his mediatorial crown;
 Go, his triumphs to adorn,
 Made for God—to God return.
- 2 Burst thy shackles, drop thy clay, Sweetly breathe thyself away; Singing, to thy crown remove, Swift of wing, and fired with love. Shudder not to pass the stream; Venture all thy care on him; Him, whose dying love and power Stilled its tossing, hushed its roar.
- 3 Saints in glory perfect made,
 Wait thy passage through the shade;
 Ardent for thy coming o'er,
 See, they throng the blissful shore;
 Mount, their transports to improve,
 Join the longing choir above;
 Swiftly to their wish be given;
 Kindle higher joy in heaven.

The faithful Dead.

1 HARK! a voice divides the sky!

Happy are the faithful dead
In the Lord who sweetly die!

They from all their toils are freed.

- Yes! the Christian's course is run! Ended is the glorious strife; Fought the fight, the work is done; Death is swallowed up in life!
- 2 Lo! the prisoner is released Lightened of his heavy load; Where the weary are at rest, He is gathered unto God! When from flesh the spirit freed, Hastens homeward to return, Mortals cry, "A man is dead!" Angels sing, "A child is born!"

MONTGOMERY.

Christ Lord of All.

- 1 Palms of glory, raiment bright,
 Crowns that never fade away,
 Gird and deck the saints in light;
 Priests, and kings, and conquerors, they.
 Yet the conquerors bring their palms
 To the Lamb amid the throne,
 And proclaim, in joyful psalms,
 Victory through his cross alone.
- 2 Kings for harps their crowns resign, Crying, as they strike the chords,— "Take the kingdom; it is thine, King of kings, and Lord of lords." Round the altar priests confess, If their robes are white as snow, "T was their Saviour's righteousness, And his blood, that made them so.

Memory of the Just.

- 1 EARTH's transitory things decay, Its pomps, its pleasures pass away; But the sweet memory of the good Survives in the vicissitude.
- 2 As 'mid the ever-rolling sea,
 The eternal isles established be,
 'Gainst which the surges of the main
 Fret, dash, and break themselves in vain:—
- 3 As in the heavens the urns divine Of golden light forever shine; [rage, Though clouds may darken, storms may They still shine on from age to age:—
- 4 So, through the ocean-tide of years,
 The memory of the just appears;
 So, through the tempest and the gloom.
 The good man's virtues light the tomb.

Preparation for Heaven.

- 1 Heaven is a place of rest from sin, But all who hope to enter there Should here that holy course begin Which shall their souls for rest prepare.
- 2 Clean hearts, O God, in us create; Right spirits in us, Lord, renew; Commence we now that higher state; Now do thy will as angels do.
- 8 In Jesus' footsteps may we tread,
 Learn every lesson of his love;
 And be from grace to glory led,
 From heaven below to heaven above.

The River of Life.

1 THERE is a pure and peaceful wave,

- That issues from the throne of love,
 Whose waters gladden as they lave
 The bright and heavenly courts above.
- 2 The pilgrim faint, who seems to sink
 Beneath the sultry sky of time,
 May here repose, and freely drink
 The waters of that better clime.
- 3 And every soul may here partake
 The blessings of the fount above;
 And none who drink will e'er forsake
 The crystal stream of boundless love.

 Sad truth, were this to be our home;
 But let this thought our spirits cheer.
 "We seek a city yet to come."

 We seek a city out of sight;
 Zion its name, the Lord is there,
 It shines with everlasting light.

 Where pilgrims freed from toil are blest!
 Had I the pinions of the dovo,
 I'd fly to thee, and be at rest.

On the Death of an aged Christian,

- "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course."
- 1 SERVANT of God, well done!
 Rest from thy loved employ:
 The battle fought, the victory won,
 Enter thy Master's joy.
- 2 The voice at midnight came,
 He started up to hear;
 A mortal arrow pierced his frame—
 He fell, but felt no fear.
- 3 Tranquil amidst alarms,
 It found him on the field,
 A veteran slumbering on his arms,
 Beneath his red-cross shield.
- 4 His spirit, with a bound,
 Burst its encumbering clay;
 His tent, at sunrise, on the ground,
 A darkened ruin lay.
- 5 The pains of death are past, Labor and sorrow cease. And life's long warfare closed at last, His soul is found in peace.
- 6 Soldier of Christ! well done!
 Praise be thy new employ;
 And while eternal ages run,
 Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

 And her unending song.
- 8 For not like kingdoms of the world The Holy Church of God: [her, Though earthquake shocks are rocking And tempests are abroad,—

4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands,—
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A fane unbuilt by hands.

The River of Life.

- 1 THERE is a River, deep and broad;
 Its course no mortal knows:
 It fills with joy the Church of God,
 And widens as it flows.
- 2 Clearer than crystal is the stream, And bright with endless day; The waves with every blessing teem, And life and health convey.
- Where'er they flow, contentions cease,
 And love and meekness reign:
 The Lord himself commands the peace,
 And foes conspire in vain.
- 4 Along the shores, angelic bands
 Watch every moving wave:
 With holy joy their breast expands,
 When men the waters crave.
- 5 To them distressed souls repair;
 The Lord invites them nigh:
 They leave their cares and sorrows there;
 They drink, and never die.
- 6 Flow on, sweet stream, more largely The earth with glory fill; [flow, Flow on, till all the Saviour know, And all obey his will.

J. NEWTON.
Glorious Things spoken of Zion.

- 1 GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken, Zion, city of our God! He whose word cannot be broken Formed thee for his own abode.
- 2 On the Rock of Ages founded, What can shake thy sure repose? With salvation's walls surrounded, Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
- 3 See! the streams of living waters, Springing from eternal love, Well supply thy sons and daughters, And all fear of want remove.
- 4 Who can faint while such a river Ever flows, their thirst t'assuage? Grace, which, like the Lord, the giver, Never fails from age to age.
- 5 Round each habitation hovering, See the cloud and fire appear! For a glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near.
- 6 Fading is the worldling's pleasure, All his boasted pomp and show; Solid joys and lasting treasure None but Zion's children know.

740

Work in the Vineyard,

1 Saviour, visit thy plantation!
Grant us, Lord, a gracious rain:
All will come to desolation,
Unless thou return again.

- 2 Keep no longer at a distance, Shine upon us from on high, Lest, for want of thine assistance, Every plant should droop and die.
- 3 Once, O Lord, thy garden flourished; Every part looked gay and green; Then thy word our spirits nourished: Happy seasons we have seen.
- 4 But a drought has since succeeded, And a sad decline we see: Lord, thy help is greatly needed: Help can only come from thee.
- 5 Let our mutual love be fervent:
 Make us prevalent in prayer;
 Let each one esteemed thy servant
 Shun the world's bewitching snare.
- 6 Break the tempter's fatal power, Turn the stony heart to flesh, And begin from this good hour To revive thy work afresh.

741

God our Salvation.

- 1 Though benighted and forsaken, Though afflicted and distressed, God's almighty arm shall waken; Zion's King shall give thee rest.
- 2 Cease thy sadness, unbelieving; Soon his glory shalt thou see! Joy and gladness, and thanksgiving, And the voice of melody!

DWIGHT.

742

Attachment to the Church.

1 I LOVE thy church, O God; Her walls before thee stand, Dear as the apple of thine eye, And graven on thy hand.

- 2 For her my tears shall fall;
 For her my prayers ascend;
 To her my cares and toils be given,
 Till toils and cares shall end.
- 8 Beyond my highest joy
 I prize her heavenly ways,
 Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
 Her hymns of love and praise.
- 4 Sure as thy truth shall last,
 To Zion shall be given
 The brightest glories earth can yield,
 And brighter bliss of heaven.

743

BEDDOME

Christian Unity.

- 1 LET party names no more
 The Christian world o'erspread;
 Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,
 Are one in Christ, their Head.
- 2 Among the saints on earth
 Let mutual love be found;
 Heirs of the same inheritance,
 With mutual blessings crowned:
- 8 Envy and strife be gone,
 And only kindness known;
 While all one common Father have,
 One common Master own.

4 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above,
Where springs of purest pleasure rise,
And every heart is love.

744

Bonar

1 FAR down the ages now,
Much of her journey done,
The pilgrim Church pursues her way,
Until her crown be won.

Church Work.

- 2 No wider is the gate, No broader is the way, No smoother is the ancient path, That leads to life and day.
- 3 No slacker grows the fight,
 No feebler is the foe,
 Nor less the need of armor tried,
 Of shield and spear and bow.
- 4 Still faithful to our God,
 And to our Captain true,
 We follow where he leads the way,
 The kingdom in our view.

745

AMON

Still with Thee.

- 1 STILL with thee, O my God! I would desire to be; By day, by night, at home, abroad, I would be still with thee;—
- 2 With thee, in thee, by faith Abiding I would be: By day, by night, in life, in death, I would be still with thee,

C. WESLEY.

The Church below and above.

1 THE saints on earth and those above, But one communion make; Joined to the Lord in bonds of love, All of his grace partake.

- 2 One family, we dwell in him: One church above, beneath; Though now divided by the stream, The narrow stream of death.
- 3 One army of the living God, To his command we bow; Part of the host have crossed the flood, And part are crossing now.
- 4 O God, be thou our constant guide!
 Then, when the word is given,
 Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
 And land us safe in heaven.

747 Death and Life in Christ. SCHMOLCK.

- 1 Lord, let thy conquering banner wave O'er hearts thou makest free,
 And point the path that from the grave Leads heavenward up to thee.
- We bury all our sin and crime Deep in our Saviour's tomb,
 And seek the treasures there that time Nor change can e'er consume.
- 8 We die with thee: oh, let us live Henceforth to thee aright; The blessings thou hast died to give, Be daily in our sight.

4 Fearless we lay us in the tomb,
And sleep the night away,
If thou art there to break the gloom,
And call us back to day.

748

8. F. Smith.

1 PLANTED in Christ, the living Vine, This day, with one accord, Ourselves, with humble faith and joy

One in Christ.

We yield to thee, O Lord!
2 Joined in one body may we be;

One inward life partake;
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.

- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils, One wisdom be our guide; Taught by one spirit from above, In thee may we abide.
- 4 Then, when among the saints in light
 Our joyful spirits shine,
 Shall anthems of immortal praise,
 O Lamb of God, be thine.

749 This do in Remembrance of Me.

- 1 According to thy gracious word, In meek humility, This will I do, my dying Lord, — I will remember thee.
- 2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
 My bread from heaven shall be;
 Thy testamental cup I take,
 And thus remember thee.

750
Uniting with the Church.

- 1 O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice On thee, my Saviour, and my Lord! Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad.
- 2 Oh, happy bond that seals my vows To him who merits all my love! Let cheerful anthems fill the house, While to his altar now I move.
- 3 'T is done—the great transaction's I am my Lord's, and he is mine; [done; He drew me, and I followed on, Charmod to confess the voice divine.
- 4 Now rest, my long-divided heart!
 Fixed on this blissful centre, rest;
 Here have I found a nobler part,
 Here heavenly pleasures fill my breast.
- 5 High heaven, that hears the solemn vow, 2
 That vow renewed shall daily hear,
 Till in life's latest hour I bow,
 And bless in death a bond so dear.

751

Bearing with us the Dying of Jesus.

GARKELL.

- 1 Nor in this simple rite alone May Calvary's cross to us be shown, But may we turn, in many an hour, To feel its soul-constraining power.
- 2 When indolence would have its will, And selfish ease would keep us still, Then to the Saviour may we look, And meet his eye's serene rebuke.

- 3 When men have done us cruel wrong, And angry thoughts are rising strong, May we with softened hearts turn there, And learn the Lord's forgiving prayer.
- 4 When sin looks tempting in our eyes,
 May Jesus on the cross arise,
 And ask if we will him forsake,
 And wear the chains he died to break.
- 5 When pain, or sickness, or distress, Our fainting souls would overpress, To him on Calvary looking still, May we find strength to hear God's will.

752 STEMBETT.
Commemoration of Christ's Death.

- 1 Thus we commemorate the day
 On which our dearest Lord was slain:
 Thus we our pious homage pay,
 Till he appear on earth again.
- 2 Come, great Redeemer, open wide The curtains of the parting sky; On a bright cloud in triumph ride, And on the wind's swift pinions fly.

753
Welcome to Christian Fellowship.

- 1 Come in, thou blesséd of our God, In Jesus' name we bid thee come; No more thy feet shall roam abroad, Henceforth a brother,—welcome home.
- 2 Those joys which earth cannot afford, We'll seek in fellowship to prove, Joined in one spirit to our Lord, Together bound by mutual love.

754

Joined to God's People.

MONTGOMERY.

1 PEOPLE of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

- 2 Now to you my spirit turns,— Turns, a fugitive unblest; Brethren, where your altar burns, Oh, receive me into rest.
- 3 Lonely I no longer roam, Like the cloud, the wind, the wave Where you dwell shall be my home, Where you die shall be my grave.

755

RAY PALMER.

Gratitude for the Church.

1 Fount of everlasting love!
Rich thy streams of mercy are;
Flowing purely from above,
Beauty marks their course afar.

- Lo! thy Church, athirst and faint,
 Drinks the full, refreshing tide;
 Thou hast heard her sad complaint;
 Floods of grace are sweeping wide!
- 3 God of mercy, to thy throne
 Now our fervent thanks we bring;
 Thine the glory, thine alone,
 Joyous praise to thee we sing.
- 4 While we lift our grateful song, Let thy Spirit still descend;

Roll the tide of grace along, Widening, deepening, to the end!

756

A Communion Hymn.

- 1 Nor with terror do we meet At the board by Jesus spread; Not in mystery drink and eat Of the Saviour's wine and bread.
- 2 T is his memory we record, "T is his virtues we proclaim; Grateful to our honored Lord, Here we bless his sacred name.
- 3 Yes, we will remember thee,
 Friend and Saviour; and thy feast
 Of all services shall be
 Holiest and welcomest.

757

CONTRACT

- The Symbols of Spiritual Food.

 1 Bread of heaven, on thee we feed,
 For thy flesh is meat indeed;
 Ever let our souls be fed
 With this true and living bread.
- 2 Vine of heaven, thy blood supplies This blest cup of sacrifice; Lord, thy wounds our healing give; To thy cross we look and and live.
- 3 Day by day with strength supplied, Through the life of Him who died; Lord of life, oh, let us be Rooted, grafted, built on thee.

Christ's Law of Love.

ANON.

- 1 YE followers of the Prince of peace, Who round his table draw! Remember what his spirit was, What his peculiar law.
- 2 The love which all his bosom filled Did all his actions guide; Inspired by love, he lived and taught, Inspired by love, he died.
- 3 And do you love him? do you feel Your warm affection move? This is the proof which he demands, That you each other love.

759

Union with Christ in Sorrow.

- 1 Who, when beneath affliction's rod, Can inward rest attain, And bless the chastening love of God In some remembered strain?
- 2 Who, when in pain he lies apart, And powers of life decay, Can muse with holy joy of heart On some familiar lay?
- 8 He can suffice for these good things Whose mind with Christ's is one; Who closely in communion clings To God's most faithful Son.
- 4 O Saviour! Fount of wondrous might! 3 His true disciples may we live, Let me this gift receive: Thus, Lord, in sorrow's darkest night Thy servant's grief relieve.

5 Let songs of Zion, known of old Within the hallowed place, My spirit cheer, my faith uphold Through thine all-strengthening grace.

760 Thoughts at the Communion.

E. TAYLOR.

S. GILMAN.

- 1 OH, here, if ever, God of love! Let strife and hatred cease: And every thought harmonious move, And every heart be peace.
- 2 Not here, where met to think on him Whose latest thoughts were ours, Shall mortal passions come to dim The prayer devotion pours.
- 3 "Thy kingdom come;" we watch, we To hear thy cheering call; When heaven shall ope its glorious gate, And God be all in all.

761

Faithfulness to Christ.

- 1 O God, accept the sacred hour Which we to thee have given; And let this hallowed scene have power To raise our souls to heaven.
- 2 Still let us hold till life departs, The precepts of thy Son, Nor let our thoughtless, thankless hearts, Forget what he has done.
- From all corruption free, And humbly learn like him to give Our powers, our wills to Thee.

762 DOBUMENTON WITH God and Christ.

- 1 My heavenly Father calls,
 And Christ invites me near;
 With both my friendship shall be sweet,
 And my communion dear.
- 8 God pities all my griefs; He pardons every day; Almighty to protect my soul, And wise to guide my way.
- 3 Jesus, my living Head, I bless thy faithful care; My Advocate before the throne, And my Forerunner there.
- 4 Here fix my roving heart;
 Here wait my warmest love,
 Till the communion be complete,
 In nobler scenes above.

763

FURNESS.

- The Communion.
- 1 Here, in the broken bread, Here, in the cup we take, His body and his blood behold, Who suffered for our sake.
- 2 O thou, who didst allow
 Thy Son to suffer thus, [done,
 Father, what more couldst thou have
 Than thou hast done for us?
- 8 We are persuaded now
 That nothing can divide
 Thy children from thy boundless love,
 Displayed in Him who died;—

4 Who died to make us sure
Of mercy, truth, and peace,
And from the power and pains of sin
To bring a full release.

764

Active Effort, Stoodenst,

- 1 LABORERS of Christ, arise,
 And gird you for the toil!
 The dew of promise from the skies
 Already cheers the soil.
- 2 Go where the sick recline, Where mourning hearts deplore; And where the sons of sorrow pine, Dispense your hallowed store.
- 3 Be faith, which looks above, With prayer, your constant guest; And wrap the Saviour's changeless love A mantle round your breast.
- 4 So shall you share the wealth
 That earth may ne'er despoil,
 And the blest gospel's saving health
 Repay your arduous toil.

765

Obeying Christ,

- 1 Here, Saviour, we would come, In thine appointed way; Obedient to thy high commands, Our solemn vows we pay.
- 2 Oh, bless this sacred rite, To bring us near to thee; And may we find that as our day Our strength shall also be.

Yet there is Room.

1 YE wretched, hungry, starving poor,
Behold a royal feast,
Where Mercy spreads her bounteous store
For every humble guest.

- 2 There Jesus stands with open arms; He calls — he bids you come: Though guilt restrains, and fear alarms, Behold, there yet is room.
- 8 Oh, come, and with his children taste
 The blessings of his love;
 While hope expects the sweet repast
 Of nobler joys above.
- 4 There, with united heart and voice, Before th' eternal throne, Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice, In songs on earth unknown.
- 6 And yet ten thousand thousand more Are welcome still to come: Ye longing souls, the grace adore, Approach, there yet is room.

767 Room at the Lord's Table.

- MILLIONS of souls, in glory now, Were fed and feasted here;
 And millions more, still on the way, Around the board appear.
- 2 Yet is his house and heart so large That millions more may come: Nor could the whole assembled world E'er fill the spacious room.

3 All things are ready; come away,
Nor weak excuses frame;
Crowd to your places at the feast,
And bless the Founder's name.

768 LUTHERAN COLL. Close of Communion Service.

- 1 Pity the nations, O our God, Constrain the earth to come; Send thy victorious word abroad, And bring the strangers home.
- 2 We long to see thy churches full,
 That all thy faithful race
 May with one voice, and heart, and soul,
 Sing thy redeeming grace.

769

DODDEIDGE.

Remembering Christ,

NOBL

- 1 If human kindness meets return, And owns the grateful tie; If tender thoughts within us burn, To feel that friends are nigh,—
- 2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell
 The gratitude we owe
 To Him who died our fears to quel
 - To Him who died our fears to quell, And save from sin and woe?
- 3 While yet his anguished soul surveyed
 Those pangs he would not flee,
 What love his latest words displayed!—
 "Meet and remember me."
- 4 Remember thee! thy death, thy shame,
 The griefs which thou didst bear!
 Oh, memory! leave no other name
 But his recorded there.

J. LOMBARD. That they may all be one

I WHEN death was on the path he trod, And Jesus saw his work was done. He raised his eyes and prayed to God, That his disciples might be one.

- ? This, Father, is our prayer to-day, That we may one in spirit be, [way, Through Christ, who came to teach the 5 And all united, God, in thee!
- 3 One in the Faith that works by love And purifies the heart and life; One in the Hope that looks above, And sees an end of sin and strife:
- 4 One in the Love that warms the heart And makes it thy most worthy shrine; And one in thee, O God, who art The Giver of these gifts divine;
- 5 Through life, and till we reach its goal, When what we have to do is done, Heart linked to heart, and soul to soul, And all, through Christ, in thee be one.

771 ST. BERNARD. Jesus the joy of the Heart.

- 1 Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts! Thou fount of life! Thou light of men! From the best bliss that earth imparts, We turn unfilled to thee again.
- 2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood: 4 To every member of their house, Thou savest those that on thee call; To them that seek thee, thou art good, To them that find thee thou art all.

- We taste thee, O thou living bread, And long to feast upon thee still! We drink of thee, the fountain head, And thirst our souls from thee to fill.
- 4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee, Where'er our changeful lot is cast; Glad, when thy gracious smile we see, Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.
- O Jesus, ever with us stay! Make all our moments calm and bright! Chase the dark night of sin away, Shed o'er the world thy holy light!

772

COLLYER

The Baptism of a Household.

- 1 United prayers ascend to thee, Eternal Parent of mankind! Smile on this waiting family; Thy blessing let thy servants find.
- Let the dear pledges of their love. Like tender plants, around them grow; Thy present grace, and joys above, Upon their little ones bestow.
- 3 Receive at their believing hand The charge which they devote as thine. Obedient to their Lord's command; And seal, with power, the rite divine.
- Thy grace impart, thy love extend; Grant every good that time allows, With heavenly joys that never end.

The Harmony of Love.

1 Lord! subdue our selfish will:
Each to each our tempers suit,
By thy modulating skill,
Heart to heart, as lute to lute.

2 Sweetly on our spirits move; Gently touch the trembling strings; Make the harmony of love, Music for the King of kings!

774

BOWRING.

Infant Baptism.

- 1 Drop the limpid waters now On the infant's sinless brow; Dedicate the unfolding gem Unto Him, who blessed the stem.
- 2 Let our aspirations be Innocent as infancy; Pure the prayers that force their way, As the child for whom we pray.
- 8 In the Christian garden we Plant another Christian tree; Be its blossoms and its fruit Worthy of the Christian root.
- 4 To that garden now we bring Waters from the living spring; Bless the tree, the waters bless, Holy One, with holiness.
- 5 When life's harvests all are past, Oh, transplant the tree at last, To the fields where flower and tree Blossom through eternity.

Love for Christ.

AMOI

- 1 SAVIOUR! teach me, day by day, Love's sweet lesson to obey, Sweeter lesson cannot be, Loving him who first loved me.
- 2 With a child-like heart of love, At thy bidding may I move; Prompt to serve and follow thee, Loving him who first loved me.
- 3 Teach me all thy steps to trace, Strong to follow in thy grace; Learning how to love from thee, Loving him who first loved me.
- 4 Love in loving finds employ— In obedience all her joy; Ever new that joy will be, Loving him who first loved me.
- 5 Thus may I rejoice to show That I feel the love I owe; Singing, till thy face I see, Of his love who first loved ma.

NEWTON

Christ the Shepherd.

- 1 Now may he who from the dead Brought the Shepherd of the sheep, Jesus Christ, our king and head, All our souls in safety keep.
- 2 May he teach us to fulfill What is pleasing in his sight; Make us perfect in his will, And preserve us day and night!

Desires after Christian Obedienes.

1 From the table now retiring, Which for us the Lord hath spread, May our souls, refreshment finding, Grow in all things like our Head.

2 His example by beholding,
May our lives his image bear;
Him our Lord and Master calling,
His commands may we revere.

8 Love to God and man displaying, Walking steadfast in his way, Joy attend us in believing: Peace from God, through endless day.

778

Children commended to Christ.

1 SAVIOUR! who thy flock art feeding With the shepherd's kindest care, All the feeble gently leading, While the lambs thy bosom share;

Now, these little ones receiving, Fold them in thy gracious arm; There we know — thy word believing – Only there, secure from harm.

8 Never, from thy pasture roving, Let them be the lion's prey; Let thy tenderness, so loving, Keep them all life's dangerous way:

Then within thy fold eternal Let them find a resting-place; Feed in pastures ever vernal, Drink the rivers of thy grace.

779 ROBENSON.

Mercies gratefully acknowledged.

1 Come, thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace; Streams of mercy, never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise.

2 Teach me some melodious measure, Sung by raptured saints above; Fill my soul with sacred pleasure, While I sing redeeming love.

3 By thy hand sustained, defended, Safe through life, thus far, I've come; Safely, Lord, when life is ended, Bring me to my heavenly home.

780

Christ's Table.

1 Jesus spreads his banner o'er us, Cheers our famished souls with food; He the banquet spreads before us, Of his mystic flesh and blood.

2 Precious banquet; bread of heaven; Wine of gladness, flowing free; May we taste it, kindly given, In remembrance, Lord, of thee!

3 Though unseen, now be thou near us, With the still small voice of love; Whispering words of peace to cheer us— Every doubt and fear remove.

Self-Consecration in Baptism.

- 1 WHILE in this sacred rite of thine, We yield our spirits now, Shine o'er the waters, Dove divine, And seal the cheerful vow.
- 2 All glory be to him whose life For ours was freely given, Who aids us in the spirit's strife, And makes us meet for heaven.
- 3 To thee we gladly now resign
 Our life and all our powers;
 Accept us in this rite divine,
 And bless these hallowed hours.
- 4 Oh, may we die to earth and sin, Beneath the mystic flood; And when we rise, may we begin To live anew for God.

782

JAS. NEWTON.

After Baptism.

- 1 LET plenteous grace descend on those,
 Who, hoping in thy word,
 This day have solemnly declared
 That Jesus is their Lord.
- 2 With cheerful feet may they advance, And run the Christian race, And, through the troubles of the way, Find all-sufficient grace.
- 3 Lord, plant us all into thy death,
 That we thy life may prove,— Partakers of thy cross beneath,
 And of thy crown above.

783

Christ's Baptism.

- 1 Buried beneath the yielding wave
 The great Redeemer lies;
 Faith views him in the watery grave,
 And thence beholds him rise.
- 2 Thus do believers here to-day, Their ardent zeal express, And, in the Lord's appointed way, Fulfill all righteousness.
- 3 With joy we in his footsteps treed,
 And would his cause maintain—
 Like him be numbered with the dead,
 And with him rise and reign.
- 4 His presence oft revives our hearts, And drives our fears away; [parts, When he commands, and strength im-We cheerfully obey.

784

Christ's Baptism.

- 1 "I come," the great Redeemer cries, "To do thy will, O Lord!" At Jordan's flood, behold, he seals The sure prophetic word.
- 2 "Thus it becomes us to fulfil All righteousness," he said; He spake obedient, and beneath The yielding wave was laid.
- 3 Hark! a glad voice; the Father speaks
 From heaven's exalted height:
 "This is my Son, my well-beloved,
 My joy, my chief delight."

Baptism of a Child.

- 1 To thee, O God, in heaven, This little one we bring, Giving to thee what thou hast given, Our dearest offering.
- 2 Into a world of toil These little feet will roam, Where sin its purity may soil, Where care and grief may come.
- 3 Oh, then, let thy pure love, With influence serene, Come down, like water, from above, To comfort and make clean.

AHOH.

Consecration of Children.

- 1 Our children thou dost claim, O Lord, our God, as thine: Ten thousand blessings to thy name For goodness so divine!
- 2 Thee let the fathers own, Thee let the sons adore; Joined to the Lord in solemn vows, To be forgot no more.
- 8 How great thy mercies, Lord!
 How plenteous is thy grace,
 Which, in the promise of thy love,
 Includes our rising race!
- 4 Our offspring, still thy care, Shall own their fathers' God!

To latest times thy blessings share, And sound thy praise abroad.

787

Baptism of Children.

- 1 GREAT God, now condescend
 To bless our rising race;
 Soon may their willing spirits bend,
 The subjects of thy grace.
- Oh, what a pure delight
 Their happiness to see;
 Our warmest wishes all unite
 To lead their souls to thee.
- 3 Now bless, thou God of love,
 This ordinance divine;
 Send thy good Spirit from above,
 And make these children thine.

788

Dedication of Children.

- 1 To him who children blest,
 And suffered them to come,
 To him who took them to his breast,
 We bring these children home.
- 2 To thee, O God, whose face Their spirits still behold, We bring them praying that thy grace May keep, thine arms enfold.
- 3 And as this water falls
 On each unconscious brow,
 Thy holy spirit grant, O Lord,
 To keep them pure as now.

Dedication Hymn.

1 O THOU, whose own vast temple stands Built over earth and sea, Accept the walls that human hands Have raised to worship thee.

- 2 Lord, from thine inmost glory send, Within these courts to bide, The peace that dwelleth, without end, Serenely by thy side.
- 8 May erring minds that worship here Be taught the better way, And they who mourn, and they who fear, Be strengthened as they pray!
- 4 May faith grow firm, and love grow 3 To point that living way, to speak And pure devotion rise, While round these hallowed walls the Of earth-born passion dies! [storm

ANON.

1 God of the universe, to thee This sacred fane we rear, And now, with songs and bended knee. Invoke thy presence here.

Dedication.

2 Here let thy love, thy presence dwell; Thy glory here make known; Thy people's home, oh, come and fill, And seel it as thine own.

Dedication Hymn.

- 1 THE perfect world by Adam trod, Was the first temple,—built by God; His fiat laid the corner-stone, And heaved its pillars, one by one.
- 2 He hung its starry roof on high,— The broad, illimitable sky; He spread its pavement, green and bright, And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood, The sea, the sky,—and "all was good:" And when its first pure praises rang, The "morning stars together sang."
- 4 Lord! 't is not ours to make the sea And earth and sky a house for thee; But in thy sight our offering stands, A humbler temple, " made with hands."

MRS. PAGE.

- Dedication of a Church. 1 O Gop! ere heaven and earth were planned, Adoring silence worshipped thee; Now the vast universe doth stand The temple of thy majesty.
- 2 Its walls are wrought of sapphire bright; Its countless spires are starry flame: Suns on the boundless ether write The sovereign beauty of thy name.
- 3 An earthly temple, by thy grace, This day we dedicate to thee; Deign to make here thy dwelling-place, O thou that fill'st immensity.

4 Fold us beneath thy sheltering wings, As here we worship at thy shrine: Ours be the peace thy presence brings, The glory and the praise be thine.

795

MONTGOMERY.

Laying of a Corner-Stone.

- 1 This stone to thee in faith we lay,— We build the temple, Lord, to thee, Thine eye be open night and day, To keep this house from error free.
- 2 Here, when thy people seek thy face, And dying sinners pray to live, Hear thou, in heaven, thy dwelling-place, And when thou hearest, Lord, forgive.
- 3 Here, when thy messengers proclaim The blesséd gospel of thy Son, Still by the power of his great name Be mighty signs and wonders done.
- 4 Thy glory never hence depart! Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone; Thy kingdom come to every heart; In every bosom fix thy throne.

796

ANOH.

Dedication.

- 1 OH, bow thine ear, Eternal One! On thee our heart adoring calls; To thee the followers of thy Son Have raised, and now devote these walls.
- 2 Here let thy holy days be kept; And be this place to worship given, Like that bright spot where Jacob slept, The house of God, the gate of heaven.

MONTGOMERY.

Dedication of a Church.

1 FATHER, lo! we consecrate
Unto thee this house and shrine,
Oh! may Jesus visit here,
As he did in Palestine.
Here may blind eyes see his light,
Deaf ears hear his accents sweet,
And we, like those groups of old,
Sit and linger at his feet.

- 2 And to learn of faith and love,
 Strong in sorrow, pain and loss,
 May we come and find them here,
 In the garden, on the cross.
 Like the spices that enfold
 Him we love in rich perfume,
 May our thoughts embalm him here,
 While he slumbers in the tomb.
- When we watch by shrouded hopes,
 Weeping at death's marble door,
 May the angels meet us here,—
 Lo! your Christ has gone before!
 And while we stand "looking up,"
 In our faith and wonder lost,
 Here send down thy spirit's power,
 Like the tongues of Pentecost.

God's Deliverance.

1 THANK and praise Jehovah's name;
For his mercies, firm and sure,
From eternity the same,
To eternity endure.
Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
Gathered out of every land;
As the people of his choice,
Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

- 2 In the wilderness astray, Hither, thither, while they roam, Hungry, fainting by the way, Far from refuge, shelter, home;— Then unto the Lord they cry; He inclines a gracious ear, Sends deliverance from on high, Rescues them from all their fear.
- 3 To a pleasant land he brings,
 Where the vine and olive grow;
 Where, from flowery hills, the springs
 Through luxuriant valleys flow.
 Oh, that men would praise the Lord,
 For his goodness to their race;
 For the wonders of his word,
 And the riches of his grace!

MRS. E. M. BARSTOW.

Dedication of a Church.

- 1 Great God, our king! to thee We come on bended knee, Our gift to bring; Our suppliant prayer we raise, That this, our house of praise, Accepted be.
- 2 And to this sacred place, Oh, turn thy gracious face. By night and day; Here hearken to our prayers, Here lift the heavy cares From burdened hearts.
- 8 Here may the erring come; Here wanderers find a home In thy great love; Here may the sinning bring — Thy favorite offering A contrite heart;
- 4 Here sing the wondrous grace Which saves our guilty race From sin's dark stain. Till in thy courts above, Raised by redeeming love, New songs we bring.

Praise at the Altar.

GOODE

- 1 Praise ye Jehovah's name, Praise through his courts proclaim; Rise and adore; High o'er the heavens above, Sound his great acts of love, While his rich grace we prove, Vast as his power.
- 2 Now let the trumpet raise Sounds of triumphant praise, Wide as his fame; There let the harp be found; Organs, with solemn sound, Roll your deep notes around, Filled with his name.
- 3 While his high praise you sing, Shake every sounding string; Sweet the accord! He vital breath bestows; Let every breath that flows, His noblest fame disclose; Praise ye the Lord.

801

ANOR

Worthy the Lamb. 1 Come, all ye saints of God, Wide through the earth abroad Spread Jesus' fame: Tell what his love hath done; Trust in his name alone; Shout to his lofty throne, "Worthy the Lamb!"

[·] Repeat fifth line of this hymn to music.

PIERPONT.

Ordination of a Minister.

1 O THOU, who art above all height! Our God, our Father, and our friend! Beneath thy throne of love and light, Let thine adoring children bend.

- 2 Since thy young servant now hath given Himself, his powers, his hopes, his youth, To the great cause of truth and heaven, Be thou his guide, O God of truth!
- 8 Here may his doctrine drop like rain, His speech like Hermon's dew distil, Till green fields smile, and golden grain, Ripe for the harvest, waits thy will.
- 4 And when he sinks in death,—by care, 3 So, Lord, thy servant now inspire Or pain, or toil, or years oppressed,-O God! remember then our prayer, And take his spirit to thy rest.

803

MRS. L. C. MYRICK. Ordination Hymn.

- 1 WITH willing feet thy servant stands, Dear Lord, within thy vineyard's gate, He fain would join the laboring bands; Help him to work, and watch, and wait.
- 2 Grant him thy grace, that he may see The truth with pure, far-reaching sight, And give it utterance, calm and free, Fearless forever for the right.
- 3 Move him that he may others move; Bless him that he may others bless; Crown him with self-forgetting love,

The winter of delay is gone, near; The spring-time's promised bloom is Make beautiful, O blessed One! The footsteps of thy messenger.

804

H. Ware, Jr. Ordination or Installation,

- 1 O THOU, who on thy chosen Son Didst send thy spirit like a dove. To mark the long-expected one, And seal the messenger of love:
- And when the heralds of his name Went forth his glorious truth to spread, Didst send it down in tongues of flame To hallow each devoted head;
- With holy unction from above; Give him the tongue of living fire, Give him the temper of the dove.
- 4 Lord, hear thy suppliant church to-day; Accept our work, our souls possess; 'T is ours to labor, watch, and pray; Be thine to cheer, sustain, and bless.

805

NORTON. Temple Worship.

- Where ancient forests widely spread, Where bends the cataract's ocean-fall, On the lone mountain's silent head,— There are thy temples, God of all!
- All space is holy, for all space Is filled by thee; but human thought Burns clearer in some chosen place, And clothe him with thy righteousness. Where thine own words of love are taught.

Ordination.

E. H. CHAPIN.

- 1 FATHER! at this altar bending, [free; Set our hearts from world-thoughts Prayer and praise their incense blending, May our rites accepted be:
 Father, hear us,
 Gently draw our souls to thee.
- 2 Deign to smile upon this union
 Of a pastor and a flock;
 Sweet and blest be their communion:
 May he sacred truths unlock,—
 And this people
 Plant their feet on Christ the Rock.
- 8 Be his life a living sermon, Be his thoughts one ceaseless prayer: Like the dews that fell on Hermon, Making green the foliage there, May his teachings Drop on souls beneath his care.
- 4 Here may sin repent its straying,
 Here may grief forget to weep,
 Here may hope, its light displaying,
 And blest faith, their vigils keep,
 And the dying
 Pass from hence in Christ to sleep.
- 5 When his heart shall cease its motion, All its toils and conflicts o'er: When they for an unseen ocean, One by one, shall leave the shore;

There — in heaven

May they meet to part no more.

807

KELLY.

The Church Encouraged.

- 1 On the mountain's top appearing, Lo! the sacred herald stands, Welcome news to Zion bearing,— Zion, long in hostile lands: Mourning captive! God himself shall loose thy bands.
- 2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
 Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
 Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
 By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
 Cease thy mourning;
 Zion still is well beloved.
- 3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
 He himself appears thy friend;
 All thy foes shall flee before thee;
 Here their boasts and triumphs end:
 Great deliverance
 Zion's King will surely send.
- 4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
 All thy warfare now is past;
 God thy Saviour will defend thee;
 Victory is thine at last;
 All thy conflicts
 End in everlasting rest.

MONTGOMERY.

A Pastor Welcomed.

- 1 We bid thee welcome in the name Of Jesus, our exalted Head; Come as a servant; so he came; And we receive thee in his stead.
- 2 Come as an angel, hence to guide A band of pilgrims on their way; That, safely walking at thy side, We never fail, nor faint, nor stray.
- 3 Come as a teacher sent from God,
 Charged his whole counsel to declare;
 Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
 While we uphold his hands with prayer.
- 4 Come as a messenger of peace,
 Filled with the spirit, fired with love;
 Live to behold our large increase,
 And die to meet us all above.

G. T. FLANDERS.

Installation of a Minister.

- 1 THE harvest-fields are broad and white, And ready for the reaper's hand, Within the realm of fading night The heralds of the morning stand.
- 2 The gardens blush with fragrant flowers, Whence is the gard'ner's long delay? He comes with morning's rosy hours And joins us in our joy to-day.
- 3 The reaper where the harvest shines; The gard'ner with his floral crown; The dresser midst the purple vines: Father, install him as thine own.

- 4 His heart, and mind, and voice, inspire
 With truth and wisdom from above:
 Give to his speech angelic fire:
 Breathe o'er his spirit perfect love.
- 5 Great Shepherd, may be lead thy sheep Through pastures ever green and fuir, To worship at Messiah's feet, And dwell with God, the Father, there.

810

C. H. FAY.

Installation.

- 1 Another pastor hast thou given,
 Our Father, to this flock of thine,
 To feed them with the bread of heaven,
 And guide them to the life divine.
- 2 Oh, make him here we humbly pray, So faithful to the trust he bears, That from his fold no lamb may stray, Or fall within the tempter's snares.
- 3 And when the dying need his aid, Then may he speak those truths sublime, Which lift from death its fearful shade, And ope to view yon better clime.
- 4 Where death has been, in homes of grief, And sorrow's lowest depths are stirred; There may he offer sweet relief, Through Christ, the life and living word.
- 5 Here may he labor while 't is day,
 That when night's gloom comes deep'ning on,
 Like his loved Master, he may say,
 The work thou gavest me is done.

(In singing hymns 812 and 813, repeat third line of each verse.)

Benefits of the Ministry.

- 1 Blest is the hour when cares depart, And earthly scenes are far, -When tears of woe forget to start, And gently dawns upon the heart Devotion's holy star.
- 2 Blest is the place where angels bend To hear our worship rise, blend, Where kindred thoughts their musings And all the soul's affections tend Beyond the veiling skies.
- 3 Blest are the hallowed vows that bind Man to his work of love. -Bind him to cheer the humble mind, Console the weeping, lead the blind, And guide to joys above.
- 4 Sweet shall the song of glory swell, Spirit divine, to thee, When they whose work is finished well, In thy own courts of rest shall dwell, Blest through eternity.

812

WHITTIER All as God wills.

- 1 All as God wills! who wisely heeds To give or to withhold, And knoweth more of all my needs Than all my prayers have told.
- 2 Enough, that blessings undeserved Have marked my erring track; That, where soe'er my feet have swerved, Thy cnastening turned me back;

- 3 That more and more a providence Of love is understood, Making the springs of time and sense Bright with eternal good;
- 4 That death seems but a covered way Which opens into light, Wherein no blinded child can stray Beyond the Father's sight.
- 5 No longer forward or behind I look, in hope or fear, But grateful take the good I find, God's blessing, now and here.

813

W. B. TAPPAN. The Peace and Repose of Heaven.

- 1 THERE is an hour of hallowed peace For those with cares oppressed, When sighs and sorrowing tears shall cease, And all be hushed to rest.
- 2 'T is then the soul is freed from fears And doubts that here annoy; Then they that oft had sown in tears Shall reap again in joy.
- 3 There, purity with love appears, And bliss without alloy; There, they, who oft have sown in tears, Shall reap again in joy.
- 4 There is a home of sweet repose, Where storms assail no more: The stream of endless pleasure flows On that celestial shore.

H. BALLOU

At an Annual Convention.

- 1 DEAR Lord, behold thy servants, here, From various parts, together meet, To tell their labors through the year, And lay the harvest at thy feet.
- 2 In thy wide fields and vineyards, Lord, We've toiled and wrought with watchful care; Thy wheat hath flourished by thy word, Thy love consumed the choking tare.
- 8 The reapers cry, "Thy fields are white, All ready to be gathered in, And harvests wave, in changing light, Far as the eye can trace the scene."
- 4 Lord, bless us while we here remain; With holy love our bosoms fill; Oh, may thy doctrine drop like rain, And like the silent dew distil.
- 5 While we attend thy churches' care, Oh, grant us wisdom from above; With prudent thought and humble prayer, May we fulfil the works of love.

- Within thy temple where we stand, To teach the truth as taught by thee, Saviour! like stars in thy right hand, The angels of the churches be!

- H. BALLOU.

 3 Wisdom and zeal and faith impart,
 Firmness with meekness from above,
 To bear thy people on our heart,
 And love the souls whom thou dost love:—
 - 4 To watch and pray, and never faint;
 By day and night strict guard to keep;
 To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
 Nourish thy lambs, and feed thy sheep.
 - 5 Then, when our work is finished here, In humble hope, our charge resign; When the chief Shepherd shall appear, O God! may they and we be thine.

For Inspiration.

- 1 Mysterious Presence, Source of all,— The world without, the soul within; Fountain of life, oh, hear our call, And pour thy living waters in!
- 2 Thou breathest in the rushing wind, Thy spirit stirs in leaf and flower; Nor wilt thou from the willing mind Withhold thy light and love and power.
- 3 Thy hand unseen, to accents clear Awoke the Psalmist's trembling lyre; And touched the lips of holy seer With flame from thine own altar fire.
- 4 That touch Divine still, Lord, impart, Still give the prophet's burning word; And, vocal in each waiting heart, Let living psalms of praise be heard.

LYRA CATH.

God at Work in his Ministry.

- Gon's glory is a wondrous thing,
 Most strange in all its ways,
 And, of all things on earth, least like
 What men agree to praise.
- 2 Oh, bless'd is he to whom is given The instinct that can tell That God is on the field when he Is most invisible!
- 3 Workmen of God! oh, lose not heart, But learn what God is like; And in the darkest battlc-field Thou shalt know where to strike.
- 4 And bless'd is he who can divine
 Where real right doth lie,
 And dares to take the side that seems
 Wrong to man's blindfold eye!
- 5 Oh, learn to scorn the praise of man! Oh, learn to lose with God! For Jesus won the world through shame, And beckons thee his road.

818 SELECT HYMNS. Opening of a Conference Meeting.

- 1 WITHIN these doors assembled now, We wait thy blessing, Lord! Appear within the midst, we pray, According to thy word.
- 2 May some sweet promise be applied, When we attempt to read:
 For this alone can give support
 In every time of need.

- 3 Oh, breathe upon our lifeless souls, And raise each drooping heart! That we may see thy smiling face Before we hence depart.
- 4 And now, O blessed Spirit, come! We long to see thee move; Strengthen our faith, revive our zeal, And fill us all with love.

819

BARTON

The Dead,

- 1 THE dead are like the stars by day, Withdrawn from mortal eye, Yet holding unperceived their way Through the unclouded sky.
- 2 By them, through holy hope and love, We feel, in hours serene, Connected with a world above, Immortal and unseen.
- 3 For death his sacred seal hath set
 On bright and bygone hours;
 And they we mourn are with us yet,
 Are more than ever ours;—
- 4 Ours, by the pledge of love and faith, By hopes of heaven on high; By trust, triumphant over death, In immortality.

Christian Perseverance.

Rejoice, believer, in the Lord,
Who makes your cause his own:
The hope that's built upon his word
Can ne'er be overthrown.

Triumph in the Assurance of Heaven.

1 WHEN I can read my title clear To mansions in the skies, I bid farewell to every fear, And wipe my weeping eyes.

- 2 Should earth against my soul engage, And hellish darts be hurled, Then I can smile on Satan's rage, And face a frowning world.
- 3 Let cares, like a wild deluge, come, And storms of sorrow fall; May I but safely reach my home, My God, my heaven, my all.
- 4 There shall I bathe my weary soul In seas of heavenly rest; And not a wave of trouble roll Across my peaceful breast.

822

BUTTON

Christian Hope.

- 1 HAIL, sweetest, dearest tie, that binds Our glowing hearts in one! Hail! sacred hope! that tunes our minds | 824. To sing what God hath done.
- Shall howl around our cot; What though beneath an eastern sun Be cast our distant lot;
- 8 No lingering look, no parting sigh, Our future meeting knows; There friendship beams from every eye, And love immortal glows.

4 O sacred hope! O blissful hope! Which Jesus' grace has given,— The hope, when days and years are past, We all shall meet in heaven.

823

MRS. BROWN. Socret Prayer.

1 I LOVE to steal awhile away From every cumbering care, And spend the hours of setting day In humble, grateful prayer.

- 2 I love to think on mercies past, And future good implore, And all my cares and sorrows cast On him whom I adore.
- 3 I love by faith to take a view Of brighter scenes in heaven; The prospect doth my strength renew, While here by tempests driven.
- 4 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er, May its departing ray Be calm as this impressive hour, And lead to endless day.

WATTE

The New Birth.

- Mhat though the northern wint'ry blast 1 WHEN God revealed his gracious name. And changed my mournful state, My rapture seemed a pleasing dream, The grace appeared so great.
 - 2 The world beheld the glorious change, And did thy hand confess; My tongue broke out in unknown strains,

And sung surprising grace.

- 1 BROTHER, hast thou wandered far
 From thy Father's happy home,
 With thyself and God at war?
 Turn thee, brother, homeward come!
- 2 Hast thou wasted all thy powers
 God for noble uses gave?
 Squandered life's most golden hours!
 Turn thee, brother, God can save!
- 3 Is a mighty famine now
 In thy heart and in thy soul?
 Discontent upon thy brow?
 Turn thee, God will make thee whole!
- 4 He can heal thy bitterest wound, He thy gentlest prayer can hear; Seek him, for he may be found; Call upon him; he is near.

- 1 Come, sound his praise abroad, And hymns of glory sing; Jehovah is the sovereign God, The universal king.
- 2 He formed the deeps unknown; He gave the seas their bound; The watery worlds are all his own, And all the solid ground.
- 3 Come, worship at his throne; Come, bow before the Lord: We are his work, and not our own; He formed us by his word.
- 4 To-day attend his voice,
 Nor dare provoke his rod;
 Come like the people of his choice
 And own your gracious God.

Blessings of Christ.

HARE

1 Come, thou long-expected Jesus,
Born to set thy people free,
From our fears and sins release us;
Let us find our rest in thee:
Israel's strength and consolation,
Hope of all our souls thou art;
Dear desire of every nation,
Joy of every longing heart.

2 Born thy people to deliver,
Born a child and yet a king;
Born to reign in us forever,
Now thy precious kingdom bring:
By thine own eternal spirit,
Rule in all our hearts alone;
By thine all-sufficient merit,
Raise us to thy glorious throne.

828

· Gently lead us.

AHOI

1 GENTLY, Lord, oh, gently lead us
Through this lowly vale of tears,
And, O Lord, in mercy give us
Thy rich grace in all our fears.
Oh, refresh us,—
Oh, refresh us with thy grace.

2 Though ten thousand ills beset us, From without and from within, Jesus says he 'll ne'er forget us, He will save from every sin.

Therefore praise him —

Praise the great Redeemer's name.

3 Though distresses now attend thee,
And thou tread'st the thorny road;
His right hand shall still defend thee;
Soon he'll bring thee home to God!
Therefore praise him—
Praise the great Redeemer's name.

The Mercy-Seat.

STOWELL

- 1 From every stormy wind that blows, From every swelling tide of woes, There is a calm, a sure retreat; "I is found before the mercy-seat.
- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads,-A place of all on earth most sweet; It is the heavenly mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend, Where friend holds fellowship with friend; Though sundered far, by faith they meet Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar. And sin and sense molest no more: And heaven comes down our souls to greet, And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

830

Retirement from the World.

1 Far from my thoughts, vain world! be Let my religious hours alone: [gone, Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see; I wait a visit, Lord! from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire, And kindles with a pure desire; Come, my dear Jesus! from above, And feed my soul with heavenly love.

831

Seeking Refuge.

1 Forth from the dark and stormy sky, 2 Long have we roamed in want and pain, Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly: Forth from the world, its hope and fear, Father, we seek thy shelter here: Weary and weak, thy grace we pray; Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.

Long have we sought thy rest in vain; Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost, Long have our souls been tempest tost; Low at thy feet our sins we lay; Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.

Convert's Hymn.

C. WESLEY.

1 On! how happy are they Who the Saviour obey,

And have laid up their treasures above! Oh, what tongue can express The sweet comfort and peace

Of a soul in its earliest love!

2 It was heaven below My Redeemer to know!

And the angels could do nothing more, Than to fall at his feet, And the story repeat,

And the lover of sinners adore.

3 Oh, the rapturous height Of that holy delight,

Which I felt in the life-giving blood!

Of my Saviour possess'd

I was perfectly blest,

As if filled with the fulness of God.

4 Jesus all the day long

Praising the Lamb.

WATT

1 Come, let us join our cheerful songs With angels round the throne;

Ten thousand thousand are their tongues, But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus;"

"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply, "For he was slain for us."

OCCASIONAL.

Public Humiliation

- 1 Great Framer of unnumbered worlds, And whom unnumbered worlds adore! Whose goodness all thy creatures share, 3 The laborer sits beneath his vine; While nature trembles at thy power,-
- 2 Thine is the hand that moves the spheres, That wakes the wind, and lifts the sca; And man, who moves the lord of earth, Acts but the part assigned by thee.
- 3 While suppliant crowds implore thine To thee we raise the humble cry; [aid, Thine altar is the contrite heart, Thine incense a repentant sigh.
- 4 This day we deeply mourn our sins, Oh, let us know thy pardoning love, And find in thee a guardian God.

Our Pilgrim Fathers.

L. BACOM.

1 O God, beneath thy guiding hand, Our exiled fathers crossed the sea: And when they trod the wintry strand, With prayer and psalm they worshipped thee.

Confess thy power, and bless thy rod; 2 Thou heard'st, well-pleased, the song, the prayer,— Thy blessing came; and still its Shall onward, through all ages, bear The memory of that holy hour.

> 3 Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God Came with those exiles o'er the waves. And where their pilgrim feet have trod, The God they trusted guards their graves.

ORD. 11s & 8s.

837 MONTGOMERY.
Call to Thanksgiving and Praise.

1 Br joyful in God, all ye lands of the earth, Oh, serve him with gladness and fear; Exult in his presence with music and mirth, With love and devotion draw near.

2 Jehovah is God, and Jehovah alone, Creator and ruler o'er all; [own; And we are his people, his sceptre we His sheep, and we follow his call.

MONTGOMERY. 3 Oh, enter his gates with thanksgiving and song;

Your vows in his temple proclaim; His praise with melodious accordance prolong,

And bless his adorable name.

4 For good is the Lord, inexpressibly good, And we are the work of his hand; His mercy and truth from eternity stood, And shall to eternity stand.

1 How rich thy gifts, almighty King!
From thee our public blessings spring:
Th'extended trade, the fruitful skies,
The treasures liberty bestows,
Th'eternal joys the gospel shows.—

Th' eternal joys the gospel shows,—
All from thy boundless goodness rise.

With grateful hearts, with joyful tongues, To God we raise united songs;

Here still may God in mercy reign; Crown our just counsels with success, With peace and joy our borders bless, And all our sacred rights maintain.

We have a goodly Heritage.

- 1 In pleasant lands have fallen the lines That bound our goodly heritage, And safe beneath our sheltering vines Our youth is blest, and soothed our age.
- 2 What thanks, O God, to thee are due, That thou didst plant our fathers here, And watch and guard them as they grew, A vineyard, to the planter dear.
- 3 The toils they bore, our ease have wrought; They sowed in tears — in joy we reap; The birthright they so dearly bought We'll guard till we with them shall sleep.
- 4 Thy kindness to our fathers shown, In weal and woe through all the past, Their grateful sons, O God, shall own, While here their name and race shall last.

840

TENNYSON. The dying Year.

- 1 Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky, The flying cloud, the frosty light; The year is dying to the night; Ring out wild bells, and let him die.
- 2 Ring out the old, ring in the new; Ring, happy bells, across the snow; The year is going; let him go; Ring out the false, ring in the true.
- For those that here we see no more; Ring out the feud of rich and poor; Ring in redress to all mankind.

- 4 Ring out a slowly dying cause, And ancient forms of party strife; Ring in the nobler modes of life, With sweeter manners, purer laws.
- 5 Ring out false pride in place and blood, The civic slander and the spite; Ring in the love of truth and right, Ring in the common love of good.
- 6 Ring in the valiant man and free, The larger heart, the kindlier hand; Ring out the darkness of the land, Ring in the Christ that is to be.

841

DODDE DOE

The Year crowned with Goodness.

- 1 ETERNAL Source of every joy! Well may thy praise our lips employ, While in thy temple, we appear, Whose goodness crowns the circling year.
- 2 The flowery spring, at thy command, Embalms the air and paints the land: The summer rays, with vigor, shine To raise the corn, and cheer the vine.
- 3 Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours, Through all our coasts, redundant stores; And winters softened by thy care, No more a face of horror wear.
- 3 Ring out the grief that saps the mind, 4 Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days, Demand successive songs of praise: Still be the cheerful homage paid, With morning light and evening shade.

842 WATT The Works of God recounted to Posterity.

1 Let children hear the mighty deeds, Which God performed of old; Which in our younger years we saw, And which our fathers told. He bids us make his glories known,— His work of power and grace; And we'll convey his wonders down, Through every rising race.

2 Our lips shall tell them to our sons, And they again to theirs, That generations yet unborn, May teach them to their heirs. Thus shall they learn, in God alone Their hope securely stands; That they may ne'er forget his works, But practice his commands.

843 MRA. MILEA

1 The earth, all light and loveliness,
In summer's golden hours,
Shines, in her bridal vesture clad,
And crowned with festal flowers,—
So radiantly beautiful,
So like to heaven above, [world We scarce can deem more fair that Of perfect bliss and love.

Is this a shadow faint and dim Of that which is to come? What shall the unveiled splendor be, Of our celestial home, Where waves the glorious tree of life, Where streams of bliss gush free, And all is glowing in the light Of immortality?

844
The Seasons ordained by God.

1 WITH songs and honors sounding loud, Address the Lord on high; Over the heavens he spreads his cloud,

And waters vail the sky.

He sends his showers of blessings down

To cheer the plains below;

He makes the grass the mountains crown, And corn in valleys grow.

845 WREFORD

1 OH, guard our shores from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness!
Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and thee;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

2 Here may religion pure and mild Smile on our Sabbath hours, And piety and virtue bless The home of us and ours. Lord of the nations, thus to thee Our country we commend: Be thou her refuge and her trust, Her everlasting friend.

NEWLOR.

New Year's Day.

- 1 While, with ceaseless course, the sun Hasted through the former year, Many souls their race have run, Never more to meet us here:
 Fixed in an eternal state,
 They have done with all below:
 We a little longer wait,
 But how little none can know.
- 2 As the winged arrow flies,
 Speedily the mark to find,
 As the lightning from the skies
 Darts, and leaves no trace behind;
 Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream:
 Upward, Lord, our spirits raise;
 All below is but a dream.
- S Thanks for mercies past receive; Pardon of our sins renew; Teach us henceforth how to live, With eternity in view;

Teach us, as we pass along
In the shining of thy face,
Many a sweet thanksgiving-song,
Even in the dreary place.

847

HARTFORD COLL

Thankegiving.

- 1 Swell the anthem, raise the song; Praises to our God belong; Saints and angels! join to sing Praises to the heavenly King. Blessings from his liberal hand Flow around this happy land, Guarded by his watchful eye Peace and freedom we enjoy.
- 2 Here, beneath a virtuous sway,
 May we cheerfully obey,
 Never feel oppression's rod,
 Ever own and worship God.
 Hark! the voice of nature sings
 Praises to the King of kings;
 Let us join the choral song,
 And the grateful notes prolong.

National Thanksgiring and Prayer.

1 Lord of heaven, and earth, and ocean, Hear us from thy bright abode, While our hearts with deep devotion, Own their great and gracious God:

- 2 Now with joy we come before thee; Seek thy face, thy mercies sing: Lord of life, and light, and glory Guard thy church, thou heavenly King.
- 8 Health, and every needful blessing, Are thy bounteous gifts alone; Comforts undeserved possessing, Here we bend before thy throne:
- 4 Thee, with humble adoration, Lord, we praise for mercies past; Still to this most favored nation May those mercies ever last.

849

PIERPONT.

Temperance Vows.

- 1 Pillows wet with tears of anguish, Couches pressed in sleepless woe, Where the sons of Belial languish, Father, may we never know.
- 2 For the maddening cup shall never To our thirsting lips be pressed, But our draught shall be, forever, The cold water thou hast blessed.
- 8 This shall give us strength to labor, This make all our stores increase; This, with thee and with our neighbor, Bind us in the bonds of peace.

4 For the lake, the well, the river, Water-brook and crystal spring, Do we now, to thee, the Giver, Thanks, our daily tribute, bring.

850

Brother's Keeper.

- 1 Blesséd angels, high in heaven O'er the penitent rejoice; Hast thou for thy brother striven With an importuning voice?
- 2 Art thou not thy brother's keeper? Canst thou not his soul obtain? He that wakes his brother sleeper Double light himself shall gain.

851

ABOK

Dedication to God.

- 1 HOLY Father, thou hast taught me I should live to thee alone; Year by year thy hand hath brought me On through dangers oft unknown.
- 2 When I wandered, thou hast found me: When I doubted, sent me light: Still thine arm has been around me. All my paths were in thy sight.
- 3 I would trust in thy protecting, Wholly rest upon thine arm; Follow wholly thy directing, Thou mine only guard from harm.
- 4 Keep me from mine own undoing Help me turn to thee when tried: Still my footsteps, Father, viewing, Keep me ever at thy side.

HEGINBOTHAM. The God of the Seasons.

1 Great God! let all our tuneful powers Awake and sing thy mighty name; Thy hand rolls on our circling hours, The hand from which our being came.

- 2 Seasons and moons revolving round In beauteous order, speak thy praise, And years with smiling mercy crowned, To thee successive honors raise.
- 3 Each changing season or our souls Its sweetest, kindest influence sheds; 1 Gon of eternity! from thee And every period, as it rolls, Showers countiess blessings on our
- 4 Our lives, our health, our friends, we owe All to thy vast, unbounded love; Ten thousand precious gifts below, And hopes of nobler joys above.

853 DODDRIDGE. A Song for the opening Year.

- 1 GBEAT God! we sing that mighty hand, By which supported still we stand; The opening year thy mercy shows,-Let mercy crown it till it close.
- 2 By day, by night,—at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God; By his incessant bounty fed, By his unerring counsel led.
- 3 With grateful hearts the past we own; 5 Great Source of wisdom! teach our hearts The future — all to us unknown -We to thy guardian care commit, And peaceful leave before thy feet.

In scenes exalted or depressed, Be thou our joy, and thou our rest; Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise, Adored, through all our changing days.

When death shall close our earthly songs, And seal, in silence, mortal tongues, Our helper, God, in whom we trust, Shall keep our souls, and guard our dust.

854

DODDRIDGE

Redeeming the Time.

Did infant Time its being draw: Moments and days, and months, and Revolve by thine unvaried law. [years.

- 2 Silent and swift they glide away; Steady and strong the current flows; Lost in Eternity's wide sea, The boundless gulf whence it arose.
- 3 With it the thoughtless sons of men Before the rapid stream are borne On to their everlasting home, Whence not one soul can e'er return.
- 4 Yet, while the shore on either side Presents a gaudy, flattering show, We gaze, in fond amusement lost, Nor think to what a world we go.
- To know the price of every hour, That Time may bear us on to joys Beyond its measure and its power.

God's Goodness in the Seasons.

- 1 Praise to God, immortal praise, For the love that crowns our days; Bounteous Source of every joy, Let thy praise our tongues employ:
- 2 For the flocks spread o'er the plain, Yellow sheaves of ripened grain, Clouds that drop their fattening dews, Suns that temperate warmth diffuse;
- 3 All that spring, with bounteous hand, Scatters o'er the smiling land; All that liberal autumn pours From her rich o'erflowing stores;—
- 4 For the blessings of the field, For the stores the gardens yield, For the joy which harvests bring, Grateful praises now we sing.
- 5 These to thee, our God, we owe, Source whence all our blessings flow; And for these our souls shall raise Grateful vows and solemn praise.

856 ANNA L. WARING. The entered Year.

- 1 SUNLIGHT of the heavenly day,
 Mighty to revive and cheer,
 Bless our yet untrodden way,
 Lead us through the entered year.
- 2 Open thou beneath our tread Springs the distance could not show; From the holy Fountain-Head Let them rise where'er we go.

- Mrs. Barrauld.
 3 Teach us, as we pass along '
 In the shining of thy face,
 Many a sweet thanksgiving-song,
 Even in the dreary place.
 - 4 Bold in thy protecting care, Through the desert or the sea, Sure to prove thee faithful there, On! to reign in life with thee.

857

RORA

The Flight of Time.

- 1 TIME by moments steals away, First the hour, and then the day: Small the daily loss appears, Yet it soon amounts to years.
- 2 Thus another year is flown; Now it is no more our own, If it brought or promised good, Than the years before the flood.
- 3 But may none of us forget It has left us much in debt; Who can tell the vast amount Placed to every one's account!
- 4 Favors from the Lord received, Sins that have his spirit grieved, Marked by an unerring hand, In his book recorded stand.
- 5 If we see another year,
 May thy blessings meet us here;
 Sun of righteousness, arise,
 Warm our hearts and bless our eyes!

AMERICA. 68 & 48.

858

National Hymn.

- 1 My country, 't is of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land where my fathers died, Land of the pilgrims' pride, From every mountain side Let freedom ring.
- 2 My native country, thee —
 Land of the noble, free —
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.
- 3 Our fathers' God, to thee, Author of liberty, To thee we sing: Long may our land be bright With freedom's holy light; Protect us by thy might, Great God, our King.

859

The some.

1 God bless our native land!
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of winds and wave,
Do thou our country save,
By thy great might.

S. F. SMITE.

2 For her our prayer shall rise
To God above the skies!

On him we wait;
Thou who hast heard each sigh,
Watching each weeping eye,
Be thou forever nigh;
God save the State!

860

PLERPOWE

The Fathers remembered.

- 1 Gone are those great and good Who here in peril stood And raised their hymn: Peace to the reverend dead! The light, that on their head The glorious past has shed, Shall ne'er grow dim.
- 2 Ye temples, that to God Rise where our fathers trod, Guard well your trust,— The faith that dared the sea, The truth that made them free, Their cherished purity, Their garnered dust.
- 3 Thou high and holy One,
 Whose care for sire and son
 All nature fills;
 While day shall break and close,
 While night her crescent shows,
 Oh, let thy light repose
 On these thy hills!

O. W. HOLMES.

Army Hymn.

- 1 O Lord of Hosts! Almighty King! Behold the sacrifice we bring: To every arm thy strength impart, Thy spirit shed through every heart!
- 2 Wake in our breasts the living fires, The holy faith that warmed our sires; Thy hand hath made our nation free; To die for her is serving thee.
- 3 Be thou a pillared flame to show The midnight snare, the silent foe; And when the battle thunders loud Still guide us in its moving cloud.
- 4 God of all nations! Sovereign Lord! In thy dread name we draw the sword; We lift the starry flag on high That fills with light our stormy sky.
- 5 No more its flaming emblems wave To bar from hope the trembling slave; No more its radiant glories shine To blast with woe a child of thine.
- 6 From treason's rent, from murder's stain, Guard thou its folds till peace shall reign; Till fort and field, till shore and sea, Join our loud anthem, Praise to Thee!

862

In Time of War.

1 WHILE sounds of war are heard around, And death and ruin strow the ground, To thee we look, on thee we call, The Parent and the Lord of all.

- 2 Thou, who hast stamped on human kind The image of a heaven-born mind, And in a Father's wide embrace Hast cherished all the kindred race,—
- 3 Great God, whose powerful hand can bind The raging waves, the furious wind, Oh, bid the human tempest cease, And hush the maddening world to peace.
- 4 With reverence may each hostile land Hear and obey that high command, Thy Son's blest errand from above,— "My creatures, live in mutual love!"

863

W. R. WALLACE.

National Anthem.

- 1 God of the free! upon the breath Our flag is for the right unrolled, As broad and brave as when its stars First lit the hallowed time of old.
- 2 For duty still its folds shall fly; For honor still its glories burn, Where truth, religion, valor, guard The patriot's sword and martyr's urn.
- 3 God of the free! our nation bless
 In its strong manhood as its birth;
 And make its life a star of hope
 For all the struggling of the earth.
- 4 Then shout beside thine oak, O North! O South! wave answer with thy palm; And in our Union's heritage Together sing the nation's psalm!

Who is my Neighbor?

1 Who is thy neighbor? He whom thou Hast power to aid or bless; Whose aching heart or burning brow Thy hand may soothe or press.

- 2 'Thy neighbor? he who drinks the cup When sorrow drowns the brim; With words of high sustaining hope, Go thou and comfort him.
- 3 Thy neighbor? 't is the weary slave, Fettered in mind and limb; He hath no hope this side the grave; Go thou and ransom him.
- 4 Thy neighbor? 'T is the fainting poor, Whose eye with want is dim:
 Oh, enter thou his humble door,
 With aid and peace for him!
- Thy neighbor? pass no mourner by,
 Perhaps thou canst redeem
 A breaking heart from misery;
 Go, share thy lot with him.

865

The Widow's Prayer.

AHOH.

- Though faint and sick, and worn away
 With poverty and woe,
 My widowed feet are doomed to stray
 Mid thorny paths below.
- 2 Be thou, O Lord, my Father still,
 My confidence and guide:
 I know that perfect is thy will,
 Whate'er that will decide.

- 3 I know the soul that trusts in thee,
 Thou never wilt forsake;
 And though a bruiséd reed I be,
 That reed thou wilt not break.
- 4 Then keep me, Lord, where'er I go, Support me on my way, Though worn with poverty and woe, My widowed footsteps stray.
- 5 To give my weakness strength, O God, Thy stuff shall yet avail; And though thou chasten with thy rod, That staff shall never fail.

866

Awow,

1 Where shall the child of sorrow find A place of calm repose? Thou Father of the fatherless,

The Orphan's Hymn.

Thou Father of the fatherless Pity the orphan's woes!

- What friend have I in heaven or earth, What friend to trust but thee? My father's dead — my mother's dead; My God, remember me!
- 3 Thy gracious promise now fulfil, And bid my trouble cease; In thee the fatherless shall find Pure mercy, grace, and peace.
- 4 I've not a secret care or pain
 But he that secret knows;
 Thou Father of the fatherless,
 Pity the orphan's woes!

ANON

867

Gire to the Poor.

- 1 GIVE as God hath given thee, With a bounty full and free: If he hath with liberal hand, Given wealth to thy command, For the fulness of thy store, Give thy needy brother more.
- 2 If the lot his love doth give
 Is by earnest toil to live,
 If with nerve and sinew strong
 Thou dost labor hard and long;
 Then e'en from thy slender store
 Give, and God shall give thee more.
- 3 Hearts there are with grief oppressed; Forms in tattered raiment dressed; Homes where want and woe abide; Dens where vice and misery hide; With a bounty large and free, Give, as God hath given thee.
- 4 Wealth is thine to aid and bless, Strength to succor and redress; Bear thy weaker brother's part, Strong of hand and strong of heart; Be thy portion large or small, Give, for God doth give thee all.

Active Benevolence.

868

AMON.

1 In the morning sow thy seed,
Nor at eve withhold thy hand;
Who can tell which may succeed,
Or, if both alike should stand,
And a glorious harvest bear,
To reward the sower's care?

2 Sow it 'mid the haunts of vice,— Scenes of infumy and crime; Suddenly, may Paradise Burst, as in the northern clime Spring, with all its verdant race, Starts from Winter's cold embrace.

3 Sow it with unsparing hand;
"T is the kingdom's precious seed,
"T is the Master's great command,
And his grace shall crown the deed,
He hath said, the precious grain
Never should be sowed in vain.

869

ANOR

Benevolent Efforts.

- 1 Cast thy bread upon the waters,
 Thinking not 't is thrown away;
 God himself saith, thou shalt gather
 It again some future day.
 Cast thy bread upon the waters;
 Wildly though the billows play,
- 2 As the seed, by billows floated To some distant island lone, So to human souls benighted, That thou flingest may be borne. Cast thy bread upon the waters; Why wilt thou still doubting stand?
- 3 Bounteous shall God send the harvest,
 If thou sow'st with liberal hand.
 Give, then, freely of thy substance—
 O'er this cause the Lord doth reign;
 Cast thy bread, and toil with patience,
 Thou shalt labor not in vain.

870 CROSSWELL To do Good and to Communicate forget not.

1 LORD, lead the way the Saviour went, By lane and cell obscure, And let our treasures still be spent, Like his, upon the poor.

- 2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress, Who bore the world's sad weight, We, in their gloomy loneliness, Would seek the desolate.
- 3 For thou hast placed us side by side In this wide world of ill; And that thy followers may be tried, The poor are with us still.
- 4 Small are the offerings we can make; Yet thou hast taught us, Lord, If given for the Saviour's sake, They lose not their reward.

871

AMON. Words and Deeds.

- 1 BENEATH the thick but struggling We talk of Christian life; [clouds, The words of Jesus on our lips, Our hearts with man at strife.
- 2 Traditions, forms, and selfish aims, Have dimmed the inner light; Have closely veiled the spirit-world And angels from our sight.
- Our temple to repair; Remove the gathering dust of years, And show the model fair.

We slumber while the present calls, But darkness grows with rest; Wouldst thou see truth? To action Do the divine behest. [wake,--

872

Compassion.

Hampson.

- 1 Our offering is a willing mind To comfort the distressed: In others' good our own to find, In others' blessings blessed.
- 2 Go to the pillow of disease, Where night gives no repose, And on the check where sickness preys, Bid health to plant a rose.
- 3 Go where the friendless stranger lies, To perish in his doom, Snatch from the grave his closing eyes, And bring his blessing home.
- 4 Thus what our heavenly Father gave Shall we as freely give; Thus copy him who lived to save, And died that we might live.

873

Help one another.

- 1 How sweet, how heavenly is the sight, When those who love the Lord In one another's peace delight, And so fulfill his word!
- 3 Strong souls and willing hands we need, 2 When each can feel his brother's sigh, And with him bear a part! When sorrow flows from eye to eye, And joy from heart to heart!

J. TAYLOR

Acceptable Offering.

- 1 FATHER of our feeble race,
 Wise, beneficent, and kind!
 Spread o'er nature's ample face,
 Flows thy goodness unconfined.
 Musing in the silent grove,
 Or the busy walks of men,
 Still we trace thy wondrous love,
 Claiming large returns again.
- 2 Lord, what offering shall we bring,
 At thine altars when we bow?
 Hearts, the pure unsullied spring
 Whence the kind affections flow;
 Soft compassion's feeling soul,
 By the melting eye expressed;
 Sympathy, at whose control
 Sorrow leaves the wounded breast.
- 3 Willing hands to lead the blind,
 Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
 Love, embracing all our kind;
 Charity, with liberal store;
 Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
 Thus to show our grateful mind,
 Thus the accepted offering bring,
 Love to thee and all mankind.

875

And he arose and rebuked the Winds and Sea.

1 Lord! thou didst arise and say, To the troubled waters, "Peace," And the tempest died away; Down they sank, the foaming seas, And a calm and heaving sleep Spread o'er all the glassy deep, All the azure lake serene Like another heaven was seen!

2 Lord! thy gracious word repeat
To the billows of the proud!
Quell the tyrant's martial heat,
Quell the fierce and changing crowd!
Then the earth shall find repose,
From oppressions and from woes;
And another heaven appear
On our world of darkness here!

876

ALPOND

- Harvest-Hymn.
- 1 Come, ye thankful people! come, Raise the song of Harvest-Home! All is safely gathered in Ere the winter storms begin; God our Maker doth provide For our wants to be supplied; Come to God's own temple, come! Raise the song of Harvest-Home!
- Then, thou Church triumphant! come,
 Raise the song of Harvest-Home!
 All are safely gathered in,
 Free from sorrow, free from sin,
 There forever, purified,
 In God's garner to abide:
 Come, ten thousand angels, come,
 Raise the glorious Harvest-Home!

Spring.

1 When verdure clothes the fertile valc, And blossoms deck the spray, And fragrance breathes in every gale, How sweet the vernal day!

- 2 Hark! how the feathered warblers sing! 'T is nature's cheerful voice; Soft music hails the lovely spring, And woods and fields rejoice.
- 3 O God of nature and of grace, Thy heavenly gifts impart; Then shall my meditation trace Spring, blooming in my heart.
- 4 Inspired to praise, I then shall join Glad nature's cheerful song, And love and gratitude divine Attune my joyful tongue.

878

WHITTIER.

1 THE snow-plumed angel of the North Has dropped his icy spear; Again the mossy earth looks forth, Again the streams gush clear.

Spring.

- 2 "Bear up, O mother nature!" cry Bird, breeze, and streamlet free; Our winter voices prophesy Of summer days to thee.
- 8 So in these winters of the soul, By bitter blasts and drear O'erswept from memory's frozen pole, Will sunny days appear.

- The night is mother of the day,
 The winter of the spring,
 And ever upon old decay,
 The greenest mosses cling.
- 5 Behind the cloud the starlight lurks, Through showers the sunbeams fall; For God, who loveth all his works, Has left his hope for all.

879

CHR. PSALMIST.
Thanks for an abundant Harvest.

1 FOUNTAIN of mercy, God of love, How rich thy bounties are! The rolling seasons, as they move, Proclaim thy constant care.

- When in the bosom of the earth The sower hid the grain, Thy goodness marked its secret birth, And sent the early rain.
- 3 The spring's sweet influence, Lord, was
 The plants in beauty grew; [thine:
 Thou gav'st refulgent suns to shine,
 And mild, refreshing dew.
- 4 These various mercies from above
 Matured the swelling grain;
 A kindly harvest crowns thy love,
 And plenty fills the plain.
- 5 We own and bless thy gracious sway; Thy hand all nature hails; Seed-time nor harvest, night nor day, Summer nor winter, fails.

The God of our Fathers.

- 1 LIKE Israel's host to exile driven,
 Across the flood the pilgrims fled;
 Their hands bore up the ark of heaven,
 And heaven their trusting footsteps led,
 Till on these savage shores they trod,
 And won the wilderness for God.
- 2 Then, when their weary ark found rest, Another Zion proudly grew; In more than Judah's glory dressed, With light that Israel never knew, From sea to sea her empire spread, Her temple heaven, and Christ her Head.
- 8 Then let the grateful Church to-day
 Its ancient rite with gladness keep;
 And still our fathers' God display
 His kindness, though the fathers sleep,
 Oh, bless as thou hast blest the past,
 While earth, and time, and heaven shall last!

Dirge for the heroic Dead,

1 How sleep the brave who sink to rest By all their country's wishes blest! When spring, with dewy fingers cold, Returns to deck their hallowed mould, She there shall dress a sweeter sod Than Fancy's feet have ever trod.

2 By fairy hands their knell is rung, By forms unseen their dirge is sung; There Honor comes, a pilgrim gray, To bless the turf that wraps their clay, And Freedom shall awhile repair, To dwell a weeping hermit there.

PRATT'S COLL.

The Blessedness of considering the Poor.

- BLEST who with generous pity glows, Who learns to feel another's woes:
 Bows to the poor man's wants his ear, And wipes the helpless orphan's tear!
 In every want, in every woe,
 Himself thy pity, Lord, shall know.
- 2 Thy love his life shall guard, thy hand Give to his lot the chosen land;
 Nor leave him, in the troubled day,
 To unrelenting foes a prey.
 In sickness thou shalt raise his head,
 And make with tenderest care his bed

The Seasons of the Year.

1 T is by thy strength the mountains God of eternal power! stand, The sea grows calm at thy command; And tempests cease to roar.

- 2 Thy morning light and evening shade Successive comforts bring; Thy plenteous fruits make harvest glad, 885 Thy flowers adorn the spring.
- 3 Seasons and times, and moons and hours, Heaven, earth, and air are thine; When clouds distil in fruitful showers, The author is divine.
- 4 Those wandering cisterns in the sky, Borne by the winds around, With watery treasures well supply The furrows of the ground.

884

ANON. Hymn of Peace.

- 1 THE dwellings of the free resound With songs of victory; And countless hearts, the land around, For peace are blessing thee.
- 2 By thee we raised the conquering sign 5 But calmly, Lord, on thee we rest; That led the victor band; Thine was the power, the peace is thine; We see in all, thy hand.

3 Still let that conquering banner wave O'er souls thou hast made free, And fold the hearts which through the grave Have heavenward passed to thee.

4 In joyful songs thy name we bless, Who makest wars to cease; Oh, grant our land, through righteous-A never broken peace.

New Year.

1 Our Father! through the coming year We know not what shall be; But we would leave, without a fear, Its ordering all to thee.

- 2 It may be we shall toil in vain For what the world holds fair; And all the good we thought to gain Deceive, and prove but care.
- 8 It may be it shall darkly blend Our love with anxious fears, And snatch away the valued friend, The tried of many years.
- 4 It may be it shall bring us days And nights of lingering pain; And bid us take a farewell gaze Of these loved haunts of men.
- No fears our trust shall move; Thou knowest what for each is best, And thou art Periect Love.

COME, LET US ANEW. P.M.

886

The New Year.

C. WESLEY.

- 1 Come, let us anew Our journey pursue,
 Roll round with the year,
 And never stand still till the Master appear;
 His adorable will Let us gladly fulfil,
 And our talents improve,
 By the patience of hope and the labor of love.
- 2 Our life is a dream; Our time, as a stream, Glides swiftly away,
 And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
 The arrow is flown,—The moment is gone;
 The millenial year
 Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.
- 8 Oh, that each, day by day To his Saviour may say,—
 I have fought my way through:
 I have finish'd the work thou didst give me to do.
 Oh, that each from his Lord May receive the glad word,—
 Well and faithfully done!
 Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne.

887

For a Female Friendly Society.

- OUR soul shall magnify the Lord,
 In him our spirit shall rejoice;
 Assembled here with sweet accord,
 Our hearts shall praise him with our voice.
- 2 Since he regards our low estate, [pray, And hears his handmaids when they We humbly plead at mercy's gate, Where none are ever turned away.
- 3 The poor are his peculiar care,
 To them his promises are sure;
 His gifts the poor in spirit share:
 Oh, may we always thus be poor!
- 4 God of our hope, to thee we bow, Thou art our refuge in distress: The husband of the widow, thou, The father of the fatherless.
- 5 May we the law of love fulfil;
 To bear each other's burdens here;
 Suffer and do thy righteous will,
 And walk in all thy faith and fear.

888 Reclaiming Love. MRS. MAYO. 890

- 1 On, shut not out sweet pity's ray
 From souls now clouded o'er by sin;
 Touch their deep springs, and let the
 Of Christian love flow freely in. [day
- 2 Send them kind missions, though their feet No more again the world may tread; Some pulse of better life may beat In hearts that seem unmoved and dead.

3 'T is just that they should bear the pain Of keen remorse and guilty shame; But scorn may drive to crime again— 'T is only love that can reclaim.

889
For the Prisoner.

- 1 FATHER! we pray for those who dwell Within the prison's gloomy cell!
 For those whose souls are bending low Beneath the weight of guilt and woe!
- 2 Thy love hath kept our thorny way, And saved us from sin's iron sway; Our brethren in a weaker hour Have yielded to temptation's power.
- 3 Teach us with humble hearts to feel, How darkly on our brows the seal Of guilt might now perchance be set, Had we the same temptation met.
- 4 Then while the error we would shun, We still would aid the erring one To turn from sin's unpitying sway, To virtue's fair and pleasant way.

890 GIRBORS.

- 1 Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view Thy pattern, and thy steps pursue; Let alms bestowed, let kindness done, Be witnessed by each rolling sun.
- 2 For he who marks, from day to day, In generous acts his radiant way, Treads the same path his Saviour trod. The paths to glory and to God.

Mrs. Sigourney.

For a Temperance Anniversary.

- 1 WE praise thee, if one rescued soul, While the past year prolonged its flight, Turned, shuddering, from the poisonous bowl, To health, and liberty, and light.
- 2 We praise thee, if one clouded home, Where broken hearts despairing pined, Beheld the sire and husband come Erect and in his perfect mind.
- 8 No more a weeping wife to mock, Till all her hopes in anguish end; No more the trembling child to shock, And sink the father in the fiend.
- 4 Still give us grace, almighty King!
 Unwavering at our posts to stand,
 Till grateful to thy shrine we bring
 The tribute of a ransomed land.

WHITTIER.

For an Agricultural Festival.

- 1 O Maker of the fruits and flowers! We thank thee for thy wise design, Whereby these human hands of ours In nature's garden work with thine.
- 2 And thanks that from our daily need
 The joy of simple faith is born,
 That he who smites the summer weed
 May trust thee for the autumn corn.

- 3 For he who blesses most is blest,
 And God and man shall own his worth
 Who toils to leave, as his bequest,
 An added beauty to the earth.
- 4 And soon or late, to all that sow,
 The time of harvest shall be given;
 The flower shall bloom, the fruit shall grow,
 If not on earth, at last in heaven.

The Hope of Man.

AHOR.

1 THE past is dark with sin and shame, The future dim with doubt and fear; But, Father, yet we praise thy name, Whose guardian love is always near.

2 For man has striven, ages long, With faltering steps to come to thee, And in each purpose high and strong The influence of thy grace could see.

- 3 He could not breathe an earnest prayer, But thou wast kinder than he dreamed, As age by age brought hopes more fair, And nearer still thy kingdom seemed.
- 4 But never rose with his breast
 A trust so calm and deep as now;
 Shall not the weary find a rest?
 Father, Preserver, answer thou!
- 5 'Tis dark around, 't is dark above, But through the shadow streams the sun; We cannot doubt thy certain love; And man's true aim shall yet be won!

Temperance Hymn.

1 HARK! the voice of choral song
Floats upon the breeze along,

"Man redeemed — to God the praise!"

2 Angels, strike the golden lyre!

Mortals, catch the heavenly fire!

Thousands ransomed from the grave,

Millions yet our pledge shall save!

Chanting clear, in solemn lays,—

- 8 Save from sin's destructive breath, Save from sorrow, shame, and death-From intemperance and strife, Save the husband, children, wife!
- 4 Courage! let no heart despair Mighty is the truth we bear! Forward, then, baptized in love, Led by wisdom from above!

- 3 The world will come with care and crime, And tempt too many a heart astray; Still, the seed sown in early time Will not be wholly cast away.
- 4 The infant prayer, the infant hymn,
 Within the darkened soul will rise,
 When age's weary eye is dim,
 And the grave's shadow round us lies.
- 5 Lord, grant our hearts be so inclined, Thy work to seek, thy will to do; And while we teach the youthful mind, Our own be taught thy lessons too.

CAMPBELL'S COLL. Prayer for Children.

1 God of mercy, hear our prayer For the children thou hast given: Let them all thy blessings share — Grace on earth and bliss in heaven.

2 In the morning of their days, May their hearts be drawn to thee: Let them learn to lisp thy praise, In their earliest infancy.

- 3 When we see their passions rise, Sinful habits unsubdued, Then to thee we lift our eyes, That their hearts may be renewed.
- 4 For this mercy, Lord, we cry; Bend thy ever-gracious ear; While on thee our souls rely, Hear our prayer,—in mercy hear.

Christ calling Children to Himself.

- 1 THE Saviour gently calls
 Our children to his breast;
 He folds them in his gracious arms;
 Himself declares them blest.
- 2 "Let them approach," he cries, "Nor scorn their humble name; The heirs of heaven are such as these;— For such as these I came."
- 3 Gladly we bring them, Lord,
 Devoting them to thee:
 Imploring, that, as we are thine,
 Thine may our offspring be.

 In mercy now appear;
 We long to see thy smiling face,
 And feel that thou art near.
- 2 To-day in love descend;
 Oh, come, this precious hour;
 In mercy now their spirits bend
 By thy resistless power.
- 3 Low bending at thy feet,
 Our offspring we resign:
 Thine arm is strong, thy love is great,
 And high thy glories shine.

- 5 O thou, who giv'st us life and breath, We seek thy grace alone, In childhood, manhood, age, and death, To keep us still thine own!

936

Early Devotion to God.

- 1 Deep in thy soul, before its powers Are yet by vice enslaved, Be thy Creator's glorious name And character engraved,
- 2 Ere yet the shades of sorrow cloud The sunshine of thy days, And cares and toils, in endless round, Encompass all thy ways.

Children's Hymn.

ABON.

- 1 Lord, a little band and lowly,
 We are come to sing to thee;
 Thou art great, and high, and holy,—
 Oh, how solemn should we be!
- Fill our hearts with thoughts of Jesus, And of heaven where he is gone;

And let nothing ever please us He would grieve to look upon.

A Child's Hymn for Christmas.

- 1 Thou holy Jesus, kind and dear, Who for us children camest here, That blest and purified by thee, God's little children we might be.
- 2 God sent thee down, a light divine, Through all this darkened world to shine, A heavenly child, a heavenly ray, To guide us all the heavenly way.
- 3 O holy Jesus, kind and dear, Because thy birthday now is near, For every child, in every clime, It is a happy, joyful time.
- 4 Then bless me too, and from thy throne, 4 Look down, Lord, on thy little one; Make thou my heart all pure and white, In heavenly fountains clear and bright.

5 Lord, make me like the angels mild, A loving, humble, grateful child; That thine I evermore may be, Thou holy Jesus, grant to me!

Supplication.

- 1 GLORIOUS in thy saints appear; Plant thy heavenly kingdom here; Light and life to all impart; Shine on each believing heart;—
- 2 And, in every grace complete, Make us, Lord, for glory meet; Till we stand before thy sight, Partners with the saints in light.

All Things from God.

- 1 Homage pay to God above,—
 God, whose nature all is love;
 In his praise your breath employ,—
 Gracious source of every joy.
- 2 All our hopes of life and heaven Through thy grace alone are given; Bliss eternal, pure, divine,— Every gift, O God, is thine.

947

1 Praise the Lord,—his glory bless; Praise him in his holiness; Praise him as the theme inspires; Praise him as his fame requires.

Praise.

- 2 Let the trumpet's lofty sound Spread its loudest notes around; Let the harp unite in praise With the sacred minstrel's lays.
- 3 Let the organ join to bless God, the Lord, our righteousness; Tune your voice to spread the fame Of the great Jehovah's name.

E. TURNER.
Thanks at the Close of Service.

1 Kino Lord, before thy face,
Again with joy we bow;
For all the gifts and grace
Thou dost on us bestow;
Our tongues would all thy love proclaim,
And chant the honors of thy name.

2 Here, in thine earthly house, Our joyful souls have met; Here paid our solemn vows,
And felt our union sweet.
For this our tongues tny love proclaim,
And chant the honors of thy name.

3 Now may we dwell in peace,
Till here again we come:
And may our love increase,
Till thou shalt bring us home.
Then shall our tongues thy love proclaim,
And chant the honors of thy name.

Dismission.

TOPLADY'S COLL

I Lord! dismiss us with thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us all, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace;
Oh! refresh us—
Travelling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

Closing Prayer.

Close of the Sabbath.

- 1 Lo! the day of rest declineth, Gather fast the shades of night; Yet the sun that ever shineth Fills our souls with heavenly light.
- 2 While, thine ear of love addressing, Thus our parting hymn we sing, Father, with thine evening blessing Rest we safe beneath thy wing.

Go in Peace.

- 1 Go in peace! serene dismission, To the loving heart made known; When it pours, in deep contrition, Prayer before the eternal throne.
- 2 Go in peace! thy sins forgiven, Christ has healed thee, set thee free; Every spirit-fetter riven, Go in peace, and liberty!
- 3 Saviour! breathe this benediction O'er our spirits while we pray; Let us part in sweet conviction Thou hast blessed our souls to-day.

Christian Farewell.

- 1 THY presence, ever-living God! Wide through all nature spreads abroad; Thy watchful eyes, which never sleep, In every place thy children keep.
- 2 While near each other we remain, Thou dost our lives and powers sustain; 2 When separate, we rejoice to share Thy counsels and thy gracious care.
- 3 To thee we now commit our ways, And still implore thy heavenly grace; Still cause thy face on us to shine, And guard and guide us still as thine.
- 4 Give us within thy house to raise Again united songs of praise; Or, if that joy no more be known, Give us to meet around thy throne.

Close of Worship.

ANOH.

- 1 Ere to the world again we go, Its pleasures, cares, and idle show, Thy grace, once more, O God, we crave, From folly and from sin to save.
- 2 May the great truths we here have heard. The lessons of thy holy word, Dwell in our inmost bosoms deep. And all our souls from error keep.

Mrs. Countryman. 976 Close of the Sabbath.

1 Another Sabbath, Lord, has gone, Another day of peace and rest: Swiftly its precious hours have flown Hours which thy sacred presence blest.

- 2 The portals of a week of care, Stand open for our weary feet; Oh! give us strength to enter there, Grant us thy grace its toils to meet.
- 33 May the pure joys this day hath brought, Shed gladness o'er the coming hours,-The cheering truths thy word hath taught,
- 4 May faith's bright angel be our guide Across the stream of toil and care, Whose troubled waters so divide These Sabbath times of praise and prayer.

ANON.

At close of Day.

- THE twilight falls, the night is near;
 I fold my work away;
 And kneel to Him who bends to hear
 The story of the day.
- 2 The old, old story! yet I kneel
 To tell it at His call;
 And cares grow lighter as I feel
 That Jesus knows them all.
- Yes, all! the morning and the night,
 The joy, the grief, the loss,
 The roughened path, the sunbeam bright,
 The hourly thorn and cross.
- 4 And Jesus loves me! all my heart
 With answering love is stirred;
 And every anguish, every smart,
 Finds healing in the Word.

5 So then I lay me down to rest,
As nightly shadows fall;
And lean, confiding, on His breast
Who knows and pities all.

The Mother's Hymn.

- LORD, who ordainest for mankind, Benignant toils and tender cares,
 We thank thee for the ties that bind
 The mother to the child she bears.
- We thank thee for the hopes that rise
 Within her heart, as, day by day,
 The dawning soul from those young eyes
 Looks with a clearer, steadier ray.

- 1 Holy Saviour! Lord of light!
 From thy clear celestial height,
 Thy pure beaming radiance give.
 Come, thou lover of the poor!
 Come, with treasures which endure!
 Come, thou Light of all that live!
- 2 Thou of all consolers best, Visiting the troubled breast, Dost refreshing peace bestow; Thou in toil art comfort sweet, Pleasant coolness in the heat, Solace in the midst of woe.
- 8 Light immortal! Light divine!
 Visit thou these hearts of thine,
 And our inmost being fill:
 If thou take thy grace away,
 Nothing pure in man will stay;
 All his good is turned to ill.
- 4 Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour thy dew; Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.
- 5 Thou, on those who evermore Thee confess, and thee adore, In thy heavenly gifts, descend;

Give them comfort when they die; Give them life with thee on high; Give them joys which never end.

I sing the mighty power of God
Is it true that angels hear us
Is there a lone and dreary hour
It is finished,—glorious word
It is the hour of prayer
It is the one true light
I want a principle within
I want a principle within
I want the spirit of power within
I worship thee, sweet will of God
I would not live alway; I ask not to stay 703 Lord, lead the way the Saviour went 870
Lord, let thy conquering banner wave 747
Jehovah God! thy gracious power 234 Lord, now we part in thy blest name 972
Jerusalem! my happy home
Jesus his empire shall extend
Jesus, my Redeemer, lives
Jesus, my sorrow lies too deep
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun 402 Lord of the worlds above 70
Jesus spreads his banner o'er us
Jesus, thine all-victorious love
Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts
Jesus, thy boundless love to me
Jesus, what precept is like thine
Joyful let us cast aside
Joy to the world—the Lord is come 378 Lord, thou hast won—at length I yield 443
Just as I am, without one plea 440 Lord, thou wouldst have us like to thee 241
Lord! we believe a rest remains 647
Keep us, Lord, oh, keep us ever 463 Lord, we have wandered forth through doubt. 98
Kind Lord, before thy face
Know, my soul, thy full salvation 651 Lord, when thy people seek thy face 15
Lord! when we bend before thy throne 115
Laborers of Christ, arise
Lamp of our feet! whose hallowed beam 260 Love divine, all love excelling 535
Lead us with thy gentle sway 536 Love is and was my Lord and King 616

The hymn, "Thy Works, O Lord," has been substituted for the above in this edition.

Lo! what a glorious sight appears	424	O Christ, what gracious words	458
		O Earth! thy past is crowned and consecrated
•		O'er mountain tops, the mount of God
Make channels for the streams of love	456	O'er the distant mountains breaking	408
		O'er the gloomy hills of darkness
Many woes had Christ endured	308	O fairest born of love and light	375
Marked as the purpose of the skies	332	Often at evening comes a glowing thought	150
Mary to the Saviour's tomb	342	O God, accept the sacred hour	761
May I resolve with all my heart	522	O God, beneath thy guiding hand	836
May the grace of Christ, our Saviour	950	O God, by whom the seed is given	982
Meek and lowly, pure and holy	624	O God! ere heaven and earth were planned	794
Messiah Lord! who, wont to dwell	298	O God, I thank thee that the night	941
		O God! my inmost soul convert
		O God of Bethel, by whose hand
		O God of glory! when with eye uplifted
		O God! our God! thou shinest here
		O God, our strength! to thee the song
		O God, thou art my God alone;
My country, 'tis of thee	858	O God! thy grace and blessing give	684
		O God unseen—but not unknown
		O God, we praise thee, and confess
My Father! cheering name	201	O God! whose dread and dazzling brow	564
My God! how endless is thy love	178	O God, whose presence glows in all	80
My God, I love thee, not because	593	Oh, how thine ear, Eternal One	796
My God, I thank thee! may no thought	713	Oh, come, Creator Spirit blest	13
My God, my Father — blissful name	604	Oh, could I find, from day to day	481
My God, my Father, while I stray	690	Oh, could we speak the matchless worth	421
My God, permit me not to be	568	Oh, eyes that are weary, and hearts that are sore
My God! the covenant of thy love	631	Oh, for a closer walk with God	572
My gracious God, I own thy right	523	Oh, for a faith that will not shrink	486
My heavenly Father calls	762	Oh, for a heart to praise my God
My Jesus, as thou wilt	720	Oh, for a thousand tongues, to sing
My soul, repeat his praise	203	Oh, for the death of those	598
My soul, it is thy God	204	Oh, guard our shores from every foe
My soul before thee prostrate lies	447	Oh, happy day that fixed my choice
Mysterious Presence, Source of all	816	Oh, happy is the man who hears
"My times are in thy hand"	601	Oh, help us, Lord! each hour of need
		Oh, here, if ever, God of love
Nearer, my God, to thee	545	Oh, he whom Jesus loved has truly spoken
No bliss I'll seek, but to fulfil	646	Oh, how divine, how sweet the joy
Not by the martyrs' death alone	492	Oh! how happy are they	832
Not for the prophet tongue of fire			423
Not for the summer's hour alone		Oh! not alone with outward sign
Not in this simple rite alone		Oh, not to fill the mouth of fame	574
No track is on the sunny sky		O holy Father! just and trueO holy Father! mid the calm	835
Not with terror do we meet		Oh maria me the Tanta management	146
No war nor battle's sound		Oh, praise ye the Lord; prepare a new song
Now begin the heavenly theme		Oh, praise ye the Lord! prepare your glad voice	114
Now be the gospel banner	308	Oh, render thanks to God above	103
Now hallelujah, power and praise	907	Oh, shut not out sweet pity's ray	000
Now is th' accepted time	308	Oh, sometimes gleams upon our sight	903
Now let our prayers ascend to thee		Oh, speed thee, Christian, on thy way	101
Now let our souls on wings sublime Now may he who from the dead		Oh, spread the joyful sound
Now may the Lord, our Shepherd, lead		Oh! sweet it is to know, to feel
Now, O God, thine own I am		Oh, that the Lord's salvation
Now, on sea and land descending	51	Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways
Now the Christian's course is run		Oh! what amazing words of grace
Now the stars are lit in heaven	25
Now to the Lord a noble song
Now with eternal glory crowned	331	Oh, where shall rest be found
Tion aim continu Proil crounces	-007	Oh, wondrous depth of grace divine
O all ve nations! praise the Lord	986	Oh, worship the King all glorious above	113
O blest Creator of the light	143	Oh, yet, we trust that somehow good	419
		1 4 4 4

O life, O death, O world, O time	429	Pour, blesséd gospel, glorious news for man	416
O Lord and Master of us all	353	Pour out thy spirit from on high	815
O Lord of Hosts! Almighty King	861	Praise, everlasting praise, be paid	120
O Lord, thy perfect word	271	Praise for the glorious light	894
O Lord! where'er thy people meet		Praise God, from whom all blessings flow
O Love divine, how sweet thou art	445	Praise the God of our salvation
O Love divine, that stooped to share	611	Praise the Lord, his glories show
		Praise the Lord, his glory bless
O Maker of the fruits and flowers	899	Praise the Lord! ye heav'ns, adore him	104
Omnissient God 't is thing to know	590	Praise to God, immortal praise	855
		Praise to thee, thou great Creator	50
One prayer I have,—all prayers in one	561	Praise waits in Zion, Lord, for thee	62
One sweet flower has drooped and faded	670	Praise ye Jehovah's name
One sweetly solemn thought	006
On eyes that never saw the day		Prayer is the soul's sincere desire
On Jordan's stormy banks I stand		Press on, press on! ye sons of light	4//
On the dark wave of Galilee	297	O.J., T., J A., 3.3
On the mountain's top appearing		Quiet, Lord, my froward heart	219
On Zion's holy walls	719	The . 1
Open, Lord, my inward ear	544	Ready for their glorious crown	660
O shadow in a sultry land		Rejoice, believer, in the Lord
O sinner, bring not tears alone		Rejoice! the Lord is King	96
O Son of God! thy children we	345	Religion! in its blessed ray	521
O Source divine, and life of all	58	Religion is the chief concern	528
O thou, at whose rebuke the grave	510	"Remember thy Creator"	938
O thou, by long experience tried	644	Return, my roving heart, return
O thou by whom we come to God	550	Return, my soul, unto thy rest,	639
O thou Eternal One! whose presence bright	172	Ride on, ride on in majesty
O thou, from whom all goodness flows	588	Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky	840
() thou great Spirit, who along	957	Rise, crowned with light, Imperial Salem, rise
() thou, to whom all creatures bow		Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings
() thou, to whom, in ancient time	82	Rocked in the cradle of the deep	617
1) thou true Life of all that live		Rock of Ages, cleft for me
() thou, who art above all height
thou who driest the mourner's tear		Safely through another week	23
() thou, who hast at thy command		Saints for whom the Saviour bled
thou, who hast redeemed of old		Salvation! oh, the joyful sound
1) thou who hast thy servants taught	42	Saviour! teach me, day by day
thou, who on thy chosen Son		Saviour, visit thy plantation	740
thou, whose own vast temple stands		Saviour! what gracious words	979
thou, whose power o'er moving worlds	170	Saviour! who thy flock art feeding	779
Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed		Scorn not the slightest word or deed	455
Our children thou dost claim		"See how he loved!" exclaimed the Jews	200
Our days are numbered: let us spare	716	See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand
Our Father in heaven, we hallow thy name	69	See the leaves around us falling
Our Father! through the coming year		See the ransomed millions stand
Our God, our help in ages past	227	Send down the truth, O God
Our heaven is everywhere	037	Servant of God, well done
Our heavenly Father, hear	070	Servants of Christ, arise	4/4
Our offering is a willing mind		Shepherd of the holy hills	312
Our pilgrim brethren, dwelling far		Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing
Our soul shall magnify the Lord		Since all the varying scenes of time	649
Out of the depths I cry to thee	437	Sing we the peerless deeds of martyred saints
		Sing, ye redeemed of the Lord
Palms of glory, raiment bright	702	Sinner! rouse thee from thy sleep	156
l'arent of good, thy works of might		Sister, thou wast mild and lovely
Fart in peace! is day before us	954	Slowly, by God's hand unfurled	78
Peace of God, which knows no measure
People of the living God		Softly fades the twilight ray
Pilgrim, burdened with thy sin			133
Pilgrims in this vale of sorrow	212	Sometimes a light surprises	494
Pillows wet with tears of anguish	849	Songs of praise the angels sang	361
Pity the nations, O our God	768	Son of God! to thee I cry	735
Planted in Christ, the living Vine	748	Soon may the last glad song arise	408

	r.m. r.a 0.11
Sound the loud timbrel o'er Egypt's dark sea. 100	The Lord our God has sent his Son	910
	B The Lord our God is Lord of all
Sow in the morn thy seed
Speak with us, Lord; thyself reveal	B The morning light is breaking
Spirit divine! attend our prayer	7 The morning stars in concert sang
Spirit of cross and health and nower 95	8 The morn of peace is beaming	110
Spirit of grace, and health, and power 25 Spirit of holiness, descend	The past is dark with sin and shame
Spirit of peace, celestial Dove	The path of life we walk to-day
Spirit of purity and grace 27		703
Spread, oh, spread, thou mighty word 41	The praises of my tongue	930
Stand up!—stand up for Jesus	The race that long in darkness pined	913
Still hope! still act! Be sure that life 47	The radiant dawn of gospel light	422
Still prayers are strong, and God is good 42	There is a book, who runs may read	242
Still with thee, O my God	There is a calm for those who weep	683
Strong Son of God, immortal Love 32	There is a fountain filled with blood
Sunlight of the heavenly day 85
Supreme Disposer of the heart 45
Sweet is the friendly voice 46
Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve 14	There is a land of pure delight	691
Sweet is the prayer whose holy stream 54	There is a little lonely fold	319
Sweet is the scene when virtue dies 66	There is an hour of hallowed peace	813
Sweet is the task, O Lord, 5	There is an hour of peaceful rest
Sweet is the work, my God, my King 1-	There is a place of sacred rest	697
Sweet is the work, my God, my King 1 Sweet peace of conscience, heavenly guest 61	There is a pure and peaceful wave
Sweet Sabbath bells! I love your voice 92	There is a river, deep and broad
Sweet the moments, rich in blessing 31	There is a time when moments flow.,
Sweet thy memory, Saviour blest 29	There is a world,—and oh, how blest
Sweet to the soul the parting ray100	2 There is a world we have not seen
Swell the anthem, raise the song 84	There is no death! the stars go down
m	There 'll be something in heaven for children.
Take them, O death! and bear away 72	There seems a voice in every gale
Talk with us, Lord, thyself reveal 57	There's not a place in earth's vast round
Teach me, my God and King	There's not a star whose twinkling light
Teach me the measure of my days 43	The saints on earth and those above
Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view	The Saviour gently calls
Teach us to feel as Jesus prayed	The Saviour now is gone before The snow-plumed angel of the North	979
Thank and praise Jehovah's name 79	B The soul, by faith reclined	610 694
Thanks for mercies, Lord, receive 96
That mystic word of thine, O Sovereign Lord 57
The bird let loose in Eastern skies 59
The broken ties of happier days 65
The Christian warrior, see him stand 47
The day is past and gone
The day, O Lord, is spent
The dead are like the stars by day 81
The dwellings of the free resound 88		258
The earth, all light and loveliness 84	3 The twilight falls, the night is near	980
The fountain in its source 59
The glorious armies of the sky 23	3 The wrong that pains my soul below	182
The grace of Jesus Christ our Lord 51	7 They who on the Lord rely	920
The harp at Nature's advent strung 24	They who seek the throne of grace	551
The harvest-fields are broad and white 80	9 Think gently of the erring	900
The head that once was crowned with thorns. 34		498
The heaven of heavens cannot contain 18	I This stone to thee in faith we lay	795
The heavens declare thy glory, Lord 25	4 Thou art, Almighty Lord of all
The joyful morn, my God, is come 4
The light of love is round his feet 35	1 Thou art gone up on high	285
The Lord descended from above		196
The Lord is King! lift up thy voice	7 Thou art the first and thou the last
The Lord is our Shepherd our Guardian and. 19	2 Thou art the way;—to thee alone
The Lord Jehovah reigns	9 Thou dost come, all-healing Lord
The Lord my pasture shall prepare 19	s! THOR HART MUOIS MA HEARL DELL	134

Though benighted and forsaken	741	We are but young,—yet we may sing 939
Though faint and sick, and worn away	865	We are living, we are dwelling 998
Though now the nations sit beneath		We bid thee welcome in the name 808
Though wandering in a stranger land	57	We bless thee for this sacred day
Thou God, of sovereign grace	932	We bless thee for thy peace, O God 634
Thou God of years and seasons all	989	We follow, Lord, where thou dost lead 513
Thou Grace divine, encircling all	22 0	We have no home on earth below 715
Thou holy Jesus, kind and dear	940	We have not wings — we cannot soar 490
Thou, Lord! by mortal eyes unseen		Welcome, delightful morn 29
Thou Lord of life! whose tender care		Welcome, sweet day of rest
Thou, Lord, who rear'st the mountain's height		Welcome to me the darkest night 571
Thou Power and Peace, in whom we find	11	Welcome, welcome, quiet morning 52
Thou Saviour, from thy throne on high		We long to see that happy time 401
Thou, whose Almighty word	2	We love the house of prayer
Thou, whose wide extended sway	427	We now invoke thy blessing, Lord 979
Thrice happy souls, who, born from heaven		We praise thee if one rescued soul 891
Through all the various passing scene	240	We say to all men far and near
Through endless years thou art the same		We shape ourselves the joy or fear 441
Throughout the hours of darkness dim	161	"We 've no abiding city here"
Through the changes of the day	153	We wait in faith, in prayer we wait 529
Thus far the Lord has led me on	137	We would leave, O God! to thee
Thus saith the first, the great command	501	What glorion tidings do I have
Thus we commemorate the day	752 975	What glorious tidings do I hear
Thy bounteous hand with food can bless	48	What if the little rain should say 931 What though the arm of conquering death
Thy glory, Lord, the heavens declare Thy kingdom, Lord, forever stands		What though the arm of conquering death 731 When all thy mercies, O my God
Thy mighty working, mighty God	45	When, as returns this solemn day
Thy name, almighty Lord		When before thy throne we kneel 8!
Thy name be hallowed evermore	63	When children give their hearts to God 931
Thy presence, ever-living God		When darkness long has veiled my mind 413
Thy way, not mine, O Lord	562	When death was on the path he trid 779
Thy way, O Lord, is in the sea	237	When God descends with men to dwell 417
Thy ways, O Lord, with wise design	166	When God, of old, came down from heav'n 33
Thy will be done! in devious way	471	When God revealed his gracious name 824
Thy will be done! I will not fear		"When I am weak, I'm strong" 452 When I can read my title clear
Thy works, O Lord	138	When I can read my title clear 821
Time by moments steals away		When Israel of the Lord beloved 569
Times without number have I prayed	438	When Jesus, our great Master, came 489
T is a point I long to know	434	When languor and disease invade 430
'T is by the faith of joys to come	491	When morning's first and hallowed ray 86
"T is by thy strength the mountains stand "T is finished!"—So the Saviour cried	883	When, streaming from the eastern skies 129
"I is nnisned!"—So the Saviour cried	204	When the worn spirit wants repose 41
'T is gone, that bright and orbed blaze		When through the torn sail the wild tempest. 718
'T is my happiness below	432	When up to nightly skies we gaze 261
To God, before whom angels bow		When verdure clothes the fertile vale 877
To God from day to day		When, wakened by thy voice of power 119
To him who children blest		When we cannot see our way
To him who condescends to dwell		When winds are raging o'er the upper ocean. 518
To keep the lamp alive		Where ancient forests widely spread 805 Where'er the Lord shall build my house 914
To thee, O God, in heaven	785	Where shall the child of sorrow find 866
To thine eternal arms, O God		While in this sacred rite of thine
To thy temple I repair		While sounds of war are heard around 862
Triumphant, Lord, thy goodness reigns	252	While thee I seek, protecting Power 84
United prayers ascend to thee	772	While thus thy throne of grace we seek 17
Unite, my rising thoughts, unite	22	While, with ceaseless course the sun 846
Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb	724	While yet the youthful spirit bears 916
Upon the gospel's sacred page	388	Whilst far and wide thy scattered sheep 400
Up to the hills I lift mine eyes	256	Who are those before God's throne1001
Upward I lift mine eyes	190
With the American St. 100 and the St. 100 and		Who is thy neighbor? He whom thou 864
Wait! for the day is breaking	493	Who shall towards thy chosen seat 24
Walk in the light! so thou shalt know	579	Who, when beneath affiction's rod 759

INDEX OF HYMNS.	309
Why should we start and fear to die 667 Word of the eveliving God	264
Why, why repine, O pensive friend 508
With glory clad, with strength arrayed 188 Years are coming—speed them onward Within these doors assembled now 818 Ye followers of the Prince of peace	758
Within thine altar's shade
With one consent, let all the earth 108 Ye tribes of Adam, join
With sacred joy we lift our eyes	407
With stately towers and bulwarks strong 736 Ye wretched, hungry, starving poor	76 6
With tearful eyes I look around 305 With willing feet thy servant stands 803 Zion stands with hills surrounded	400

UNIVERSALIST PUBLISHING HOUSE
1887

CONFESSION OF FAITH

Adopted by the General Convention or UNIVERSALISTS.

A. D. 1803, AT ITS SESSION IN WINCHESTER, N. H.

ARTICLE I.

WE BELIEVE that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments contain a revelation of the Character of God, and of the duty, interest, and final destination of mankind.

ARTICLE II.

WE BELIEVE that there is one God, whose nature is Love, revealed in one Lord Jesus Christ, by one Holy Spirit of Grace, who will finally restore the whole family of mankind to holiness and happiness.

ARTICLE III.

WE BELIEVE that holiness and true nappiness are inseparably connected, and that believers ought to be careful to maintain order, and practise good works; for these things are good and profitable unto men.

SCRIPTURE SELECTIONS

FOR ALTERNATE READING.

Ι

BLESSED is the man who walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth fruit in its season: His leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

'The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; for the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green baytree.

Yet he passed away, and lo, he was not; yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace.

\mathbf{II}

WILL hear what God the Lord will speak, for he will speak peace unto his people; but let them not turn again unto folly.

Show us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

Surely his salvation is nighthem that fear him, that glory may dwell in our land. Mercy and truth are met together: Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall spring out of the earth, and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

Yea, the Lord will show lovingkindness; and our land shall yield her increase.

Righteousness shall go before him, and shall keep us in the way of his steps.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and show us the light of his countenance, that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations. Let the people praise thee, O God, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations be glad and sing for joy; for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God, Let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth yield her increase, and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us, and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

III

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

Before the word is on my tongue, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and hast laid thy hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: If I make my bed in the grave, behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the attermost parts of the sea, even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

I will praise thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Marvellous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

IV

SEND forth thy light and thy truth, O Lord: let them lead us to thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacle, even unto God our exceeding joy.

Thou wilt show us the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy: at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens, and thy faithfulness is above the clouds. Thy righteousness is like the great mountains: thy judgments are a great deep.

How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

They shall be abundantly satisfied with the bleasings of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever, and thy memorial throughout all generations.

We will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore.

Whom have we in heaven but Thee? And there is none upon earth that we desire beside thee.

V

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to the multitude of thy tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sins: For I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight, that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the heart: Teach me therefore wisdom in my inmost soul.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation, and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy ways, and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

O Lord, open thou my lips, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Thou desirest not sacrifice, else I would give it: thou delightest not in burnt-offering. The sacrifices of Gcd are a broken spirit:

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

VI

MANY there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. But thou, O Lord, art a shield for me, and the lifter up of my head.

There be many that say, Who will show us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Hear me when I call, O merciful God! Thou hast helped me when I was in distress: have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

Give ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation. Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King and my God, for unto thee will I pray.

My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lord: in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and look up.

For thou art not a God that hast pleasure in wickedness, neither shall any evil dwell with thee.

As for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy, and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteousness: make thy way straight before my face.

Let all those who put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy because thou defendest them: Let them also who love thy name be joyful in thee.

For thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous: with favor wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

VII

THE Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me:

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

VIII

THE Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord:

Joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them:

For he who hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them:

Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders:

But thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

The sun shall be no more thy light by day, neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: But the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

Thy sun shall no more go down, neither shall the moon withdraw itself.

For the Lord shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

And in this mountain shall the Lord of Hosts make unto all people a feast.

And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations.

He will swallow up death in victory, and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces;

And the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: For the Lord hath spoken it.

TX

O BE joyful in God, all ye lands. Sing forth the honor of his name: make his praise glorious. Say unto God, How wonderful art thou in thy works! Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee: they shall celebrate thy name.

Come and see the works of God: he is wonderful in his doing toward the children of men.

He ruleth by his power for ever: His eyes behold the nations: Let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard, who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

For thou, O God, hast proved us; thou hast tried us as silver is tried.

I will pay thee my vows which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken when I was in trouble.

Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul. I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me: But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

Blessed be God, who hath not turned away from my prayer, nor taken his mercy from me.

\mathbf{x}

IN thee, O Lord, do I put my trust: let me never be confounded, but deliver me in thy righteousness.

Bow down thine ear to me: deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, and my fortress; therefore, for thy name's sake, lead me and guide me.

Into thy hands I commend my spirit, for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord God of truth.

I will be glad, and rejoice in thy mercy, for thou hast considered my trouble: thou hast regarded my soul in adversity.

I trusted in thee, O Lord: I said, thou art my God: My times are in thy hand.

Show thy servant the light of thy countenance, and save me for thy mercy's sake.

O how great is thy goodness which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee, and trust in thee!

Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. O love the Lord, all ye his saints, for. the Lord preserveth them that are faithful.

Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

XI

I WAITED patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings; and he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor the deceitful.

Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required.

Then said I, Lo, I come to do what thy law commands. I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation.

I have not concealed thy loving-kindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Withold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: Let thy loving-kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

Innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of my head: therefore my heart faileth me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, make haste to help me.

Let all those who seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: Let such as love thy salvation say continually, The Lord be magnified.

XII

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord: for he commanded, and they were created.

He hath also established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

Praise the name of the Lord, for his name alone is excellent: his glory is above the earth and heaven.

Praise ye the Lord. Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the congregation of worshippers.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him; let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

For the Lord taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

Praise ye the Lord. Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.

XIII

All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord, and all the kindred of the nations shall worship before thee:

For the kingdom is the Lord's, and he is the Governor among the nations.

Send forth thy light and thy truth, O Lord: let them lead us to thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacle, even unto God our exceeding joy.

Thou wilt show us the path of life; in thy presence is fulness of joy: at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Thy mercy, O Lord, is in the heavens, and thy faithfulness is above the clouds. Thy righteousness is like the great mountains: thy judgments are a great

How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

They shall be abundantly satisfied with the blessing of thy house; and thou shalt make them to drink of the river of thy pleasures.

For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever, and thy memorial throughout all generations.

We will bless the Lord from this time forth, and for evermore.

Whom have we in heaven but thee? and there is none upon the earth that we desire beside thee.

Blessed be the Lord God, who only doeth wondrous things.

And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory.

XIV

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy feet to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in, from this time forth, and for evermore.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

He shall cover thee with his feathers. and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid of the terror of the night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall by thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

Because thou hast made the Lord thy refuge, and the Most High thy habitation:

There shall no evil thing befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

concerning thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him and honor

xv

NTO thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed.

Let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed that trangress without cause.

Show me thy ways, O Lord: teach me thy paths.

Lead me in thy truth and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; in thee do I trust all the day.

Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindness; for they have been ever of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my trangressions; according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

Good and upright is the Lord; therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy For he shall give his angels charge upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.

If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayst be feared.

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning.

Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

XVI

HOW lovely are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts!

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth, for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are thy ways.

They go from strength to strength, till all of them in Zion appear before God.

Behold, O God, our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? One thing have I desired of the Lord: that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in the secret of his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me upon a rock.

Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thy heart; wait, I say, on the Lord.

XVII

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honor.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands: thou hast put all things under his feet: all sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field, the fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

XVIII

SERVE the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves: we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

For the Lord is good: his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? and who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not inclined his soul unto vanity nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? the Lord, strong and mighty; the Lord, mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

XIX

THE heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth his handiwork.

Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

There is no sound nor language, and their voice is not heard.

Yet their speech is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

He goeth forth from one end of the heaven, and his circuit is to the other end of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.

$\mathbf{x}\mathbf{x}$

BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me, saith the Lord of hosts: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple.

But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth?

He is like a refiner's fire: he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the Lord an offering in righteousness.

The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

The voice raid, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry?

All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, because the wind of the Lord bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of our God shall stand forever.

And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth.

Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion.

XXI

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the law.

And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

XXII

HEREIN is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

And we have seen and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

We love him because he first loved us.

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments.

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

XXIII

LABOR not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

They said therefore unto him, What sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

XXIV

BLESSED is the man whom thou choosest, O Lord, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is pardoned.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, in whose spirit there is no guile.

Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud nor the deceitful.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in the time of trouble.

Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, that thou mayest teach him out of thy law, and give him patience in the day of adversity.

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation, for when he is tried he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they who do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them.

xxv

THE wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose.

It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice, even with joy and singing.

The glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon:

These shall see the glory of the Lord, and the excellency of our God.

Strengthen ye the feeble hands, and confirm the tottering knees: Say ye to the faint-hearted, Be strong, and fear not:

Behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense: he will come and deliver you.

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped: Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing:

For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty soil bubbling springs; and in the haunt of dragons shall spring forth the grass, with reeds and rushes.

And a highway shall be there; and it shall be called the way of holiness.

The unclean shall not pass over it, but the Lord himself shall be with them, walking in the way, and the foolish shall not err therein.

No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast; but the redeemed shall walk there.

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads:

They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

$\mathbf{x}\mathbf{x}\mathbf{v}$

WILL extol thee, my God, O King; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger and of great mercy.

The Lord is good to all, and his tender mercies are over all his works.

All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee.

They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

To make known to the sons of men thy mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of thy kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

The Lord upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

XXVII

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge; and though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

For we know in part, and we prophecy in part,

But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even also as I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three: but the greatest of these is charity.

XXVIII

I BESEECH you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophesy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, let us wait on our ministering:

Or he that teacheth, on teaching; or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love, in honor preferring one another;

Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

Bless them which persecute you: bless and curse not.

Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one towards another.

Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

XXIX

LEAD me in thy truth, O Lord, and teach me, for thou art the God of my salvation: on thee do I wait all the day.

Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy, remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy loving-kindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise, that I may sing of thy glory and honor all the day long.

All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thy hands.

O God, thou hast taught me from my youth; and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works. When I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not.

My days are determined: the number of my months is with thee. I am a stranger and a sojourner before thee, as were all my fathers: my days upon the earth are as a shadow.

Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage; and I will yet praise thee, more and more.

My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know no end thereof.

$\mathbf{x}\mathbf{x}\mathbf{x}$

THE Lord reigneth: let the people tremble: Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. He maketh darkness his secret place: his pavilion round about him is dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

He maketh the clouds his chariot, the winds his messengers, and his ministers a flaming fire.

In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his holy temple, and my cry came before him.

He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and darkness was under his feet.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, thou art exceeding glorious: thou art clothed with honor and majesty.

Thou coverest thyself with light as with a garment, and spreadest out the heavens like a curtain.

To the merciful thou showest thyself merciful, and righteous to the upright: To the pure thou wilt appear pure, and wrathful to the froward.

Let my sentence come forth from thy presence, O Lord.

As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied when I awake with thy likeness.

Show thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord: Guard me as the apple of the eye: Hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

The Lord reigneth: let the earth rejoice: Let the multitude of isles be glad thereof. Clouds and darkness are round about him: Righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne: Mercy and truth shall go before his face.

Blessed are the people that know the joyful sound. They shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

XXXI

 $\forall \, {

Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name! for thou only art holy.

Thou art the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings and Lord of lords; who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: To whom be power and glory everlasting.

Blessing, and thanksgiving, and honor, be unto our God, world without end.

I will praise thee with my whole heart: I will worship in thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and thy truth.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, and shall glorify thy name:

For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things; and blessed be his glorious name forever.

The Lord bless us, and keep us:

The Lord make his face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us:

The Lord lift up his countenance upon us, and give us peace.

ND one of the scribes came, and A having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

And the second is like, namely this: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy-There is none other commandment greater than these.

And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he:

And to love him with all the heart. and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole-burnt offerings and sacrifices.

And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

FOR all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

For we know that, if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

For we walk by faith, not by sight:

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Wherefore we labor that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

XXXIV

FOR other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours;

Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

XXXV

THE Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

For the creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

Because the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

XXXVI

I SAY unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

XXXVII

HE said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

XXXVIII

ROR God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the onlybegotten Son of God.

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light: but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

XXXIX

IF in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

But every man in his own order:

Christ the first-fruits, afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power.

For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

For he hath put all things under his seet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

XL

BUT I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.
